W. M. SHOWALTER, Bedford, Oct. 4, 1865.

We omitted last week to call attention to the fact that Henry F. Irvin has returned from the West and purchased the boot and shoe store of J. Alsip & son, where he is now prepared to furnish all goods in his line of ness on the most favorable terms to all were destroyed by fire on the 3d inst. who favor him with their patronage. Henry is a clever and obliging salesman and will spare no effort to give satisfaction to custo mers. Give him a call, and examine his stock, before buying elsewhere.

Union Meerings .- A number of Union meetings were held in different portions of the county since our last issue down to Mon lay evening previous to the election which were numerously attended. The meeting in Bedord Borough on Monday nightin front of the Washington Hotel was the grandest success of the campaign. The officers were Hon. Samuel L. Russell, President, Wm. Kiser, Capt. John Arnold, George D. Shuck, George R. Oster, B. W. Garretson, Capt. C. R. Miller. D. W. Mullne. Wm. Dibert. Vice Presidents, and Hayes Irvin, David S. Elliott, Alexander Lyon, and Dr. Wm. Watson, Secretaries. The meeting was addressed by Col. Jordan, Hon. John Cessna, Col Filler, M. A. Points, Esq., J. B. Cessna, Esq., and J. T. Keagy, Esq. The meeting was in fine contrast with that of the Copperhead meeting held at the same hour in front of the Mengel House. Hundreds attended the Republican meeting while two or three dozen of boisterous individuals composed the entire audience of Copperheads. Verily Cops the "sere and yellow leaf' has come. 'Peace to your ashes.

FIRE.—The house occupied until lately by Emanuel Smith, son of Capt. George Smith of Bedford township, was destroyed on last Saturday night by fire. Mr. Smith had erected a new building and had moved into it some time ago. The old building was used as a storehouse and contained several hundren dollars worth of property at the time of its destruction. The fire was the work of an incendiary. The building was locked up, when the fire was discovered, the door was found broke open establishing beyoud a doubt that it was fired by some villain after having plundered it. The loss will not be less than $300 which is not cov-

TURNPIKE FROM PATTONSVILLE TO HOPE-WELL. -We have received under date of Yellow Creek, October 2nd, 1865, the following highly interesting letter on the above subject from "Satters" which we would commend to the business men of South and Middle Wood-

"The people of the north part of Bedford County have long since felt the necessity of a urnpike road from Morrison's Cove to Hope well, and strange as it may seem, it is still rue that they are yet so regardless of their in interests, as to delay action in an object that is calculated to benefit all classes of men materially.

The population of the Broad Top mining listrict is sufficiently large to consume all the a rplus produce of the two Woodberry townips, even in the most fruitful seasons, and a natural consequence, all kinds of produce mands higher prices at Hopewell than at ollidaysburg, all the produce which naturally another person. ings to Hopewell, is carried thither, and

Hollidaysburg is sixteen miles, and to Hope well eleven miles, making a difference of ten miles in the round trip, even from that place, and also keeping all the trade within the borders of our own county; and it needs no specific argument to convince any one, that the trade of a country concentrated in that country, enhances the value of it. "Moreover, it would not require more than half the labor, or expense, to construct a good road from Pattensville to Hopewell, that it would on any other ground of the same distance, for the simple reason, that the whole route is naturally graded, if it should follow the course of Yellow Creek, which would be the shortest route, and all the required material can be said to be on the ground now, and all the waters are well bridged, so that ulation in this part of Pennsylvania.
