Wool Growers' Convention.—We have received the following call for a Wool Growers' Convention, which is published below for the benefit of those of our readers who are interested in the wool business. The subject is one of vast importance to the farmers of Pennsylvania, and measures should be taken at once to have every county represented.

At a convention of Washington County Wool Growers, held on the 4th inst., the undersigned were appointed to call a State convention, to organize a Pennsylvania State Wool Growers' Association.

After due conference, we hereby invite delegates and representative men from every county in the State, to meet in the city of 8th of February next, at 11 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose above specified. If there is time, and the Convention is so inclined, there will different breeds of sheep, and other topics appropriate to the occasion.

In the meantime the Reverend gentleman could not, for the life of him, conjecture why so much at- hundred years ago! tention was shown to him. He was accompanied to the Lodge, from the Lodge and up the street. Then a gentleman suggested that he would with lighted lantern, light him in the direction of the Parsonage. When they approached the Parsonage he was not a little surprised to see light escaping from the crevices. He certainly had not left any light there in the afternoon, and he was quite sure that the fire was low when he had gone out. Hark! merry voices fall upon his ears; ah, ha! BEDFORD RAILROAD ROUTE. - Several weeks Bedford Railroad Route.—Several weeks ago we published an elaborate letter, with editorial comments, from U. S. Railroad and Mining Register, in favor of a new railroad project to extend from the Lebanon Valley Railroad via the Cumberland Valley, Bloody Run, Bedford to Wills creek, in this county, or the Potomac river. In a late number we find the following in regard to the same subject: "In the Register, of Dec. 23, we published a letter and comments on the strategic and commercial importance of the ground between the Lebanon Valley railroad and the Potomac river, via the Cumberland valley to the vicinity of Shippensburg and thence via Bloody Run to Wills' creek or the Potomac river. Our matter, as we know, has elicited inquiry and consideration; and a number of papers have come to us marked, showing that the article has been extensively copied. And the article has been extensively copied. And that the idea in it is germinating, we have abundant proof. How soon it may take a more tangible form will measureably depend upon the action of the Cumberland Valley railroad company, which, undoubtedly, has it in its power, by a new policy of judicious expansion, to more fully satisfy the transportation necessities of the Cumberland valley than it does at present, and thereby forestall combinations which otherwise will inevitably take place. But, from what we hear of the management of the Cumberland Valley railroad, and of its procrastination by the year in matters which might be fixed in an hour, we incline to the opinion that the discussion of bers and influence sufficient to warrant its construction and assure its success." The idea so happily suggested by the correspondent of the Register, and so heartily endorsed by its editor, may be "germinating," but, for the present, if we are not badly mistaken, the route from the Cumberland Vailey railroad is occupied, or it not exactly occupied, at least covered, by the charter of the Southern Pennsylvania and Connellsville company. The Register will recollect that at the session of 1864, this company was chartered with the following provision in sec-had been smouldering for some time. Some thoughtless person had emptied a bucket of the organization of their company within bot embers in some portion of it which had ignited some combustible matter and was ignited some combustible matter and was fortunately struct said road, and complete their main line, within three years."

This bill was submitted to the Governor a few days before the adjournment of the Legislature, and held over by him until the spe cial session in August of the same year, when, not having been returned within the time specified by the Constitution, it became a law. The incorporators met in Pniladelphia on the 10th of November following and elected a full board of officers, thus perfecting its organization within the time specified in the act of incorporation. On the very day of its organization a corps of Engineers arrived here, and a few days afterwards, commenced operations upon the route. Two corps of Engineers have been constantly employed from that time until the present. The road has been located from Mt. Dallas to the Foot of Dry Ridge west, and from Connellsville to a point in Somerset county east. Of course the Company cannot "complete their main line within three years," this is simply impossible. It will be compelled to ask the Legislature for an extension, wihch we are emphatically apposed to granting until the present, it appears to be pretty well tied up. In fact so liberal was the Legislature at the passage of the act that it lost sight of a Free Railway system for Pennsylvania and granted this great privilege to the Southern Pennsylvania Company. The Register will please read the following quotation from the act. After setting out the incorporators in section first, it says, they are hereby authorized to "Organize a company, by the name, style and Pittsburg, at Hare's Hotel, on Thursday, the title of the Connellsville and Southern Pennsylvania Railway Company, with power to construct a railroad from Connellsville to the Maryland state line, at such point, and by be a discussion on the comparative merits of such route, as to the directors may seem advisable: and to connect the same with any road, or roads, authorized by the State of Maryland, and to connect the same with the Pittsburg and Connellsville railroad, or any other road at, or near, Connellsville, now constructed, or that may hereafter be constructed; and to construct a road from any point, on said line, to connect with any road, or roads, in the Susquehanna valley, or west thereof, and with power to make such branches as the directors may deem expedient and necessary, in the southern tier of counties of the susquehanna valley, or west as holding any position, on any subject, just as may suit the convenience of the hour. American Wool Interest.

al cheaper than they do: It is a shame that this great agricultural nation does not produce nearly all the wool which clothes it; it would be better for every American interest if our number of sheep were to-day double what it is. We trust the manufacturers see the matter in this light, and will readily accede to whatever modification of the wool duty shall be deemed expedient by the wool growers. Referring to the prospects and prices of wool, the Ohio Farmer says: A very intelligent, well-posted gentleman, who has had long and large experience in wool producing ligent, well-posted gentleman, who has had long and large experience in wool producing and wool-buying, writes as follows from New York—and we call the special attention of our wool-growers to his facts and suggestions:—"The fact that foreign wool, of a class averaging as fine or finer than the average of the wools of this country, is imported and sold in this market under the present tariff at 24 to 30 cents per pound, is what keeps wool (domestic wool) down to a price as low as we have frequently had it on a gold basis; and when this is coupled with the fact that, when the grower goes to buy a yard of cassimere, he has to pay $2.75 to $3.50 for the same quantity, though really not so heavy and good as he used to buy for $1 to $1.50, is quite sufficient of itself to show that the tariff is not properly adjusted at present. But when we consider the other fact that skillful manufacturers are making from 50 to 150 per cent. clear profits, it shows the palpably outrageous injustice and inequality of the present schedule. The wool-growers will never remedy this state of things by simply grumbling and submitting to it. They must pour the petitions into Congress for an increased duty on imported wool, giving their representatives to understand that if they do not see on imported wool, giving their representa-tives to understand that if they do not see to it that a change is made before the pres-ent Congress adjourns, they will combine, regardless of politics, and send men to Con-gress who will represent them. Again, let them give manufacturers to understand plainly that if they oppose an increase of the duty on wool is some degree correspond the duty on wool in some degree correspon-ding to present duty on manufactured goods, they will go in for a reduction of the duty on manufactured goods. If wool growers will go to work in earnest and get every man in every township they can to sign petitions and flood Congress with them, they can change the whole aspect of the wool mark-

The Convenience of it. A man "on a bender" has a certain sort of advantage over his sober neighbor—he can prove he was on the inside or outside of the walk as may best serve his purpose. Some public journals are conducted very much after this model. First and last they nanage to be on all sides of every question; Herald claims pre-eminence in it; but Raymond's Times is making a brave dash for the palm. Plenty of imitations are springing up all over the country.—Pittsburgh

1866. Our most mementous, arduous struggle having resulted in the triumph of American Nationality the utter discomfiture and overthrow of Secession and Slavery, Tun TRIBUNE, profoundly rejoicing in this result, will labor to conserve the legitimat fruits of this grand, benignant victory by rendering Liberty and Opportunity the common her tage of the whole American People now and ever Discountenancing all unmanly exultation over or needless infliction of pain or privation on the upholders of the lost cause, it will insist on the earliest possible restoration of the Southern States to their former power and influence in our Union on the basis of All Rights for All their People. It will labor in hope to prove that the substitution of Free for Slave Labor must inevitably and universally conduce to the increase of Industry, Thrift, Prosperity and Wealth, se that the South, within the next ten years, must look back amazed on her long persistence in a practice so baleful as the chattelizing of Man.

It will urge the Protection of Home Industry by discriminating duties on Foreign Products in-ported, with a view to drawing hither the most capable and skillful artificers and artisans of Eu-rope, and the naturalizing on our soil of many branches of production hitherto all but confined to the Old World, while it would strengthen and extend those which have already a foothold among us.

extend those which have already a foothold among us.

It will give careful attention to progress and improvement in Agriculture, doing its best at once to bring markets to the doors of our farmers and teach them how to make the most of the opportunities thus afforded them.

It will devote constant attention to Markets, especially for Agricultural Products, with intent to save both producer and consumer from being victimized by the speculator and forestaller.

And, giving fair scope to Current Literature, to the proceedings of Congress, and to the general News of the Day, it hopes to retain its old patrons and attract many new to bear them company.

We rarely employ traveling agents, as so many impostors are habitually prowling in the assumed capacity of solicitors for journals. We prefer that our subscribers shall pay their money to persons they know and of whose integrity they are assured. Any friend who believes he will do good by increasing the circulation of the Tribune is authorized to solicit and receive subscriptions. Specimen coyies will be promptly sent without charge to those requiring them, and we trust many friends will be moved to ask their neighbors and acquaintances to join in making up their clubs.

This Company has been organized for the purpose of prosecuting the business of Silver Mining on a thoroughly legitimate basis, devoid of all attempts at speculation. Their property comprises six (6) separate, distinct, Silver-bearing Ledges or Lodes in San Antonio Mining District, Nye county, Nevada, in the richest portion of the celebrated "Reces-river Region," and admirably located in every respect for profitable mining. These Silver Mines are known respectively as the Cx-san, Creenco, Shakhspeare, Shax and Curris, Palestine and Macedon Ledges, and the property of the Company consists of an original location of 1,600 feet along the course of each wein. or a grand total of Six Thousand Feet of Mining Ground. The Secretary of the Company has visited these mines in company with several experienced miners and mining engineers, and given them a thorough examination. Full particulars in regard to their inexhaustible wealth and resources will be furnished on application at the Principal Office.

where also can be seen the richest cabinet of silver ores, silver bullion, &c., ever exhibited in the Atlantic States. Abundant evidence of the most satisfactory and conclusive charecter has been furnished the Board of Directors in regard to the wealth and permanence of the mines. The title to the property has been subjected to the most careful examination, and found to be perfect in particular—of which fact the highest official endorsements have been obtained. The Company have secured the services of a thoroughly experienced Mining Superintendent (a resident of Nevada), who is already engaged in the extraction of ore from the mines. As soon as the working capital of the Company is secured, the erection of permanent and efficient reduction works will be commenced.

The six silver-bearing ledges belonging to this Company range in width from three to fifteen feet, and assays of average over from near the surface range from one hundred to over one thousand dollars per ton in silver.

No other Silver Mining Company has yet been organized in the Atlantic States with such an absolute assurance of success, and those who are fortunate enough to secure stock in the MACHDON SILVER MINING COMPANY will repro a unificent reward, in the shape of early and unexampled dividends, and the onsequent rapid enhancement of the market value of the Stock.

A full Prospectus of the Company will be issued previous to January let.
