Grierson's command, comprising the 1st and 2nd brigade, 7th division cavalry forces, Middle Division, West Mississippi, was encamped seven miles east of the city, where they had arrived on their way from Georgia. On the 9th the wagon train joined the command; and On the 11th, amidst a pelting rain, we left A MISSIONER FOR JURY COMcamp, passing through Montgomery, crossing the Alabama on pontoons, and taking the road to Centreville, on the Cahawba river, which place we reached on the 14th. Centreville is a small town on the east bank of the river, and, if I mistake not, is the county seat of Bibb county. It is not a place of much importance. Gen. Wilson, during his visit to the place about a month previous, burned the bridge, so we had quite a jolly time fording the stream. The citizens were under the impression that we could not get our train across, but Yankee perseverance was enough to accomplish that. They watched us with no little degree of interest. On the evening of the 16th we reached

The citizens were orderly and well disposed toward us, and were very anxious to barter milk, eggs and corn bread for coffee and sugar. They said they had not tasted any coffee since the breaking out of the war. We encamped all night just north of the town and numbers visited our camp to obtain some of the delicious beverage. I tried to obtain a copy of a weekly paper published in the place, but without avail.

A CENTS WANTED FOR The Secret Service, The Field. The Dungeon, and The Escape, BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON, N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years; travelling through the South in the secret service of the "Tribune" at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his confinement for twenty months in seven different rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war than any other work yet published.

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. BLANK DEEDS-A splendid assortment for sale at the "Inquirer Office."

THIRD SERIES. $230,000,000.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned, the General Subscription Agent for the sale of United States Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three-tenths per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7-30 LOAN.

These notes are issued under date of July 15, 1865, and are payable three years from that date in currency; or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 SIX PER CENT. GOLD BEARING BONDS.

These bonds are now worth a handsome premium and are exempt, as are all Government Bonds. from State, County, and Municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied upon other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The Interest at 7 per cent. amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note. Two cents " " $100 " Ten " " " $500 20 " " " $1000 81 " " " 85000 Notes of all the denominations named will be promptly furnished upon receipt of subscriptions.

The Notes of this Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to the Seven-Thirties already sold, except that the Government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold coin at 6 per cent., instead of 7 3-10ths in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, at the time when they subscribe.

The delivery of the notes of this third series of the Seven-thirties will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly and continuously after that date. The slight change made in the conditions of this

THIRD SERIES affects only the matter of interest. The payment in gold, if made, will be equivalent to the currency interest of the higher rate. The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in Gold be availed of, would so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with six per cent. in gold would be fully equal to those made with seven and three-tenths per cent. in currency. This is the advantages make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

ONLY LOAN IN MARKET now offered by the Government, and its superior

Less than $230,000,000 of the loan authorized by the last Congress are now in the market. This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will all be subscribed for within sixty days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other Loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders
