BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, JULY 28, 1865. UNION STATE CONVENTION

A State Convention will be held at Harrisburg, on THURSDAY, the 17th day of AUGUST, 1865, at 12 o'clock M., for the rpose of putting in nomination a State icket, to be supported by the friends of the Union at the coming October election.

The earnest and zealous labors of a loyal ple secured the great victory in 1864, and de the war, which our enemies denounced as a failure, a glorious success in 1865.

Our flag has been maintained-our enemi destroyed-our Government preserved, and peace re-established. Let every friend, who aided in this result, take measures to be repented in that Convention. We must see it that the fruits of our success are not lost to the Nation.

Business of vast importance will be presented for its consideration, and every district in the State should be represented. By order of the Union State Central Committee.

The audience was principally com osed of visitors to the Springs. It is needss for us to say that Mr. Taverner has won a world-wide reputation as an Elocutionist. By an advertisement in another column it will be seen that he will give a second entertainment on Monday evening next.

COMPARY A, 184TH REG. P. V .-+ The 184th Regiment having been mustered out, the members of Company A, under Capt. N. C. Evans of this county, have returned to the bosom of their friends. The debt which the cou intry owes to these noble men can never be paid. They are entitled to, and through the coming years will tional trade restricted to those articles receive, the sincere and heart-felt gratitude of which each country requires and cannot every patriotic heart. They have aided to save our glorious government from the de-struction to which Southern traitors and Nor-thern sympathizers with treason-would have the sympathizers with treason-would have onsigned is and have placed it upon a foundation which the enemies of freedom and republican institutions can never shake.

Oil News. A fifty barrel flowing well was struck on the land of the Hopewell oil company, on the 19th inst., at a depth of 318 feet. The lands of this company lie on the Allegheny river in Scrub Grass township, Venango county, and possess unsurpassed facilities for the transportation of its oil. We congratulat our figends holding this stock on their good luck and wish them more of the same kind.

We understand that the Oil Creek and Gordon's Run Petroleum company, in which our eitizens are also largely interested, is pro gressing finely. It has two wells going down in one of which there is a fine show of oil, though only 300 feet deep yet. The Franklin Citizen says: "In our las issue we made mention of the 'increased' ac tivity in all branches of the oil business .-Since that time matters are growing livelier every day, and our streets are thronged with strangers; we again hear the cry of lands to lease and sell, and almost every day new de velopments increase the demand for elegible old sites. We learn that on Friday last an other large flowing well was struck on Pithole creek, but have been unable to obtain the names of the fortunate parties. A fine well was obtained on the Gates Farm in Rockland township, on the Allegheny river, Thursday last, at less than two hundred feet, which is yielding over one hundred barrels per day. In consequence of this somewhat novel development, lands on the river for fifteen miles or more below Franklin, are rapidly raising in value, and leases, fee simples, &c., are eagerly sought after. In short there is every indication that the business will assume great er importance in this county in a short time than ever before." PETROLEUM SENT ABROAD IN 1864.-The exports of Petroleum during the past year amounted to 21,288,499 gallons. There were clock, A. M. HOHLE (171 - TOOM | sent to Great Britain, 6,275,000 gallons ; to Rev. O. O. #### The Next Governor.

To the Editors of the Franklin Repository: I have observed that several of the lead-ing citizens of our State have been publicly recommended by their friends as suitable persons to be presented to the Union Conersons to be presented to the Union Con-cention, as candidate for its nomination for jovernor.

Among the claims urged in behalf of thos Among the claims urged in behalf of those gentlemen, that of locality is prominently set forth. I accept it as having much force, and assert it as peculiarly our own. This section of the State is strangely over-looked in making selections for the bestow-ment of State or National honors. That it is important enough in the Commonwealth need not be argued. But something also is wanted they have to commend a candidate to the people of Pennsylvania at this momentous period. Never before was it so important to hunt out carefully a man fitted to the high posi-tion of administering the affairs of this great Commonwealth, burdened now with debt and groaning with unvoidable taxation. Locality has its claims, public service in the cabinet or the field has its claims, but these alone are insufficient. Locality may lack every other qualification; public service may not be accompanied with integrity, industry or capacity. But honesty, energy, ability are the requisites demanded imperatively by the financial condition of the State, and by the influence which she is to exert over the influence which she is to exert over the councils and policy of the nation. A mere politician won't answer, let his orthodoxy be never so pure and his intellect never so brilliant. Wisdom and good management in our Executive and the second second second in our Executives are more needed now than the more shining but less substantial qualities, which often mislead us in the choice of our rulens, but seldom do so in our private concerns. I believe, while we have especial claims a to locality, that we have also most fortunate-ly the man. One who has had ample ex-perience in public affairs, who is well known throughout the State, who had ample ex-perince in business affairs: whose ability is conceded by political friend and foe, whose honesty is without spot or question; a gentle man of industry, of excellent business habits man of industry, of excellent business habits, of firmness, who would administer affairs of the State prudently, economically, wisely. I refer to Col. Francis Jordan, of Bedford, and am confident that the people of this Congressional district will endorse my decla-rations, and labor to secure his nomination.

But something else is wanted than locality commend a candidate to the people of

FRANKLIN CHAMBERSBURG, July 18, 1865.

A Somerset exchange says: The boring machinery of the Somerset County Petro-leum Company will be on here in a day or so and the sinking of a well commenced at once. The first well is to be sunk, we believe, on the Flougherty, which is said to be geo cally lower than any other part of the county
