

IS PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING, BY J. R. BURBORROW & JOHN LUTZ ON JULIANA ST., opposite the Mengel House, BEDFORD, BEDFORD CO., PA.

TERMS: $2.00 a year if paid strictly in advance, $2.25 if not paid within three months, $2.50 if not paid within the year.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Table with 2 columns: Description of ad (e.g., One square, one insertion), Price. Includes rates for long-term ads and notices.

Professional & Business Cards.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

JOHN PALMER, Attorney at Law, Bedford, Pa. Will promptly attend to all business entrusted to his care.

J. R. CESSNA, Attorney at Law, Bedford, Pa. Office with John Cessna, on Pitt street, opposite the Mengel Hotel.

JOHN T. KEAGY, Attorney at Law, Bedford, Pa. Will promptly attend to all legal business entrusted to his care.

J. R. BURBORROW & JOHN LUTZ, Attorneys at Law, Bedford, Pa. Will attend promptly to all business entrusted to their care.

EDWIN M. ALBIS, Attorney at Law, Bedford, Pa. Will faithfully and promptly attend to all business entrusted to his care.

M. A. POINTS, Attorney at Law, Bedford, Pa. Respectfully tenders his professional services to the public.

KIMMEL and LINGENFELTER, Attorneys at Law, Bedford, Pa. Have formed a partnership in the practice of the Law.

JOHN MOWER, Attorney at Law, Bedford, Pa. April 1, 1864.

DENTISTS. C. N. HICKOK, D.D.S., 106 N. 10th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

DENTISTRY. E. N. BOWSER, Resident Dentist, Woodbury, Pa.

PHYSICIANS. DR. B. F. HARRY, Respectfully tenders his professional services to the citizens of Bedford and vicinity.

U. S. HOTEL, HARRISBURG, PA. CORNER SIXTH AND MARKET STREETS.

EXCHANGE HOTEL, HUNTINGDON, PA. JOHN S. MILLER, Proprietor.

BANKERS. RUPP, SHANNON & CO., BANKERS, Bedford, Pa.

JEWELRY, &c. DANIEL BORDER, 107 N. 10th St., Philadelphia, Pa.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE. JOHN MAJOR, Justice of the Peace, Bedford, Pa.

A LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWSPAPER, DEVOTED TO POLITICS, EDUCATION, LITERATURE AND MORALS. BEDFORD, Pa., FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1865. Vol. 38: No. 27

BURBORROW & LUTZ, Editors and Proprietors.

Miscellaneous.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER.

O'er the ramparts, by the dawn's early light, What so proudly we hail'd at twilight's last gleaming, Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,

RED, WHITE AND BLUE.

Oh, Columbia, the gem of the ocean, The home of the brave and the free; The shrine of our patriot's devotion,

AMERICA.

My country, 'tis of thee, Sweet land of liberty, Of thee I sing; Land where my father died,

LEIGHON HATS.

LEIGHON HATS.—The hats and bonnets of paillé d'Italie, which enjoy such favor in the French fashionable world, are all manufactured in Tuscany, and, according to official returns, their annual value is about eleven millions of francs.

MORALITY.

MORALITY.—Most men are not so dead to moral principles but what they feel a spontaneous glow of admiration for the man who does right because it is right, no matter if he does make less money by it.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE AND THE ROMISH CHURCH.

Two great subjects present themselves before this country, and demand its thought and action: They are Romanism and the Negro Race.

The attitude of the Papacy to the Rebellion has been full of interest. In common with the whole North, Roman Catholics rose in the common uprising. The sudden and unpremeditated impulse of priests, prelates, and people, was that of honest and sincere detestation of secession.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

Matthew Stevenson, of Tennessee, wrote, in 1834, in an address to the people of his State, "We hold the wrongs and evils of slavery to be the greatest of all."

THE POSITION OF DESERTERS AND NON-REPORTING CONSRIPTS.

By the terms of an act of Congress approved the 24th day of March, 1865, deserters from the army and conscripts who have failed to report to the proper officers, are placed in a woful plight.

WHAT'S IN A KISS?

"Mother, mother, mother!" pleaded a little cherry boy, with blue eyes, anxiously searching his mother's unusually serious face.

A SQUIRREL HUNT.

A Hotel in Cairo, they are not noted for dispatch in filling orders for meals. One warm dinner is ordered, and the waiter is sent to get it. Not long since I stopped there, and sat down at a table with an elderly gentleman, who ordered squirrel. I waited some time for my dinner, but was most through, and the old gentleman was still waiting for his squirrel.

NEW YORK MILLIONAIRES.

The richest three of the New York millionaires are thus ranked: William B. Astor, worth about fifty millions, owns about twenty mansions and dwellings, and has the reputation of being a good and lenient landlord.

OBITUARY C. S. A.

Died near the Southside Railroad, on Sunday, April 9, 1865, the Southern Confederate, aged four years. Concealed in sin, born in iniquity, nurtured by tyranny, died in a chronic attack of Zuchta. S. Grant, attending physician; Abraham Lincoln, undertaker; Jeff. Davis, chief mourner.

EUROPEAN OPINION OF OUR COUNTRYMEN.

The Count de Montabert, who is one of the leading public writers of Europe, published an article in the Correspondant, headed "The Victory of the North in the United States," in which he argues that the military virtues displayed by the Americans during the tremendous struggle of four years, duration, are nothing in comparison to their civil virtues.

MISS CLARA BARTON.

MISS CLARA BARTON, of Washington, has hit upon an excellent device for bringing to the knowledge of friends the fate or whereabouts of missing soldiers. Some weeks ago she published an invitation to the military to send her names of missing soldiers, with a description of missing soldiers, giving the name, regiment, company, and the State to which they respectively belong.

PHYSIQUE OF SOLDIERS.

An exchange, discussing upon the splendid physique condition of the soldiers at the grand review in Washington, says: "Those ignorant European writers who assert that man in America has physically degenerated would have found their theories completely overturned by this spectacle. Observers on the spot generally estimated that the Western army averaged somewhat more in height—say an inch—than the army of the Empire, but the men of either army were much taller than the French, or any other European troops."

WHY IS MAN'S CHIN THE MOST UNLUCKY PART OF HIS BODY?

WHY IS MAN'S CHIN THE MOST UNLUCKY PART OF HIS BODY? Because it is constantly getting into scrapes. SHERMAN'S boys call the South Carolinians the straight-aways—on account of the position in which their coat tails are seen everywhere along the march.

THE BEST PHYSICIANS.

THE BEST PHYSICIANS are Dr. Diet, Dr. Quit, and Dr. Merryman. WHAT IS THE BEST THING TO DO IN A HURRY? Nothing. MONEY is a good servant but a dangerous master.

THE POSITION OF DESERTERS AND NON-REPORTING CONSRIPTS.

By the terms of an act of Congress approved the 24th day of March, 1865, deserters from the army and conscripts who have failed to report to the proper officers, are placed in a woful plight. If we read the terms of Congress aright, all those referred to therein, have forfeited their citizenship, and are to all intents and purposes, in the position of aliens debarred from the exercise of all political rights and the holding of all offices of trust and profit under the Government.

WHAT IS THE DUTY OF THE NATION?

What is the duty of the nation? The elevation of the man in the South, who is now a degraded, peevish, and narrow-minded creature, into a citizen of the Republic, is the duty of the nation.

ALL MEN HAVING SUFFICIENT EVIDENCE OF PERMANENT COMMON INTEREST.

All men having sufficient evidence of permanent common interest, within attachment to the community, have the right of suffrage. The Constitution of Maryland provided: "All freemen above twenty years of age, having a freehold of fifty acres of land in the county in which they offer to vote, and residing therein, and all freemen having a freehold of twenty acres of land in the county in which they offer to vote, shall have a right of suffrage in the election of delegates for such county."

THE CONSTITUTION OF GEORGIA.

The Constitution of Georgia declared that "The electors of the number of both branches of the General Assembly shall be citizens and inhabitants of this State, and shall have paid tax for the year preceding the election, and shall have resided six months within the county."

COLORED PEOPLE VOTED IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Colored people voted in Pennsylvania till 1838; in Connecticut they voted till 1817. In New York, originally, white and black stood upon the same ground, the right to vote in both being dependent upon a property qualification. About the year 1826, an amendment of the Constitution abolished this property test as regards the white man, but left it unrepelled as regards the blacks.

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT.

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT. If a child's passions are kept him by patient and gentle means to curb his desires, at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.—"Life of Wilberforce," is the following entry in his diary: "Went to hear Mr. Foster. Felt much devotion, and wondered at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself."

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT.

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT. If a child's passions are kept him by patient and gentle means to curb his desires, at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.—"Life of Wilberforce," is the following entry in his diary: "Went to hear Mr. Foster. Felt much devotion, and wondered at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself."

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT.

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT. If a child's passions are kept him by patient and gentle means to curb his desires, at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.—"Life of Wilberforce," is the following entry in his diary: "Went to hear Mr. Foster. Felt much devotion, and wondered at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself."

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT.

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT. If a child's passions are kept him by patient and gentle means to curb his desires, at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.

WHY IS IT WISE FOR US TO BE AWAKE TO THE DANGER.—"Life of Wilberforce," is the following entry in his diary: "Went to hear Mr. Foster. Felt much devotion, and wondered at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself."

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT.

DO ALL YOUR POWER TO TEACH SELF-GOVERNMENT. If a child's passions are kept him by patient and gentle means to curb his desires, at a man who will sleep during the psalms. During the sermon about to sleep myself.

GOODNESS.—Human ambition and human policy labor after happiness in vain; goodness is the only foundation to build on. The wisdom of past ages declares this truth; our own observations confirm it, yet few have any desire to act upon it. If the inordinate love of wealth and parade be not checked among us it will be the ruin of our country, as it has been and will be the ruin of thousands of others. But there are always two sides to a question. It is pernicious to make money, and style the standard of respectability, and equally injurious and wrong to foster prejudice against the wealthy and fashionable. Poverty and wealth have different temptations, but they are equally strong. The rich are tempted to pride and insolence; the poor to jealousy and envy. The envious and discontented poor invariably become rancorous and overbearing when they become rich; for selfishness is equally at the bottom of these opposite evils.

HOW COLUMBUS LOOKED.

HOW COLUMBUS LOOKED.—The personal appearance of Columbus was not a bad one; our own observations confirm it, yet few have any desire to act upon it. If the inordinate love of wealth and parade be not checked among us it will be the ruin of our country, as it has been and will be the ruin of thousands of others. But there are always two sides to a question. It is pernicious to make money, and style the standard of respectability, and equally injurious and wrong to foster prejudice against the wealthy and fashionable. Poverty and wealth have different temptations, but they are equally strong. The rich are tempted to pride and insolence; the poor to jealousy and envy. The envious and discontented poor invariably become rancorous and overbearing when they become rich; for selfishness is equally at the bottom of these opposite evils.

A SQUIRREL HUNT.

A Hotel in Cairo, they are not noted for dispatch in filling orders for meals. One warm dinner is ordered, and the waiter is sent to get it. Not long since I stopped there, and sat down at a table with an elderly gentleman, who ordered squirrel. I waited some time for my dinner, but was most through, and the old gentleman was still waiting for his squirrel. But his patience was at last exhausted, and he beckoned the steward to him, and said:

NEW YORK MILLIONAIRES.

The richest three of the New York millionaires are thus ranked: William B. Astor, worth about fifty millions, owns about twenty mansions and dwellings, and has the reputation of being a good and lenient landlord. He is a well preserved old gentleman, on the cloudy side of sixty, industrious, reticent and punctual. He seldom shows his face at a public gathering, rarely makes himself conspicuous in the newspapers, and is devoted almost entirely to the task of taking care of his immense fortune. He is tall, straight, spare, gray and grave.

OBITUARY C. S. A.

Died near the Southside Railroad, on Sunday, April 9, 1865, the Southern Confederate, aged four years. Concealed in sin, born in iniquity, nurtured by tyranny, died in a chronic attack of Zuchta. S. Grant, attending physician; Abraham Lincoln, undertaker; Jeff. Davis, chief mourner.

EUROPEAN OPINION OF OUR COUNTRYMEN.

The Count de Montabert, who is one of the leading public writers of Europe, published an article in the Correspondant, headed "The Victory of the North in the United States," in which he argues that the military virtues displayed by the Americans during the tremendous struggle of four years, duration, are nothing in comparison to their civil virtues. The citizens of the United States, he says, did not have recourse to suicide to get away from fear and suspense. They were not the people to make those despairing sick who prefer immediate death to prolonged suffering. He thinks their conduct in time of trial a grand thing as heroic as needs to be on the battlefield, are "intimidated and demoralized by every civil danger." The Americans have given to the world the "glorious and consoling example of a people who saves itself without a Caesar, without a Napoleon, and without a Cæsar, as a rebuke to the despotic policy pursued by Napoleon; and at the same time, it expresses the real feeling, the sincere and genuine admiration of all liberal minds, whether of the Catholic or Protestant church, in Europe.

MISS CLARA BARTON.

MISS CLARA BARTON, of Washington, has hit upon an excellent device for bringing to the knowledge of friends the fate or whereabouts of missing soldiers. Some weeks ago she published an invitation to the military to send her names of missing soldiers, with a description of missing soldiers, giving the name, regiment, company, and the State to which they respectively belong. In response, she has already received such descriptions of some thousands. Roll No. 1 is a large sheet, containing, we believe, about fifteen hundred names of missing prisoners of war. Twenty thousand copies of this roll have been printed and circulated all through the loyal States, and among the camps; and she now calls upon soldiers and others who can give information concerning the missing men to write to her immediately, to send her names of missing prisoners of war, with a description of missing prisoners of war, giving the name, regiment, company, and the State to which they respectively belong. Her plan is highly appreciated and approved by the War Department and by the President. All letters must be directed to Miss Clara Barton, Washington, D. C.

PHYSIQUE OF SOLDIERS.

An exchange, discussing upon the splendid physique condition of the soldiers at the grand review in Washington, says: "Those ignorant European writers who assert that man in America has physically degenerated would have found their theories completely overturned by this spectacle. Observers on the spot generally estimated that the Western army averaged somewhat more in height—say an inch—than the army of the Empire, but the men of either army were much taller than the French, or any other European troops."

WHY IS MAN'S CHIN THE MOST UNLUCKY PART OF HIS BODY?

WHY IS MAN'S CHIN THE MOST UNLUCKY PART OF HIS BODY? Because it is constantly getting into scrapes. SHERMAN'S boys call the South Carolinians the straight-aways—on account of the position in which their coat tails are seen everywhere along the march.

THE BEST PHYSICIANS.

THE BEST PHYSICIANS are Dr. Diet, Dr. Quit, and Dr. Merryman. WHAT IS THE BEST THING TO DO IN A HURRY? Nothing. MONEY is a good servant but a dangerous master.