During the last five years the people of this State have suffered deeply from the ca-lamities of war. Thousands of her men have been slain, and others are mained and broken. Almost every family has been stricken and everywhere there are widows and or-phans, many of them helpless and in poverty,

It is a subject of sincere congratulation, that peace has at last returned.

Labor Saving-Labor Making.

Labor saving implements were once tho't to be destructive to the interests of the work ing man, just in proportion as they saved the drudgery of labor. This seems reasonable a first, but a little thought will correct the error. How then do the farm laborers, thrown out of work by the introduction of improved implements, ultimately find work? Plainly by the increased amount of tillage which horse power, machinery and tools make possible in the country. In a section where all the soil is under cultivation of some kind, it will lead to more thorough systems of farming. In the case of our own country, it leads to the faster extension of civilization westward, the rapid subjugation of wild lands, and the better cultivation of that already under the plow. Por instance, the Western grain grower, who now devotes 75 to 150 acres to corn and other grain crops, with the meager facilities of thirty years ago, could not have managed onefourth that amount in a similar manner. This increase of agriculture, not only keeps good the original number of farm laborers, but creates a new demand for laborers in every other field of industry. More ships and rail roads are required for transportation, more manufacturing establishments, more mechanics to construct these, and men to manage them, more miners, machinists, etc. In fact the whole body politic thus receives vital refreshment from every really labor-saving in vention. This is a forcible illustration of the fact that whatever fairly advances the interests of one class, becomes a benefit to all classes in the community.-Amer. Agricul-

A WIFE IN TROUBLE .- 'Pray tell me, my dear what is the cause of those tears?"
"Oh, such a disgrace!" "Oh, such a disgrace!"
"Oh, such a disgrace!"
"What is it my dear? don't keep me in sus-

"Oh, I have opened one of your letters supposing it to be addressed to myself. Certainly it looked more like Mrs. than Mr."

"Is that all? What harm can there be in a wife opening her husband's letters?" "No harm in the thing itself, but the con-tents. Such a disgrace!"
"Who has dared to write me a letter unfit to be read by my wife?"

"Oh no, it is couched in the most beautiful language, but the contents!" the contents!"
Here the wife buried her face in her handkerchief and commenced sobbing aloud: while her husband eagerly caught up the let-ter and commenced reading the epistle that had nearly broken his wifes heart. It was a bill from the printer for two years, subscription to the town paper.

An English novelist, Mrs. Edwards, uses this illustration in a recent work; "All day long, like an overseer in a Massachusetts cotton field, Claude passes to and fro between the country roads and vineyards." Correct ideas about us these English writers have.

THE Suffrage Bill, which passed the House last week, will probably come before the Senate after the Freedman's Bill is disposed of. There is, of course, no question of its passage, nor is there any doubt among those best informed at Washington, that it will receive the President's signature. Some of the democratic, would persuade the President that that would be a popular measure on his part. He probably knows better, and will give his assent to a bill which has the universal approbation of loyal Northern people. —N. Y. Trib.
