WASHING SHEEP.

It may be for the interests of dealers in wool and manufacturers, to have sheep washed previous to shearing. But the welfare of the flocks and the interests of the owners of valuable sheep, which are considered of paramount importance to every thing else, are promoted by not washing. The farmers' only reason for washing sheep is, that, if the wool be thoroughly washed, a man can shear a sheep sooner than if it were not washed. Sheep hate wet in every form. They dislike wet pastures, wet yards, long sheds, and more than all else, wet fleeces. When they are washed, the water and the weather are frequently quite cold, and as they often become uncomfortably warm while being driven to the water, and are plunged immediately into it, and kept there until quite chilled through; they are quite liable to contract more or less of the disease which will many times terminate some other disease. This is particularly true if the weather continue wet and cold for several successive days after washing. This is the great argument against the practice of washing sheep in our changeable climate. Every practice that endangers the health of sheep ought, if possible, to be abandoned, and not be made subservient to ordinary pecuniary considerations.

Another thing against washing sheep, is, that cleansing of wool in this manner is of little real advantage, and frequently of none at all, as often becomes quite as dirty before shearing, as before the sheep were washed. This is particularly true when sheep are not kept in clean pastures after they have been washed. Many times it is quite impracticable to confine every flock in pastures where they cannot find some dirty place to roll in. Sometimes shears cannot be obtained at the desired time, or the weather is too unfavorable to allow the wool to dry sufficiently to be sheared, and sometimes the laborers of the field are so urgent that shearing must be deferred for a number of days. All these considerations are in favor of shearing entirely the practice of washing sheep. Admitting that it costs more per head for shearing unwashed sheep, the expense of washing will exceed the extra cost for shearing without washing. Therefore, these two items will balance each other. Then, when the difference between the prices of unwashed and washed wool, which is not definite, even when the above one-third rate is insisted upon by buyers, is contrasted with injury which may follow washing valuable sheep, it is safe to assume that it is better to shear them unwashed. Moreover, when fleeces from various parts of the country are driven to the same place, there is a great danger that sound and healthy fleeces will come in contact with the contagion of diseased sheep that have been in the pens to be washed. Many an excellent flock of sheep, which has been guarded with vigilance by its proprietor, has been well nigh ruined by being driven where shearing pens the foot-rot had recently been confined. What is needed at the present time is, an understanding between wool growers that all who shear their sheep without washing; then the practice will soon be abandoned, as neither promotive of the welfare of the sheep nor of the interests of the shearer, and a number of manufacturers.—American Agriculturist.

CLEAN YOUR CELLARS.

If not already done: thoroughly purge this subterranean store of your house. Every decayed onion, cabbage stump, potato vine or tuber, turnip, parsnip, carrot and all the dirt they have in them, all straw and rubbish, rake them up and out with them. The cellar is no place for them at any time of the year. If you still retain a few potatoes for table use let them be picked over and all decayed ones removed. One of the best housewives of our acquaintance, greets us not long after she has come to see her cellar. "I have swept down every cobweb, whitewashed the walls, swept up the floor, and sowed it with salt. Decayed vegetable matter is a fertile cause of disease, and there is enough of it out of doors in this country without heaping it up in the cellar. If you have any straw, it will almost seem, of breeding fever. White-wash the walls, for lime purifies as well as beautifies. Rake down the cobwebs, they are the infallible marks of a slattern. Salt destroys worms; and if your cellar is very dry and sandy, you may use salt without detriment; but too damp it will make the matter worse.

DEPTH OF COVERING SEEDS.

As a general rule, the smaller the seed the lighter should be the covering. We are very apt to cover too deeply. Nature here is safe to follow. She covers lightly. The seed falls from the ripened stalk upon the surface of the ground to be covered only with leaves, or to be washed into the soil by the rains. Onions, parsnips, squashes and Lima Beans, such plants, especially, as push up the shells of the seed itself, find it difficult to force their way up through much depth of earth, after they have been sown by rains. A quarter of an inch at most, is quite sufficient for these seeds.

CARE SHOULD BE TAKEN THAT NO LUMPS OF EARTH BE LEFT OVER THEM.

We like long rows of beets, carrots, parsnips, etc., and don't believe in wasting the land in useless paths and walks, or in the best garden alleys. Remove from four to six inches of the dirt, and having screened the ashes or separated the core and cinders, first apply the coarse stuff, then oyster-shells, if you have any on hand, small stones, glass or pieces of bricks, and topdress with the ashes. Roll it, and you will have one of the best garden alleys in a garden. The ashes become very hard, and are never wet, winter or summer, if the weather gives the water the least chance to get away. In summer in five minutes after a shower, there will be scarcely enough moisture to dampen the soles of your shoes. If there is not sufficient ashes for this, walk, commence with the principal ones, and in a couple of years the garden will be complete. Then, each spring after, give them a slight top-dressing of the ashes, which will about consume your annual stock.—Germantown Telegraph.

BRIDS.—Whatever have birds may come among the fruits in summer, during April and May they live upon insects, and the number they destroy is immense. Happy is he who has his garden full of them. Wrens and blue birds especially should be counted and furnished with houses of appropriate sizes; for wrens, boxes 4x4 with an inch hole for entrance two inches above the floor; for blue birds, 6x6 with 1 1/4 inch hole. Colonize different birds in different places, for the wrens are quarrelsome.—Agriculturist.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE Bedford County Mutual Oil Company. Over 50,000 Shares Already Sold. Capital Stock $150,000. Par Value of Shares $100,000. No Favoritism. Every Subscriber on the Ground Floor.

The property of the above named company, which is about being organized under the mining laws of Pennsylvania, consists of the following valuable territory, to wit:

1. A lease of one-half acre, known as "No. 3," on the Tenney and Storow purchase, on Cherry Run, Venango county, Pa., just above the celebrated "Red" well and within a stone's throw of a well struck, flowing at present 100 barrels per day. A new derrick erected upon the lot. One-half the oil to the company.

2. A lease of one-half acre, in close proximity to the above, known as "No. 6," on the Tenney and Storow purchase on Cherry Run. New derrick erected upon the lot. One-half the oil to the company.

3. The refusal for sixty days, of a lease on Sugar Creek, of two acres of ground; five-eighths of the oil to the company.

4. Seven acres in fee simple on the waters of Ritchey Run, one mile from its junction with the Allegheny, about the same distance from the Fox and Wilder well, owned by the "Stump Island Oil Company." All flat, boreable territory, at present under cultivation, with a good frame house upon the premises.

5. Three acres in fee simple on the Allegheny river, just below the mouth of the Clarion river. There is room on this tract for all seven wells. The "Allegheny and Clarion River Oil Company," of Philadelphia, are now sinking several wells immediately opposite this property, with excellent prospects of success.

In presenting the above basis to the public, it is confidently believed that it cannot be excelled by that of any other company yet organized. The Cherry Run region has proved to be the surest oil-producing territory yet discovered. Nineteen tenths of the wells bored on this stream have yielded the great "Red" well, flowing 375 barrels per day, the "Mountain" well flowing 400, and in fact nearly all of the large wells yet struck, are located on Cherry Run.

It is proposed to sell sufficient number of shares to pay for the territory and to raise working capital for its development, at the low price of twenty-five cents per share, the plan being to give each subscriber a pro rata interest in the territory, engine, and other property of the company, as well as the shares of stock remaining unsold after the purchase money and working capital are raised. From the nature of the leases before us, no person must be commenced within sixty days from the 20th of April, 1865, which is a sufficient guaranty that the company will proceed without delay to the development of its territory.

The following named persons have been elected officers of the company. President—J. B. FARQUHAR. Secretary and Treasurer—JACOB REED. DIRECTORS: Wm. Masters, B. F. Meyers, J. H. Smith, J. M. Shoemaker, J. H. Scheel, F. D. Beagle.

Persons desiring to secure Stock in this Company will please call immediately on any one of the above officers. CALL AT CRAMER & CO.'S IF YOU WANT CHEAP GOODS! THERE YOU WILL FIND A Good Stock; ALL OF WHICH IS OFFERED AT PRICES CORRESPONDING WITH THE GREAT DECLINE. April 7, 1865.

WHISKERS! WHISKERS! Do you want Whiskers or Mustaches? Our Green Compound will force them to grow on the smoothest face or chin, or hair on bald heads, in six weeks. Price, $1.00. Sent by mail anywhere closely sealed, on receipt of price. Address, W. R. Y. E., Box 125, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE CELEBRATED Horse and Cattle Powders. These Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. Of chief superiority these powders arises from the fact that they are composed of medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The laxative effects eradicate from the stomach and bowels, the toxic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and take the fever out of the system, and give healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal. These powders are not intended, as most powders are to blot the animal, so as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but to remove the disease and promote his general health. These powders will strengthen the stomach and intestines, cleanse them from offensive matter, and bring them to a healthy state. They are a sure preventive of the disease, and promote his general health.
