

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 9, 1865.

TO OUR FRIENDS.

The war has drawn rapidly to a close, and were before. Not only the adjustment of the terms of peace, and the future constitutional be discussed within the next four years. No citizen will be able to make up his mind inof the newspapers, which have now become the great forum of public discussion.

On all public questions the INQUIEER has clear, decided, well-established principles, which it means to utter with its usual boldness and freedom. The preservation of our National Integrity at all hazards; Universal Liberty for all men; Freedom of Speech, and of the Press; the Limitation of the Powers of the Government; Economical and Equal Legislation; and the Just Distribution of Taxes-these are among the leading principles that it designs to maintain with all its ability and zeal, yet with moderation and judgment. Its tone, as beretofore, will be public debate.

the INQUIRER will ensure from its old friends the same generous support and encourage ment which they have given it in years past, and that its usefulness will be greatly increas ed by a large accession of new names to its list of subscribers.

His loss will be deeply felt by his kind family and his numerous warm riends. He had resided for many years in the borough of Schellsburg, and filled many posts of honor in that community, and, being out little past the prime of life, no doubt, all contemplated many years of usefulness for him, but in a moment, as it were, he was ushered from this world to taste the realities of the unknown future. THE JURY COMMISSIONER BILL.-Many of ur readers may have forgotten that Hon. eorge W. Householder, at the late session of the Legislature of this State, succeeded in naving a law passed for this Senatorial disrict, and a few other counties, authorizing the selection of two persons to be elected Jury Commissioners at the election to be held this every candid and impartial citizen of this district for the inception and passage of this bill. It is undoubtedly, at no very distant day, calculated to revolutionize the present system of drawing jurors throughout the State. And so important a measure should be fully ty before the assembling of the County Convention on the 27th instant. One of the best men in the county should be nominated by that convention, for this office, and we hope that our opponents will do likewise. Up to that mortal man ever travelled throughthe present, we have not heard any one suggested for the position, however, being a every other office. Below we publish a copy of the law, that all who desire may learn its and wondered where we "all come from."

ARMY CORRESPONDENCE.

CAMP NEAR MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 8 Editors Inquirer: Having enjoyed a breath ing spell, I seat myself to write you from the capital of Alabama. I shall endeavor to give your readers, in as few words as possible, an ecount of our travels since writing my last. Our regiment left Natchez, Miss., on the oth of March, and the following day landed at Carrollton, La., a small town seven miles north of New Orleans. Here we lay in camp antil the 10th of April, and in the meantime were fully equipped and mounted. From Carrollton we marched, by way of St. John's Bayou, to Lake Point, on Lake Ponchartrain. Lake Point, or, as it is sometimes called, Milneburg, is a small town about five miles from New Orleans, and connected with the latter by railroad. In bygone days it was a noted bathing place, but the houses are now sadly out of repair. Here we embarked on oardsteamers for Fort Blakely, going through what is known as Grant's Pass, touching at Fort Gaines, at the entrance of Mobile Bay, nd reaching Fort Blakely late in the evening of the 16th, one day after the surrender of the lace. The channel was yet full of torpedoes nd our progress up was necessarily slow. should like very much to have visited Fort Spanish and the other works, also the city of Mobile, which lays in plain sight, but we were only allowed until next day at noon to preare to march, so I had not the time. On Monday, the 17th, our brigade; com-osed of the 2d N. J., 4th Wis., 10th, 12th nd 13th Indiana Cavalry, and the 14th Ohio Battery, left camp near Blakely, taking the old stage road to Greenville, on the Alabama and Florida R. R. Gen. Smith's 16th army corps had already preceded us. Nothing much of interest transpired on our march to Greenville, which place we reached on the 22d, 135 miles from Blakely. The citizens were completely taken by surprise. They were pursuing their usual avocations, and the few officers and soldiers were unconscious of danger and scattered about town, when Col Spruling, at the head of one hundred men, dashed upon them, capturing nine commi fall. Householder deserves the thanks of sioned officers and eighty enlisted men. exclusive of three medical officers and two captains. Many of the citizens-took to the swamps and escaped, but the greater part of them were taken prisoners and afterwards released. As the cavalry was dashing down one of the streets the stars and stripes were considered by the Union people of this coun- unfurled from a neat little cottage, when the troops halted and gave three times three for the glorious old flag.

For a distance of one hurdred miles north of Blakely is the poorest section of country nothing but lofty pines over head and white sandunder foot. In travelling this distance I sure thing we have no doubt but there will do not believe we passed more than six housbe plenty of applicants for this, as well as for es that were inhabited. The few people we did see stared at us in blank astonishment When we reached the open country we subsisted almost entirely off theinhabitants, completely stripping it of all lorses and mule that could be found.

At Greenville a salute of two hundred guns were fired in honor of the surender of Gen. Lee and his army. At that time we had not heard of the surrender of Johnston, and it was not until day before yesterday that we children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children widow to children under sixteen years of age; and provided the latter have left neither widow to children widow t

At Greenville Gen. Grienon ordered his vagon train to follow that of Gen. Smith's to Montgomery, which place we reached on the 26th, one Division of the 16th Corps having pushed on and taken quist possession the day previous.

Montgomery is anything but a handson city. It is about the size of Cumberland, Md. and, setting aside the State House and Exchange Hotel, does not contain any finer buildings. The streets are unpaved. The stores are mostly all open and fish, vegetables of all kinds, strawberries, blackberries and dewberries are to be found abundantly, but at most exorbitant prices-in Greenbacks.

Confederate money is not looked at. A great many troops are encamped in and around the city, but what disposition will be made of them I am unable to say. war is considered virtually at an end I suppose we will soon all be discharged and sent home. Gen. Greerson's command encamped last night six miles east of the city, having been ordered to this point A large mail was sent out this morning, together with rations for all the men. We have plenty of "grub, boats arriving continually from below. For orage we subsist almost entirely off the Paroled prisoners from Lee's, Johnston's ham, sugar, coffee and "hard tack" are furnished them, which the w rished them, which they relish with a keen est after war's privations.

U. S. 7-80 LOAN

THIRD SERIES . $230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency; or are convertible at the option of the

U. S. 5-20 SIX PER CENT. GOLD BEARING BONDS.

These bends are now worth a handsome premium and are exempt, as are all Government Bonds, from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The Interest at 7 per cent. amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note. Two cents " " " $100 " a a a 20 $1000 " " " $5000 "

Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The Notes of this Third Series are precisely simlar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date. The slight change made in the conditions of this

est. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate. The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is the

ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the loan authorized by the last Congress are now in the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which
