HEW, TO MAKE BEAUTIFUL HOMES. The greater part of our population are waiting till they can afford to have ple s int homes, forgetting that they can at no time afford to have any other. We take the color of our daily surroundings, and are happier, more a miable, stronger to labor and firmer to endure when those surroundings are pleasing and in good taste. To possess these important qualities they need not be extensive. True bean ty is cheaper than we think. The first charm of a home, within and without, is thorough neatness, and this is the result of habit, not outlay. It is oftener cheaper than filth. Paint the house if you can; if not, whitewash: but in any case let it be in thorough repair. Het there be no loose shingles or dangling clapboards, or gates hanging by a broken hinge. These hints favor thrift as well as taste. Let the house be sufficiently shaded. This will pay in comfort, wear of furniture, and lack of dies. If you can afford green blinds, you can always afford a green tree or two, that cost you nothing but labor and patience, and will shelter you from the sun in summer and the Plant vines of some kind about your premises: they are indispensable to grace; they show that nature takes kindly to your home and has thrown her arm around it. You need not resort to costly climbers; woodbine an clematis may be had for the gathering, grapes and hop vines may be so trained as to combine beauty and profit. Let your turf be ANNOUNCE to their customers and the publismooth and firm as velvet, and enforce the in general, that they are receiving a large assor death penalty upon weeds with an unsparing hand. No man, rich or poor, can afford t raise weeds. They choose the richest spots, where flowers, or fruit, or vegetables might grow, and send abroad their seeds as mission aries of evil into every nook and corner. Illkept places always have their vegetable Five Points, where sin and misery are mimicked in chickweed, burdock and nettles. A very few flowers will suffice; a monthly rose in ahe window, a morning-glory over the door-way. a bright border between your kitchen garden and the street; these add to the picture just those touches of color that make it pleasant to the eye. With half a dozen cheap and common kinds, your wife will take care that some thing is always in bloom.

But flowers are gross feeders, and if you keep no domestic animals, you fancy, perhaps, that you have no manure. You were never more mistaken. Every human dwelling is a center of fertilizing agents, mostly wasted as times go, rich enough to make the whole plot around it blossom like the rose. Tell the soil that you have nothing to give it! Give it what you have and it will laugh in your face. The suds from the laundry is a store of liquid wealth. Never waste a drop of it in drains and sewers. It is a floating currency, promis ing to pay roundly in grass, and vegetables, and fruit. Investit in your home bank, which never suspends payment. These grassy slopes are greenbacks, whose issue is a good as gold. Carpet sweepings are manure in a concentra ted form. Dug into your flower borders they weave a richer pattern than the one from which they were worn. The old bones that deform the premises, if buried beneath the grape vine, will be "health to the bones" of all their friends. Old boots and shoes, those most unsightly wrecks, are the favorite food of the raspberry and all its palatable kin. Tainted brine, if such unhappily is yours, is a treasure for the plnm trees and asparagus bed; slacken lime with it, and it will make a rich dressing for any garden soil. Every household should have its compost bed, be it only an old packing box, where woolen rags, bits of paper, apple-parings, refuse of veget ables, slops from the kitchen, chips and sawdust, are storing up the elements of a glorious growth. Let not yours be one of the homes where all bright "burning instead of beauty." We have named but a part of the fertilizers of every house hold. Generally speaking, whatever is offensive to sight or smell is urging the appeal to our revolted tastes. Bury me, and I'll do you

BECREATION AND VISITING AMONG FARMERS.

This may seem to some a very unsuitable topic for this busy time of the year. On the contrary, it is specially seasonable. Most farmers make life too much a drudgery for themselves and for their children. By working hard from morning until night, and from week to week, with no recreation, they become dull and do not accomplish as much as they would with a little timely relaxation, "all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Nor do they enjoy life near so well. They doubtless say to their souls, "I must work hard now, and lay up money against a time of need or against old age; then I will rest and enjoy myself." They forget that they are meanwhile wearing out their faculties of enjoyment and are acquiring habits which will unfit them for anything but an old age of continued toil. Let farmers bear in mind, too, the effect of such a life on their children.

As to the way in which farmers shall get recreation, we are not disposed to be particular. Some will choose to get it in one way, and some in another. One very good method is to make up an occasional pic-nic. Fix on a pleasant afternoon, and take the whole family to some neighboring grove, where the children can romp, where the older folks can rest, and all have a good supper. If several families can unite, it will be all the better. Another way, is to make short visits to the neighbors. To do this, it will not be needful to consume a whole day; this would be an unnecessary loss to you and bore your neighbor. But seize on the broken, half days, or even the hour or two after tea, and ride over to neighbor A's, or neighbor D's. He will be glad to show you his stock and his crops, and his orchard. You will learn something from him, and he from you. At any rate, you will get recreation, and will return to your home and your daily labor with new zest .- American Agriculturist.

ACENTS WANTED FOR The Secret Service,

The Field, The Dungeon, and The Escape, BY ALBERT D. RICHARDSON, N. Y. Tribune Correspondent.

The most interesting and exciting book ever published, embracing Mr. Richardson's unparalleled experience for four years; travelling through the South in the secret service of the "Tribute" at the outbreak of the war, with our armies and fleets, both East and West, during the first two years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his years of the Rebellion; his thrilling capture; his rebel prisons; his escape, and almost miraculous journey by night of nearly 400 miles. It will abound in stirring events, and contain more of the fact, incident and romance of the war than any other work yet published.

Teachers, ladies, energetic young men, and especially returned and disabled officers and soldiers, in want of profitable employment, will find it peculiarly adapted to their condition. We have agents clearing $150 per month, which we will prove to any doubting applicant. Send for circulars. Address JONES, BROS. & CO.

MOUTZ'S CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders. These Powders have proved, after a trial of several years, to be superior to any preparation of the kind in use. The chief superiority of these powders arises from the fact that they are composed of medicines that have Laxative, Tonic and Purifying properties. The laxative ejects crudities from the stomach and intestines, the tonic gives strength to the system of the Horse, and the purifying medicines contained in them cleanse the blood, and lay the foundation for a vigorous and healthy circulation. The use of them improves the wind, strengthens the appetite and gives the horse a fine, smooth and glossy skin—thus improving the appearance, vigor and spirit of this noble animal. These powders are not intended, as most powders are to bloat the animal, so, as to give him the appearance of being fat when not really so—but to remove the disease and promote his general health.

These powders will strengthen the stomach and in attended the stomach and in a strengthen the stomach and in a strengthen to a healthy state. They are a sureprevall diseases incident to the Horse, as Glanders, Yellow Water, Distempers, Founder, Heaves, Slavering, Coughs, Fevers Loss of Appetite and Vital Energy, &c.—These powders, if used two or the worse as week, through the winter and spring, your horses will never get the Lung Fever Corie or Botte. A few doses of these powders will remember the strength on any horses. Were owners of horses to feed a few of these powders every year, they might save the lives of many valuable horses.

MILCH COWS. The properties this powder possesses in increasing the quantity of milk in cows, gives it an importance and value which should place it in the hands of every person keeping a cow. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their

In all diseases of swine, as coughs, ulcers in the lungs and liver, &c., by putting from half a paper to a paper of these powders in a barrel of swill, the above diseases can be cured or entirely prevented. By using these powders the hog cholera can be prevented.

The interest of these Periodicals to American public.

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on ourgreat Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice they may still, considering their great ability and the different stand-points from which they are written, be read and stadied with advantage by the people of this country of every creed and party.
