Taxing Newspapers.—Our neighbor of the Bedford Inquirer wants to know of his neighbors of the country press, whose circulation don't exceed 2000 copies weekly, are taxed as "Manufacturers," and says, that "he is compelled to make Monthly Returns and pay a Tax of from one to two hundred dollars per annum, as a manufacturer of newspapers vertisements are also to be taxed 3 per cent, when the circulation of the newspapers or periodical in which they are inserted, has a weekly circulation of 2000 copies. But the job work of a printing office, embracing all cards, circulars, bill-heads, &c., and all sorts of blanks, must be returned, and is taxed six per cent. ad valorem; and as to the liability in this last particular, the law fixes no minimum. Therefore, all the U. S. Taxes which our neighbors of the Inquirer, simply as publishers, are legally bound to pay, (if their circulation is under 2000 copies weekly, is $10 per annum as manufacturers, and six per cent. on the entire value of their jobbing. So we obey, and so we administer the law, over here in this District.

Anything further?—Greensburg Herald. "We would like very much to know whether our country contemporaries, whose circulation do not exceed two thousand copies

If we understand the matter correctly, we took out a license for the privilege of being an Editor. There were no questions asked about our circulation. The Assesser wished to know if our income was over one tho to know if our income was over one thousand dollars per annum. We gave him no satisfaction on that head for we hadn't tried it on for that length of period. To make the matter justify, however, he charged us $10 for our profession. The above replies satisfy us that there is a mistake somewhere, and we want to find out where it lies. We desire to know whether Mr. Harper makes monthly returns and pays tax as a manufacturer of newspapers? Come. let us hear from you, Mr. Assessor? Are your deputies right or wrong?

> In Advance.—Gaysport borough leads the van in the matter of "Equal Rights." At the election last Friday, Major John Thomas, colored, received the highest number of votes for constable. When it is considered that this borough is the pride of the Democracy, the "Little Berks" of the State, always sure for a Democratic majority, the election of Major Thomas is a sign that the world moves. Every Democrat who voted for constable vo-ted either for Major Thomas or "Jimmy Gal-laher." When the vote was counted the Major had four of a majority. Good for the

The above we clip from the Hollidaysburg Register for the purpose of showing up the professions of our Copperhead friends They manifest a holy horror for the negro and negro suffrage, but when it comes to a prefernce between a negro and an Irishman, they go the negro blind. It is a well known fact that Gaysport has been "dubbed" the "Little Berks" of Blair: for many years scarce counting its baker's dozen of Republican votes, so that in this instance the Cops are solely responsible for the election of the colored Major. In a very brief space of time hey will be swearing that they were the original friend of negro suffrage.

She died as she lived, a faithful hand-maiden of the Lord; a member of the Lutheran Church, a mother in Israel and a friend to all, she bore the heat and burden of the day in her Master's vineyard. Calm and pious in all her worldly inter ourse, her walk and conversation gave evidence of her christian character, and commanded the love and respect of all who knew her. Living far nan, her days were measureably filled with trouble and sorrow, but she bore them patiently to th end. Fall of years she has gone to her reward, mourned by a large circle of friends; but they sorrow not as those who have no hope. A. M.
