BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, OCT. 6, 1865.

THE LAST GRAND RALLY!

COURT HOUSE,

ON MONDAY EVENING,

for the last grand rally of the campaign.

Col. Jordan, Col. Filler, Hon. John Cessna and others will address the meeting.

Ladies are particularly invited to attend.

J. R. DURBORROW, Ch. Union County Committee.

UNION TOWNSHIP MEETINGS.

The Union men that have nobly sustained the Government through all its trials in crushing the late wicked and monstrous rebellion will assemble at the following times and places:

Daniel Metzger's, Juniata, Friday, Oct. 6, 2 o'clock P. M.

Schellburg, Napier, Friday evening, Oct. 6th.

Pleasantville, St. Clair, Saturday Oct. 7, 1 o'clock P. M.

St. Clairsville, for Union, Saturday evening, Oct. 7.

Foot Dry Ridge, Harrison, Friday evening, Oct. 7th.

Centerville, Cumberland Valley, Saturday evening, Oct. 7th.

The people are earnestly invited to attend these meetings and hear the various issues involved in the approaching election fully discussed.

The following speakers have been engaged for the evening: Col. John H. Filler, Col. Francis Jordan, Hon. John Cessna, Hon. George W. Householder, Hon. David B. Armstrong, Wm. M. Hall, Esq., John Lutz, Esq., John T. Keagy, Esq., Hon. B. Cessna, Esq., and others from abroad may be sent here. Rally, friends, rally for the old flag without a star estranged.

J. R. DURBORROW, Chairman Union Co. Com.

M. A. POINTS, Sec'y.

Unprecedented.—The satisfaction that the "Family Record" meets with among the people wherever it is seen.

SMOKING MACHINES.—We call attention of persons wishing employment, to the advertisement of D. B. Herrington & Co., in our today's paper.

Col. Francis Jordan is laboring with us this week. We understand that he is doing an excellent work. No man can draw larger crowds and entertain them better than Col. Jordan.

Wm. M. Hall, Esq., has had a very serious attack of Asthma which compelled him to relinquish the design of attending the majority of the Union meetings in this county. His numerous friends will please accept this explanation.

UNION MEETINGS.

A series of Union meetings are being held in this county which have been attended up to the present writing with most undoubted success. The meetings at Rainsburg, Chaneyville, Ellinsville, Purcell's store, Clearville, Grove Cherry, Ray's Hill, Bloody Run, Hopewell and Fair Play have been largely attended as we have over known meetings at those points to be. Speeches were delivered by Col. John H. Filler, Gen. B. Cessna, Esq., John T. Keagy, Esq., Moses A. Points, Esq., and Hon. D. B. Armstrong. We are sorry that our space forbids the publication of the organization of each meeting. Our friends will pardon us for the omission. Everything looks bright and we feel confident that the polls will close on next Tuesday evening with a clear out-spoken majority for the Union ticket.

NOTICE.—The proprietor of the Washington Hotel does not want any Democrats to stop at his house. He has made it a harbor for the colonization of abolition voters and the headquarters of the Negro suffrage men generally.—Gazette of last week.

This squib contains the highly commendable characteristics of the narrow-minded, three-cent creature who cannot look upon individual enterprise without envy and indelibility in the basest detection. We pity the thing whose soul is so small that he must be constantly appealing to the lowest passions of his followers against some one who differs with him in opinion. Such things are constantly bawling about persecution and are ever persecuting some private individual. Mr. Grove requests us to say that he is a Union man, and keeps a hotel for the accommodation of all who desire to stay with him, and that he will conduct his hotel to the satisfaction of his guests, without respect to those who never stop with him. And, we suppose, the Union men of Bedford county can sustain one hotel just as easily as the Copperheads can sustain three. Republicans who stop at Copperhead houses, say this!

AN ACT OF INJUSTICE TO THE SOLDIERS.—The Borough officers and the school board, each have assessed a per capita bounty tax of five dollars on the returned soldiers. This is in accordance with the letter of the law, but it is very doubtful if the framers of the law designed that it should take this shape. For ourselves we think the soldiers who have endured the toil and danger on the field of battle, should not be taxed to pay the exemption of those who stayed at home. Let those who own property be taxed for their property as other citizens, but let every soldier be exempted from the per capita tax. Will not the respectful officers assessing these taxes, exonerate the soldiers, and instruct the collectors accordingly. We appeal to them in behalf of the gallant men who have perished their lives for their country. Justice to our brave defenders demands it.—Pitt. Gazette.

DEMOCRATIC SENTIMENTS. Col Davis the Democratic candidate for Auditor General said in a speech last fall: "If Abraham Lincoln is re-elected to the Presidential chair, take my word for it, this will be the last chance you will ever have to vote for a President of the United States." Col. Linton, his colleague on the State ticket in a speech at Ebensburg, lately said that Secretary Stanton was the man to blame for the inhumanity at Andersonville, and that he, and not Wirz, should be tried and hung. Linton, you see, does not want to vote for Davis in the utterance of the atrocious sentiments. Together they are a pair of precious worthies.—Pitt. Gazette.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATIONS.

Messrs. Editors:—It will be seen by the published notices that the annual examination of teachers is soon to begin, and directors and teachers, if they will, aid us greatly in this work.

Teachers can aid us by coming prepared. Heretofore, many have come without pencils, paper, ink, or books of any kind, some such have been supplied by us, others have borrowed of their neighbors, and still others have been compelled to drag through the day, as best they could, under such disadvantages.

Those wishing to acquire themselves creditably, will do well to bring with them good pens, good ink, good paper, Brooks' Intellectual Arithmetic and McGuffey's or Osgood's 6th Reader. They can also aid us by coming in time. Those who struggle in after the day's work is begun, as many are in the habit of doing, not only add greatly to our labor and retard the examination of others, but they make it impossible for us to give them a full and systematic examination, and consequently often get worse marks than they could otherwise show themselves entitled to.

The doubts are always considered against such laggards, in marking their certificates. Directors can aid us by making an effort to secure the attendance of enough applicants for all their schools. This we think can be in most instances, be done if the proper effort be made. Teachers are as easily hurried up before the examination as after. If present and examined in presence of the board as the law intends they can be arched with at once, and there is no further trouble about the matter. If enough are not present, the chances are that all the schools cannot be supplied. Few are willing to make a trip to Bedford for a private examination, in order to secure a school at the meagre compensation paid by most of our districts. Directors can also aid us by having the school-houses, in which the examinations are to be held, opened and put in proper order, and if the weather be cold, warmed, before nine o'clock. It is impossible for us to get there much before that time, and if the house is locked, and the keys to be hunted before it can be opened, if the weather is cold and there is neither fire nor wood, nor axe or chop with all, which has frequently happened, the examination must be begun late and consequently often be continued late in the night to the great inconvenience and annoyance of all concerned. It certainly is not asking too much when we request Directors to see that their school-houses are opened and put in proper order in good season. It is no part of our work to hunt keys, borrow axes or chop wood, and we object to doing it, especially when we have quite as much work in the strict line of our duty, as we can attend to. If Directors and teachers will aid us in the particulars above mentioned we shall be under many obligations.

J. W. DICKERSON,
County Superintendent.
