We must say, that laying aside all political prejudices we are opposed to the principle of allowing men to vote out of the State on any pretext whatever. We believe in the doctrines our earliest statesmen: that a standing ar-uis dangerous to a republic. AND FURmy is dangerous to a republic. AND FUR THER BELIEVE THAT GIVING SOL DIERS THE POWER TO VOTE ONLY DOUBLES THE DANGER.

-Bedford Gazette Jan. 22, 1864.

UNION MEN TO THE POLLS. Why you should vote for the Union candidates.

If you desire to redeem Pennsylvania en tirely from the blighting influence of Copperheadism as demonstrated in the admini stration of the Auditor General's Office then vote for Brevet Major-General JOHN F. HARTRANFT, the hero of many bat tles, who in 1861, at the first call of his country, Democrat as he was, rushed to the protection of the old flag and triumphantly followed it until the rebel hordes yielded to the masterly strategy of the world's greatest living warrior, U. S. Grant, while his opponent Col. W. W. H. Davis, disgusted with the war after a year or two's service, returned to his home to edit a Copperhead paper, in opposition to the administration.

If you desire to rid out the Surveyor General's Office, and to place it in the hands of a noble and patriotic son of the old Keystone, vote for Col. JACOB M. CAMP-BELL, a working man, first in the field, and ever ready with sword and purse to defend his country, who at the first call for troops in 1861, promptly tendered his sernot only this, when a demand for funds was made, he loaned the government THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS to prosecute the war, and now since his opponent has been nominated, the Copperheads are endeavoring to appropriate all his honors to their can-

If you desire to maintain the healthy administration of affairs at Harrisburg, which in the last year paid in the neighborhood of from military service?-The Democratic a million dollars of the State debt, vote for party. Lieut. D. B. ARMSTRONG and MOSES A. ROSS. Lieut. Armstrong, who is our immediate representative, served his country for three long years in the 8th Regiment of the Pennsylvania Reserve Corps, while his immediate opponent remained at home, encouraged desertion and cursed the gov ernment.

If you desire to fill the District Attorney's office of Bedford county with a man who comes up to the Jefferson standard of "hop est and capable." who will do his duty re gardless of political prejudices, vote for JOHN T. KEAGY, Esq., who enlisted in the service of his country as a private, and followed the fortunes of the army of the Potomac to Fair Oaks, where he was badly wounded in the leg. Surgeon after Surgeon advised amputation, but this gallant young man refused permission, stating that he would sooner die than lose his limb. Time wore on, and young Keagy returned to his friends from the jaws of death: while he was thus pouring out his patriotic blood in defense of our institutions, his opponent was at home advocating the cause of our enemies. preaching compromise and separation.

If you desire to dispense untramelled jus free from the contaminating influence of Bedford county Copperheadism, vote for Captain ADAM WEAVERLING, another patriot, who has served his country faithfully, and whose character for piety and integrity is far, far above reproach. Against his opponent who entered the service and conducted himself properly enough, for all we know, we have nothing to say, only adding that the man who can thus eat his own record deserves to be beaten, as he will be.

If you desire to entrust the Treasury of Bedford county in the hands of an honest, upright and intelligent officer, vote for Capt. SIMON DICKERHOOF, whose record as a military officer during the three years which he fought to crush treason, has no brighter page in history. While he was leading his men to victory his antagonist was at home plying all his cunning to avoid the draft.

If you desire to fill the office of County Surveyor with an able and capable man whom you have all tried and never found wanting, vote for DANIEL SAMS, who stands without a rival as a surveyor in this section of Pennsylvania. If you desire to fill the jury box with men whose political tendencies are not all Copperhead, vote for WILLIAM KIRK, one of the earth's noblemen. Kirk went into the army and ended his career as a soldier with the downfall of the rebellion. If you desire to have the affairs of Bedford county remodled, the present corrupt system and practices pervading the Commissioners' office expunged, vote for that pure patriot and talented business man, HENRY J. BRUNER, who left the corrupt Copperhead concern as soon as he learned that its everything in their power to remove the disgrace attached to this concern.

You cannot certainly desire any better result than the election of those upright men, JAMES ALLISON for Auditor, and Capt. AMOS ROBINETT for Coroner. They will not fail in the duties which will devolve upon them.

Union men! Voters! go to the polls on next Tuesday morning, stay all day, examine every ticket, see that your neighbors are out, and our word for it, the Union county ticket will be elected from John T. Keagy to Amos Robinett. As regards the State and District tickets they are safe beyond a doubt. TURN OUT! DO YOUR DUTY and all

Who the Copperheads are.

There is no difficulty in ciphering out who the Copperheads are, if our people will only REMEMBER, that every barn burner, who, in the deep darkness of the night, stole up to and applied the torch to the property of Union men, is a rabid Copper-

REMEMBER, that the heathenish in cendiary, who under cover of darkness, prompted by the spirit of the devil, stealth ily kindled the fire which consumed the house of God, if living to-day, is a traitor and a Copperhead.

REMEMBER, that every deserter who foreign Government, is and ought to be a

REMEMBER, that every skedaddler who secreted himself for months in the "pine clad hills" of the old Keystone State, is to-day a living, breathing, blathering Copperhead.

REMEMBER, that every skulker who found his way to the eaves of our rugged mountains, with loads of weapons, who threatened death and destruction on all hands, and then ran away from his shadow: is a blatant Copperhead.

REMEMBER, that every man who has esired the success of the rebellion, who aided, abetted and countenanced it in any manner, shape or form is a Copperhead eader to the extent of his intelligence.

REMEMBER, that those who secretly met for the purpose of organizing resis nce to the draft in Napier and St. Clair townships, are to-day, true to their instincts in the Copperhead ranks.

Our friends will remember the meet for the poor, the aged and infirm of Bedford ings at Laney's, Foot of Dry Ridge and county, vote for JOHN S. HETRICK and | Schellsburg, on this (Friday) evening.

WHERE THE SOLDIERS STAND! INTELLIGENCE AND REPUBLICAN-

ISM GO HAND IN HAND! Soldiers follow where their officers lead!

It gives us pleasure to announce the names of almost all the officers of Bedford county, who have braved death in a thousand ways, that now openly and consistently support the Union State and County tickets. This array contains, within a half dozen, the entire number commissioned from this county, while several of those not down in this list have taken no part in politics, and if they vote, will, in all probability, vote with their late companions in arms:

COUNTELS:
JOSIAH HISSONG,
JOHN H. FILLER,
LEWIS A. MAY,
ALEX. COMPHER.

What do you think of this, Cops.? Do you hear the Union thunder? We hope that we have not missed any names. We do not desire to leave any one off, and if we have failed to put any one on, they must excuse us.

The Trail of the Copperhead

REMEMBER, that the leaders, one and all, ardently sympathized with the traitorous rebels, and that they now plead for those in the custody of the United States with all the earnestness of their souls.

REMEMBER, that the stars and stripes he emblem of our nationality, was scoffed at by them, torn from appropriate places, and supplanted by the "red white and red," the emblems of organized treason.

REMEMBER, that the "Gar Spangled anner," "Red, White and Blue," &c., were forced to give way to the favorite airs of the rebels. Yes, who does not remember how night was made hideous by the singing of "Maryland, my Maryland," "The Bonny Blue Flag," &c. ?

SHALL SKEDADDLERS VOTE?

We answer emphatically, NO. The very idea of an election board setting themselves above an act of Congress is the most absurd thing we have ever heard advocated. No election board composed of anything else but Bedford county Copperheads would dream of setting themselves up as a Su preme Court to pass upon a National law. The Conscription Act was partly ignored by these fellows, and now they desire to ignore the remainder of it. If they did, however, ignore it for a season, when Uncle Sam's boys dressed in blue, came around, there was another tale to tell, they became as "meek as any lamb," marched to the "music of the Union," left! left! and now we have no hesitation in saying if Uncle Sam was able to put "strait Jackets" upon them and "muzzle" them in time of a monstrous rebellion, he will assert the laws in time of Peace. Let them, then, set the laws at defiance if they dare; if they do, they must put up with the consequences. Let them vote their skedaddlers in Southampton, Cumberland Valley and Juniata; if they do, the election board shall not only be prosecuted, but the outraged law shall be asserted, their strongholds contested and their vote ruled out. If these districts are rejected, the Republican ticket will be safe by several hundred for the clerk said they could not tell exactly, majority, and if they do not vote them, we will beat them handsomely, so they can take either horn of the dilemma

"THIRTY DOLLAR MEN."

The Gazette wails over the "thirty dollar men," as it calls them, and appeals to soldiers in their behalf and in behalf of the Democratic party. It need not fear. The thirty dollar men were deserters, and for them, neither the gallant soldiers, nor any sylvania prepared to have their present taxothers of the Union party, have any sympafled to Canada to enjoy the protection of a thy; the thirty dollar men are found in the copperhead ranks where they belong, there is no affinity between them and the Union soldiers. These are a few of the many reasons that volves upon you. Would to Almighty God of life, that I might aid you to fight through this last and greatest battle of freedom. But God's will be done. In conclusion, I would say to the Copperhead party, FAREWELL. I have gone with you as long as I can. I shall hereafter go with the party that has for its principles Union and humanity.

Yours truly, JACOB EWIG SOLDIERS AND COPPERHEADS. The word "Copperhead" originated in the army, among the men whose votes are now asked to defeat the Union ticket. No epithet so well expresses a soldier's scorn as that of "Copperhead." There is a marked distinction between the "Democrat" and the sympathizer who is designated by this convenient appellation. The Democrat is a emocrat is a frank, outspoken citizen, who deplores the blunders of the party leaders, who denounces the violence of Judgo Black, the timidity of James Buchanan, and the silliness of Richard Vaux. Nothing makes him more indignant than to tell him his sentiments are nando Wood, or C. L. Vallandigham. Such a citizen don't vote the Union ticket. son's champions known as Copperheads, it will be REMEMBERED, that the individual who indentifies himself with the Copperhead orregisters his name, takes a room and be-comes a permanent lodger. "A Copper-head" is precisely the kind of animal to make a soldier indignant. He is never satisfied. He is like John Randolph, who so hated the woollen manufacturer that he swore he would go out of his way a mile to kick a sheep. He always feels like making war upon a colored man if he meets one. He was ex-cessively McClellanish all the time McClellan lost battles, and especially after he lost command; and he never thought much of Grant, because he took McClellan's place. rascal," Mrs. Suratt a saint in petticoats Jefferson Davis "a stern statesman," an deserters are not citizens and consequently can not vote.

Jefferson Davis a stern statesman, and Henry Wirz a persecuted German. He helped to put up the Chicago Democratic scaffold; was present at the building of the Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and the Long Ohio platform. The only place where he was not found was in the Union army. The soldier never meets his returned enemy in

KNOW NOTHINGS. "THE Abolitionists, unable to say anything truthfully against Messrs. Colburn and Smith, (the Democratic candidates for the Legislature,) are circulating a LIE to the effect that they once belonged to the Know Nothing order."

For the benefit of the Bedford Gazette, from which paper we clip the above, we here say that we can prove by any reasonable number of men in this community, that GEORGE A. SMITH belonged to the Know Nothing order; that he has admitted it since nominated for the Legislature, and that he has publicly stated the "he had sworn more Democrats into the order than he could get When a newspaper man don't know e is talking about he ought to keep out.

Republican.

A Copperhead journal in Connecticut, in opposing negro suffrage in that State, asserts that in the event of the ballot being allowed They would certainly poll a larger vote in that place than among the negroes in Connecticut.

N. Y. Tribune.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC GEM. General Runyon, the Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey, at a McClellan meeting held in that State last fall, said: "No minion who wears the livery of Abe Lincoln ought to be allowed to approach within ever will be relection day!" within one mile of the polls on election day! This was the sentiment of the whole party, then. The soldier was a "minion," then, now he is just the person for a democratic candidate in Republican counties.—Pitts.
