Let it be distinctly understood that we do not deviate from our published terms. We have only the Advertised price for EDITORIAL NOTICES, special notices and advertisements. The puffing business is played out with us unless our terms, 15 cents a line, are strictly complied with, nor do we make any reduction on our advertising to accommodate our best prices if we do not be governed by them, and shall hereafter as heretofore, know no favoritism. We hope those persons desiring to use our columns will save time by examintng our terms and complying with them .-- tf.

our thanks to the numerous subscribers of the INQUIRER for the prompt manner in which they have come forward and paid their subscription in advance. We believe that we have the best paying patrons in the State. We are also very highly gratified at the numerous subscriptions which we have received; during Court week upwards of twenty volun tarily gave us their names without any exertion on our part, and better than all this, paid in advance. The INQUIRER has almost doubled its circulation within the last two years it is now rapidly approaching 1,400, between 1,100 and 1,200 of this number are circulated in Bedford county, making it one of the best advertising mediums in Southern Pennsylvania. This circulation then, we have no hesitation in saying, exceeds the bona fide circu lation attained by any other journal in thi encouraging, and with a little more effort on the part of our friends the INOUIRER will go men in the county, when we succeed in accomplishing this feat, Bedford county will give us a clear Union majority of three hundred. Friends, there are twenty-six hundred Union voters in the county, the INQUIRER ought to be in the hands of two thousand of them at the least calculation. We are giving as much reading matter as any county paper published, and we are excluding all the demoralizing advertisements which too frequently crowd the columns of the country press. short time we will be clear of them entirely when we will not likely renew the contracts Friends, spread intelligence it is the safe Horse Thieves .- Our jail has been the receptacle of some four or five horse thieves within the last week. Horse stealing appears to be a paying business. Three were stolen down in Londonderry the other night; two from one man. The thieves were not sharp enough and they were captured and lodged in jail. Justice awaits them.

THE SOUTHERN PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD. The engineers who have for the last year been running experimental surveys between Connellsville and Chambersburg, commenced this week locating the road between this point and Mount Dallas. This we hope indicates an intention on the part of the Company to complete the Bedford road from its present terminus to this place. No greater favor could in any event be bestowed upon our peoculation in this part of Pennsylvania. It is ple; nor do we think that a better investmen therefore one of the best mediums in the could be made. Railroads generally make business; this has been most fully verified in the case of the Bedford Railroad. The Broad Top Company have not been able to supply the demand for rolling stock. By its extension to Bedford the trade would be increased two-fold, while we would have the assurance that the Broap Top road would be improved We hope that the company will put the seven miles between this point and Mount Dalla under contract at once.

> PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE, -This institution located at Gettysburg, is rapidly rising into public notice and favor.

We observe with pleasure that its enterprising and energetic trustees have resolved upon such a modification of its preparatory Department, as will make it at once a most de sirable place to which parents can send their from his paper, is about as much qualified to sons at an early age, with the assurance that they will be cared for and trained as in a well a meat house, and propably less. conducted family.

The Rev. Mr. Ehrhart, of Middletown, who has had much experience in such matters and is in every way admirably adapted to take charge of such an establishment, has been elected Principal of the Preparatory Depart ment and a member of the College Faculty. He will at once take up his residence in the large college building and take personal supervision of all boys who may be committed to his care. The trustees intend to erect a large building during the coming year for the special accommodation of this department.

The attention of christian parents is especially invited to the advantages of this school, which is located in a moral and intelligent community, in a proverbially healthy region of country, somewhat retired and yet easy of access by railroad. Especially for those who intend to send their sons to Pennsylvania College hereafter, is it desirable that they have such an opportunity of giving them their preparatory training with special reference to the course of study pursued in that institu-

"The Anti-Slavery Revolution in America," is better by far and full of fact, truth and human sympathy. "American Novelists: Theodore Winthrop," is an eminently appreciative article. The other articles in this number are "Political Economy," "Imperial History," "The Principles of our Indian Policy," and "Contemporary Literature."

CUMBERLAND VALLEY, Sept. 12, 1865.

Editors Inquirer:—Thinking that a few lines from this out-of-the-way place would not come amiss, I thought I would pen the same, though not having any news of importonce to write. There is rather a dearth of from some part of "Dixie" was "taken up," safely lodged in jail and the reward jingling in the pocket of the catcher. But strange to the chagrin of some men who think that money pays well at ten per cent. interest. We would advise them though, to be of good cheer-the raising of wheat also pays well at three dollars per bushel.

Copperheadism here after the election will very much resemble in appearance the last run of shad. The soldiers are determined to attend to the skedaddlers from the draft. (most all of whom have skulked home,) on the second Tuesday in October. They think, and rightly too, that men who deserted the cause of their country when called upon, should not have the same privilege at the ballot box that men have who faced the music, and put an end to the most infamous rebellion that ever disgraced the annals of the world-and they are determined they shall not. There are some thirty deserters from the draft in this township, a fact which does not speak volumes for its loyalty. You might probably ask the reason of this. The teachings of the Gazette-the god the ignorant worship, the editor of which, if we may judge enlighten a person as a blind hog is to watch

Whether the Cops will endeavor to hold a meeting here prior to the election, is rather doubtful. We rather think not, though they might prevail on some of the bounty-jumpers skedaddlers from the draft &c., to attend, but we are of the opinion that they would probably have some objections to being caught out

The editor of the Gazette has taken it upon himself to send me some copies of his "vile, loathsome" sheet, which I wish him to under stand I do not thank him for, and further, I want him to discontinue sending the same. He might probably put his paper to some other use, or at least I do not want it.

A BIG INCOME.—We have now the official figures of the customs revenue of the government through the port of New-York in August. The month's revenue amounted, (in hard cash) to $13,190,400, or an average of $488,533 a day for each of the twenty-seven business days of the month. Thus far in the current calender year the coin receipts for customs at this port have reached $60,185,538. This is the total for eight months, making the monthly average nearly $6,525,000, or full twenty-six million dollars in excess of the grand total annual coin interest charged on the funded debt of the nation.
