We have been requested to say that Mr. Howard's Dramatic and Musical Company will exhibit at the Court House to-night.
Mr. Howard is the lessee of the Cumberland Theatre where his Company has held forth for the last eight menths.

We had the pleasure of taking our young friend Capt. Josiah Hyssong, of Co. H, 55th Reg. P. V., by the hand a few days since. He was severely wounded some time ago but is rapidly recovering. We are confident he makes a good officer,

We stated last week that Mrs. Imler who was arrested and incarcerated for the murder of her child is a soldier's widow. We were misinformed, and therefore take so much f our statement back. She was brought up on a writ of Habeas Corpus before His Honor, Judge King, on last Tuesday, and we understand, remanded for further hearing. We have no opinion to express in regard to her

"That which is Bred in the Bone will.
APPEAR THROUGH THE FLESH."—We are informed that a "secosh" woman in St. Clairsville, Bedford county, displayed her breeding by tying crape upon her dog, when the news was received of the assassination of our lamented President. This female has certainly, through ignorance and political malice, exthrough ignorance and political malice, ex-ceeded all the Northern traitors who have so disgraced themselves by exhibiting their dis-respect for the Nation's great martyr.

The above we clip from the Hollidaysburg Register. We have made strict inquiry to ascertain the truth of the averment, and it is with shame that we are compelled to admispurns his mistress. "Garments of a mystical sublimity, No matter whether russet, silk, or dimity," wending their way with visages long and seedy to pay their respects to the man who they have always claimed was a prodegy of chivalry and magnanimity. Oh! wouldn't we enjoy it. Editors generally get free tickets, but rather than any body's feelings should be hurt, we will pay the dollar and think it a good investment. But read our friends sug-

MESSRS. EDITORS: I see by the papers that Jeff. Davis is captured. I infer that it is true as it is official, and don't doubt but that it will be confirmed by the Bedford Gazette of week after next. Without waiting for the above paper, we will concede that the chivalric "President" has been arrested and will be found guilty of treason, if not, of being accessary to the assassination of our late worthy President. If found guilty, the sen tence of the Court, and the sanction of the civilized world will be that he shall hang by the neck until dead."

But is a man who has made so much mischief to be let off so easy? A man who has starved thousands of our patriotic people, who has sacrificed thousands of human lives upon the battle field, and who has done our country incalculable mischief, only that he might gratify a treasonable ambition, deserves not to have his own private feelings consulted with regard to the manner of his "taking off" nor with regard to the use to which his body may be put before he is called upon to doff his petticoat. I suggest that when he is a "tried and convicted traitor," and prior to the day appointed for his execution, that he be conveyed from one point to another over our great country and exhibited, just as cap-

We commend the eulogy to the perusal of our many readers Eulogy on the death of Abraham Lincoln, Late President of the United States, de livered to the 184th Pa. Vols., April the 19th, the day of his funeral, by Col. John

This day is our land stricken with sadness and the people who so lately rejoiced over the triumph of our arms are mourning like chil-dren mourning the death of their parent. Houses lately illuminated now wear the black shroud of mourning. Strong men weep, and all bow in humiliation and sorrow. Gloom, this week's paper compels us to exclude a like the thick mists of the morning, hangs over the whole country; for "Know ye not there is a prince and a great man fallen thi day in Israel ?" All that is earthly, all that is mortal of Abraham Lincoln, late our be loved President, will this day be consigned to Friday the 14th inst., he lingered until Saturthat gave it. his memory. Death in a household is a severe affliction. The great enemy of time always sails over seas of tears, and his path is strewn with sorrows, troubles and broken hearts. But what are individual afflictions compared with National calamities? It is true a wife is widowed, and children are made orphans, but the soldier has lost his best friend, the people have lost their chief ruler, and the counrule. Yours, As a citizen he was honest, charitable and upright. But how shall we rank him as a states man? His simplicity was almost childlike, amiable and conciliatory in deportment, his firmness was that of everlasting hills; courting no favors, honor sought him; not ambitious in power, he shrunk from no responsibility. One of the people, he was identified with their interests. They placed him in position, and they retained him there. As a legislator, he foreshadowed events which in his own days almost amounted to prophecy. As a ruler, leniency was coupled with firmness, justice was tempered with forgiveness; but the interests of his country were always uppermost in his heart. How many of us who differed with him with shame that we are compelled to admit four years ago, now uphold the doctrines its correctness. It is said that the dog even which he then advocated? If he had honest enemies it was because his ideas were years n advance of his age. Those loved him who knew him best. As President the people testified their approbation of his course by his triumphant re-election. We waged war to construct, not to subjugate. The repentant rebels always found pardon at his hands. He inaugurated anew system in American politics, as a ruler his type was essentially his own; careful study and anxious thought marked his every public act. Convinced that startling changes must be made, he did not spring them suddenly upon the people, but as if by a silken cord he led the public masses to think his own thoughts. Nor did he claim infallibility in anything. His language when submitting a certain great act was, "This is my plan, I do not know that it is best, and shall certainly change it when a better one is submitted." But who of us, who of all the land, can improve his public policy? Peaceful relations were sustained with foreign powers, when they but wished for an opportunity to declare war. An exhausted treasury was replemished and while a most desperate war was waged in suppression of a rebellion, agriculture was sustained, industry was stimulated, and the resources of our country were more fully developed. Manufactories flourished and the sails of the data of the sails of the light has been infallible, or the light has been in South Carolina about two years and a half. DEATH OF GEN. A. P. HILL. -The following etter in regard to the death of Gen. A. P. Hill, from our mutual friend, Lieut. C. P. Calhoun, will be read with pride by many of our patriotic citizens. DANVILLE, Va., May 5, 1865. EDITORS INQUIRER:-The following taken from the Norristown Herald and Free Press, of April 27th, I hope you will publish, that your readers may know that Bedford county can boast as brave patriots as ever fired a gun in defence of their country.

"Just after the assault upon the rebel works. April 2d, some of our men penetrated the country as far as the Southside Railroad, and two men of Co. "F," named Corp. John W. Mauk and private Daniel Wolford were among the number. They tore up two rails of the track, and when returning to the command, they encountered two rebel mounted officers, who at once demanded their surrender. It was, however, refused, and Corp. Mauk shot one of them dead. Private Wolford shot at the other, but he escaped apparently unhurt. The men returned to their regiment and reported their adventure. It appears that information gained from rebel prisoners gives the circumstances of Gen. A. P. Hill's death as similar to that of the officer shot by Corp. FROM THE HON. THOS. B. FLORENCE:

Washington, January I. 1864.

Gentlemen.—Having stated it verbally to you, I have no hesitation, in writing the fact, that I experienced marked benefit from your Hoofland's German Bitters. During along and tedious session of Congress, pressing and onerous duties nearly prostrated me. A kind friend suggested the use of the preparation I have named. I took his advice, and the result was improvement of health, renewed energy, and that particular relief I so much needed and obtained. Others may be similarly advantaged if they desire to be.

Truly your friend,

THOMAS B. FLORENCE.

From John B. Wickersham, Esq., firm of Wick-

From John B. Wickersham, Esq., firm of Wickersham & Hutchison, the celebrated Manufacturers of Fancy-Iron Works, 259 Canal St.

I am the recipient from you of one of the greatest favors that can be conferred upon man, viz: that of health. For many years have I suffered from one of the most annoying and debilitating complaints that the human family can be afflicted with, Chronic Diarrhea.

During the long time I was suffering from this disease, I was attended by regular physicians, giving me but temporary relief. The cause seemed to remain until I was induced to try Hoofland's German Bitters. After the use of a few bottles of that valuable medicine, the complaint appeared to be completely cradicated.

I often inwardly thank you for such a valuable specific and, whenever I have an opportunity, cheerfully recommend it, with full confidence in its reliability.

Truly yours,
John B. Wickersham.

mother-in-law has been so greatly benefitted by your Hoofland's German Bitters that I concluded to try it myself. I find it to be an invaluable tonic and unhesitatingly recommend it to all who are suffering from dyspepsia. I have had that disease in its most obstinate form—flatulence—for many years, and your Bitters has given me ease when everything else had failed. Yours truly, Julius Lee.

From the Hon. JACOB BROOM,

Philadelphia, Oct. 7th, 1863.

Gentlemen: In reply to your inquiry as to the effect produced by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, in my family, I have no hesitation in saying that it has been highly beneficial. In one instance, acase of dyspepsia of thirteen years' standing, and which had become very distressing, the use of one bottle gave decided relief, the second effecting a cure, and the third, it seems, has confirmed the cure, for there has been no symptoms of its return for the last six years. In my individual use of it 1 find it to be an unequalled tonic, and sincerely recommend its use to the sufferers.

Truly yours,

JACOB BROOM,

Messrz. Jones & Evans—tienttemen:—I have recently been laboring under the distressing effects of indigestion, accompanied by a prostration of the nervus system. Numerous remedies were recommended by friends, and some of them tested, but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by neverous who had tried but without relief. Your Hoofland's German Bitters were recommended by persons who had tried them, and whose favorable mention of the Bitters induced me also to try them. I must confess that I had an aversion to Patent Medicines, from the "thousand and one" quack "Bitters" whose only aim seems to be to palm off sweetened and drugged liquor upon the community, in a sly way; and the tendency of which, I fear, is to make many a confirmed drunkard. Upon learning that yours was really a medicine preparation, I took it with happy effect. Its action was not au upon only the stomach, but upon the nervous system, was prompt and gratifying. I feel that I have derived great and permanent benefit from the use of a few bottles. Very respectfully yous,

Dr. Jackson: Dear Sir:—I feel it due to your excellent preparation, Hoofland German Bitters, to add my testimony to the deserved reputation it has obtained. I have for years, at times, been troubled with great disorder in my head and nervous system. I was advised by a friend to try a bottle of your German Bitters, I did so, and have exprienced great and unexpected relief; my health has been every materially benefited. I confidently recommend the article where I meet with cases similar to my own, and have been assured by many of their good effects.
