

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 16, 1865.

We call especial attention to the suppressed testimony published in to-day's paper. The Copperhead admirers of Jeff. and his co-adjutors will do well to do as we have done. But we suppose they will not have the marliness to publish it.

Persons indebted to B. F. McNeil Esq., will please recollect that his books are in the hands of the editors of this paper for collection and if they desire to save costs they must pay over without delay. Recollect that high again as in ordinary times. Pay up, then, and save costs.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.-A large number of campaign subscribers have already been added to our list. Let more be added. Our friends must see to it that the INQUINER is placed in the hands of every man in the ounty. The success of our cause depends upon light and knowledge-that of our oppo ents on darkness and infidelity. Our pillars of cloud by day and pillars of fire by night have been ministers of the gospel and newspapers, those of our opponents, slavery and

THE COMING COPPERHEAD CELEBRATION It is currently reported that the Copperhead are preparing for a celebration at this place on the approaching 4th. We have been in formed that they endeavored to perpetrate contemptible trick upon the Union citizens this place by getting the town council, com posed of men who have denounced the Gov rument, the war, and the soldiers, to take the thing in their own hands, and conduct it to their own satisfaction. Of course the Union men scorned such a proceeding and have gone forward to get up a celebration where they can enjoy themselves without being 'snubbed by Copperheads who have charged Grant with murdering our men and styled the Virginia battles the "slaughter pens of Virginia. These same fellows couldn't show the least sign of rejoicing when Richmond fell, or Lee's army surrendered, or display a thread of sym pathy when our lamented Chief Magistrat was assassinated, but they are very patrioti

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.-The Com mittee of arrangements announced in this pa per last week, has been very active in making preparations for the demonstration contem plated by the Union men on this day. An auxiliary committee of ladies, Mrs. George W. Rupp, Mrs. Alex. King, Mrs. A. B. Cramer, Mrs. W. W. Shuck and Mrs. J. R. Durborrow, has been earnestly co-operating with town has been thoroughly canvassed and ev ery thing bids fair to make one of the great est celebrations ever gotten up in this community. Col. John H. Filler has been reques ted to deliver the oration and he has consen ted to do so. It will give the many admirers of the Colonel an opportunity to hear him once more, after an absence of twenty month in a foul Southern prison. M. A. Points, Esq., has been selected to read the Declara tion of Independence. Thirty-six beautiful young ladies have agreed to impersonate the different States. A resolution was unanimous ly passed in committee inviting every soldie the county. Soldiers! you who have borne the brunt of the battle, you who have carried our flag in triumph to every Southern threshhold, you who have brought peace from the Potomac to the Rio Grande, come as one man and let us, on the anniversary of our nationa birth rejoice at what has been accomplished. Come, ample provisions will be made for you. The loyal and patriotic citizens who have stood by the government in the hours o deed its integrity, and who can now rejoic in the overthrow of slavery and treason, invited to come, one and all, and participate Any donations our farmers can make of pro visions, flowers, &c., will be thankfully received by the committee. Samuel Defibaugh's woods west of town, has been secured as the place of resort. The committee has handed us the following general invitation:

To the Soldiers and Union People of Bedford County :

Through the heroic daring and endurance of the brave soldiery of the Union, our country has been preserved, and the respect by the nations of the earth been continued us—if possible, to a greater degree than ever before—and all against the machinations of Rebels —and all against the machinations of Rebels and their sympathizers everywhere; we, the Joyal people of Bedford county, who have sorrowed with your sorrows, and who have rejoiced with your rejoicings; who have also regained for you the rights of suffrage; who say you have conquered the enemy of our nationality, and not "compromised with the mightiest of traitors," that, therefore, the war was not a failure and the principles of Copperheadism have not triumphed, in order to manifest a due regard for your services to anifest a due regard for your services to the country, do propose to give you, the sol diers of the whole county, a benefit on the 4th of July, next. Come and have a free dinner and be greeted by your friends.

Loyal people from the country throughout the County come all, and each family bring a basket of good things for our brave soldiers GOING HOME. - What volumes might be ritten on the meaning of these simple words 'going home." Time and time again has the expression been made, but who ever realized its true import better than the soldier now. ly important and interesting than ever they Each day as fast as the Government can fornish transportation the troops are being sent off to their respective States to be mustered out and sent home.

Yesterday a regiment for the last time fell in line on the soil of Old Virginia, where so be discussed within the next four years. No nany hardships had been endured, and as citizen will be able to make up his mind in they commenced wending their way towards the Potomac the band struck up the old familiar air, "Home, sweet Home."

The soldiers marched with cadenced step to the stirring music and each countenance bore the impress of the feelings and enjoyments of the heart. When the music ceased one long and joyful shout of applause filled the air, and gave a new impetus to the moving column of veterans, who realized that they were going home more clearly than ever

Oh! the long weary days of restless inactivity, the sleepless nights, the exposures to heat and cold, the privations, the sufferings from hunger and thirst, the dangers from sickness and in battle, the flying bullets and bursting shells; all, all looms up as so many towers of danger passed by. The soldier sees again in his imagination the old battlefields and his wounded and dying comrades in arms. He hears again the rattle of musketry and the roar of the artillery and imagines imself again fighting his old battles over. Going home. Thank God that so many ca atter those words.

He who rules the universe, and sways the testinies of nations has brought us safe through this sea of dangers, and the haven of afety is reached at last.

The bones of our dead brothers are bleaching in the Sunny South on many a hard conested field, or half buried perhaps near some lungeon, where they perished from starvaion, exposure to the cold and rain, wintry orms, or the scorching rays of the sun. Let their memories ever be cherished by the American People. Let their noble deeds be ecorded in the annals of history, and we who are living go home thankful that we live and that after four years of bloody war our country lives also.

We ask no honors, no thanks, no ovations. We have done only our duty which every lov-I man was bound in honor to do. We reeived the commendations of our brothers, sters, parents and friends for our noble eforts, and now that the work is done we claim

Our enemies opposed us, and they may opose us still if they like, for they who were ur country's enemies then, would be now if they dare. But they will not dare. Justice and shame will be a sufficient guaranty for their future good behavior. Going home Will our friends appreciate it as we do! We know they will. The long hours and days of watching and auxiety have not been forgotten, and we already see the outstretched arms and hear the cheering words, "welcome home." Welcome to our firesides and homes, yours and ours alike. Welcome, thrice welcome for your long absence."

We ask no more. If more is given let it ot be at the instance of a soldier. The conciousness of having done our duty will be ur triumphal arch, the folds of the glorious old stars and stripes our wreathe of honor, the perpetuity of the Union, and the reuniting of a free and happy people our highest ambi-

Peace has cast her mantle over the ele nents of strife, and we shall soon again com

Encourage us then in the way of well doing. If we are not the beings you would have us be, bear with us and make us better by be stowing words, sweetest smiles and gentlest affections, and then how long we shall remen ber your sweet, "WELCOME HOME. C. P. CALHOUN.

How simple the announcement, yet how momentous the issues involved therein! A dearth hargs o'er the household! The 'mystericus angel' has swept athwart the circle, and left desolation behind him! Brooding sorrow sits on every brow, and poignant grief fills every heart. Ah! how "the loved ones at home" will miss him! That place; that chair is vacant, who will fill them? Eve will come; night will spread his sable mantle; the hour of repose will arrive, but who, in his stead, will intercede for blessings on the household? Dewy morn will break, roseate haes will tinge the east, and birds as erst will sing as sweetly, but gladness and sadness will intermingle—the accustomed orison to the throne of grace will not be heard, for, alas! the lips from which it emenated, are cold—compressed in death! That voice is silent—that sacred family altar bereft; The husband—father is no more. He is dead! How simple the announceme

This sin-stained, dreavy earth for-saken—its ills behind—the "dark valley" passed, he stands in the effulgence of Heaven's brightness chanting with the redeemed the "song of Moses and the Lamb." Oh! wish him not back again to earth, but rather strive to emulate his virtues, and seek to meet him where he is.

The Church will miss him. For many years he has been its pillar—its stand-by in this place. No one contributed more largely to its support than he did. In every enterprise tending to the ad-

one contributed more largely to its support in the did. In every enterprise tending to the a vancement of Religion and the cause of his churc he was foremost. Zealous, active, ardent, he neer wearied or faltered in well doing. His hea or neighbor ever existed than he was; kind, cour cour and obliging to all, few men have we nore friendship, confidence and esteem than h ad done.

To the poor and distressed he was a benefactor ever withholding a charity, or words of encour

To sum up briefly: he was a gtod man, a sincere christian; an indulgent father, a tender husband, and a devoted friend.

'Ah! it is sad when one thus linked departs! When death, that mighty sev'rer of true hearts, Sweeps o'er our happy homes of earth, And leaves pale sorrow weeping by the hearth.

U. S. 7-80 LOAN.

THIRD SERIES. $230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, he undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, pearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date n currency; or are convertible at the option of the

GOLD BEARING BONDS. These bonds are now worth a handsome premi-

U. S. 5-20 SIX PER CENT.

m and are exempt, as are all Government Bonds, from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or hanker

The Interest at 7 per cent. amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note. Two cents " " " $100 " Two cents
Ten " " $500 81 $5000

Notes of all the denominations named will be romptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions. The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe. The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuous ly after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of this THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate. which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is the ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and its superior advantages make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $230,000,000 of the loan authorized by the last Congress are now in the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be respensible for the delivery of the notes for which
