

AND STILL THEY COME.

The leaders of the rebellion are being rapidly picked up and put in secure quarters, when they may be forthcoming at the call of the Government to answer for their crimes.

ENGLAND AND THE TARIFF SYSTEM.

The following extract of a letter from one of our most distinguished representatives in England was received here to-day, and will attract considerable attention.

"Great efforts will now be made by English capitalists and manufacturers to induce us to reduce our tariffs, and permit them to do all our manufacturing for us.

THE THIRD SERIES OF SEVEN THIRTIETHS.

The great success of the 7-30 Loan must always be looked upon as one of the most powerful evidences of the strength of the United States Government, and of its strong hold upon the confidence and affections of the people.

When Prince Charles made his escape after his father's execution, he assumed a disguise, but it was that of a man.

on and three-tenths in currency—a right which would pre-suppose a return to specie payments, and make six per cent. in gold even better than the high rate in currency—a consummation most devoutly to be wished.

The privilege of converting the notes into six per cent. gold bonds at the end of three years, or receiving payment at maturity, at the holder's option, is retained.

THESE FOUR YEARS.

It would be well to look back over these last four years, and review what we have learned in the terrible school through which we have passed.

1. We have learned a lesson of trust in God. It was hard work to believe that we could do and bear all we have and live.

2. We have learned our own strength. It is a great thing to know that we are able to carry on war, under the most trying and dangerous circumstances, for four years; and to put a million of men into the field; to sustain them and pay them; to pursue all the ordinary and many extraordinary branches of business with success; to enjoy unexampled pecuniary, moral and intellectual prosperity, and finally to pass through a civil war of gigantic proportions and come out of it with all our energies unimpaired.

3. We have learned that this is to be one nation, one people, one government, one Union, now and forever. The men of the East, or the West, or the Middle, or the North, or the South, may go wild on the theory of self-government, and imagine that our original principle of independence teaches the right of revolution whenever a state or section chooses to set up for itself.

4. The same lesson is the eternal reputation of the doctrine of nullification and secession. That is only another name for revolution or rebellion. Webster was supposed to have annihilated this heresy.

5. So is slavery. We all knew that slavery was a great evil and a fearful curse, the incubus of the South and the reproach of the land.

Other lessons we have learned, and we mean to read them, together with the duties that result. A wide field of research is before us.

When Prince Charles made his escape after his father's execution, he assumed a disguise, but it was that of a man.

When Prince Charles made his escape after his father's execution, he assumed a disguise, but it was that of a man.

FROM WASHINGTON.

THE GRAND REVIEW.

WASHINGTON, May 23. A more beautiful day has hardly been witnessed this season.

The avenue has been swept from curb to curb, and guards posted at each alley and street, so as to prevent any one from intruding outside the curbstones on the Avenue.

In front of the President's house, before nine o'clock, the scene was magnificent indeed. The long terraced rows of seats on each side of the street were occupied by thousands of ladies, while four stands were distinguished people.

At stand number one, the President and Cabinet, Lieutenant General Grant, Gen. Sherman, Major-General Logan and others were seated.

Their first appearance was greeted by long and continued shouts of thousands, interspersed with waving of flags, handkerchiefs, etc.

Shortly after nine o'clock the head of the column reached General Grant's stand, where all the mounted officers saluted him.

The march was very fine. The troops had clean bright uniforms. The guns were brightly polished, and the artillery reflected the sunbeams brilliantly.

Accordingly met Commodore Farrad at Citronville, a point about 25 miles above Mobile, and accepted his proposal on the same basis as granted to General Richard Taylor by Major-General Canby, the latter having taken place at the same point and time.

His story, as told by his own relations, shows deeper intention than has been generally supposed, and facts upon Jeff. Davis and cabinet crime both startling and appalling in its details.

Senator Foot determined to report these facts to the Senate, but the balance of the committee overruled him, and suppressed the facts.

It is also ordered that all restrictions upon trade heretofore imposed in the territory of the United States, east of the Mississippi river, except those relating to contraband of war, to the reservation of the rights of the United States, to property purchased in the territory of the enemy, and to twenty-five per cent. upon the purchases of cotton, are removed.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Rebel Ideas of Education.

A CURIOUS GEOGRAPHY FOR BEGINNERS. The New Bedford (Mass.) Standard, of Tuesday, says: "The managers of the late Squam Falls Convention look all pains to emphasize the right Confederation generations with a due spirit of nationality and sense of the importance of the position of the Confederacy among the nations of the world, not to the universe at large.

The True Delta of yesterday published a report that Kirby Smith had been assassinated by Major M. Keck with whom a difficulty growing out of cotton speculation has occurred.

The steamer St. John was burned near Mobile on the 15th. The boat and baggage are a total loss.

FROM TENNESSEE.

NEW YORK, May 22. A special dispatch from Nashville to the Times says it is reported that Isham G. Harris has been captured.

The influx of paroled prisoners has caused a great excitement among the colored troops here. A plot to rise and murder every rebel in Memphis in revenge for the Fort Pillow massacre was discovered.

FROM MEXICO.

NEW YORK, May 20. The steamer Evening Star, from New Orleans on the 13th, arrived at this port yesterday. Her arrival has been anticipated by telegraph from Cairo.

The papers contain some Mexican news. When Colonel Towinsky went out to attack the Liberals, at Nava, the greater part of his cavalry deserted when ordered to charge.

His story, as told by his own relations, shows deeper intention than has been generally supposed, and facts upon Jeff. Davis and cabinet crime both startling and appalling in its details.

Senator Foot determined to report these facts to the Senate, but the balance of the committee overruled him, and suppressed the facts.

It is also ordered that all restrictions upon trade heretofore imposed in the territory of the United States, east of the Mississippi river, except those relating to contraband of war, to the reservation of the rights of the United States, to property purchased in the territory of the enemy, and to twenty-five per cent. upon the purchases of cotton, are removed.

It is also ordered that all restrictions upon trade heretofore imposed in the territory of the United States, east of the Mississippi river, except those relating to contraband of war, to the reservation of the rights of the United States, to property purchased in the territory of the enemy, and to twenty-five per cent. upon the purchases of cotton, are removed.

APPREHENDED SLAVE INSURRECTION IN CUBA.

THE COLONIAL STANDARD OF JAMAICA HAS THE FOLLOWING STARTLING INTELLIGENCE.

From a conversation which we have had with a gentleman who returned to this city from Cuba in the Jamaica packet, we learn that matters in Cuba have begun to assume a threatening aspect.

The division of mankind into nations is as follows: "In America, The Confederate States, the United States, &c., &c."

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

Our colored troops remember the massacre at Fort Pillow. A plot for revenge was discovered.

THREE VIEWS.

THE FRENCH ACADEMY.

The establishment of an Academy in the republic of letters may be as some supposed, an Utopian scheme, and the United efforts of Academies may have produced but little; but it is certain that the French Academy has made an imposing appearance in Europe.

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

Our next advice from Cuba, then, may be another look at the old school, and as 'remarkable for the elegance and refinement of its people, who, like the citizens of Norfolk, are as hospitable as they are intelligent and noble.'

THE INCOME OF THE PRINCE OF WALES.

THE INCOME OF THE PRINCE OF WALES.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.

The friends of the Prince of Wales represent that this young gentleman is in needy circumstances, in consequence of the increased duties devolving on him, since the Queen was called into retirement by domestic affliction.