The Republican Union Convention asse bles at Harrisburg on Wednesday next, the 7th inst., for the purpose of nominating a Candidate for Governor. It is the solemn duty of that Convention to nominate a candidate who will stand fairly on the Republican platform as indicated by the majority of both branches of Congress. Congress must be fully sustained if we do not desire to lose all the advantages gained by four long years of bloody war.

Lost .- A copy of "Seiss' Last Times," bound in black cloth. Several months ago we lent it to some friend of whom some other friend borrowed it. How many other friends have since borrowed it and passed it to the next we know not. But this we do know, it has never returned. It is in the possession of some one in the town, who will much oblige us by rerurning it to this office or to Dr. C. N. Hickok.

LIFETTINE PRINCIPLEALE.

The public mind has for some time been nsidering the propriety of erecting some suitable memento, in honor of the men, who have given their lives in defense of their coun try, during the war recently closed.

purpose of nominating a candidate for Governor, to be supported by the friends of the their homes, bearing with them the seeds of posed to erect upon some suitable spot a mon ament, upon which, the name of every one of Bedford County's heroic dead, shall be inscribed.

Many other counties in the state have com menced the erection of such monuments with in their limits, and Bedford County should not be behind hand in so grateful a work.

In the counties having within their limits, our large and wealthy cities, magnificent and costly piles will be erected. In more rural locations, less ostentations but no less appro priate structures will be reared. We of course can only emulate the latter.

In several of the inland counties, suras have een raised, by subscription, for this purpose, varying from seven thousand to twenty-five thousand dollars. Bedford County should make the effort to reach at least the mini-

The friends of the movement, throughout the county and as far as spoken of, there seems to be a universal approval, are of one mind in saying that Five Thousand Dollars, is the least sum that should be appropriated to this object; and from encouragement already received, the Committee feel assured that all that is necessary to ensure success, in so laudable an undertaking, is, to have it rought to the notice of our citizens.

We therefore ask the active and immediate co-operation of the Township and Borough committees (to whom due notice of their apointment will be given) and of all interested in the matter.

We also, respectfully ask of the clergy, that they will read this notice from their pul pits, and recommend the work to their people and aid us by their influence, and person-

DIED.

Fort Reno, D. C., February 11th, 1866. Mrs. AGNES, wife of Lieut. Josiah Slick, R. Q. M., 107th U. S. Colored Infantry, died of Small Pox, at her home, in Wilmington N. C., at 12 o'-clock A. M., Feb. 8th, aged 16 years, 11 months, 33 days.

clock A. M., Feb. Sth, aged 16 years, 11 months, 23 days.

After a short but painful disease, one which shut her from the intercourse of loved ones, and separated her from the dearest earthly friend, she fell asleep in Jesus, with that blessed assurance which makes the dying bed "soft as downy pillows are." She left to the bereaved her dying words, which speak peace to the sorrowing heart: "Meet me in Heaven." "I'm going home to die no more."

The officers of the regiment express their sympathy to the bereaved in the following:

Lieut. Stick, R. Q. M. My dear sir—I take this opportunity of assuring you of my grief on hearing of the decease of your amiable wife. I feel that you have been greatly afflicted, and your sorrow must be great, but trust that you will put your hope in Him, who has power to alleviate all sorrow, pain and distress. I assure you that you have my sympathies.

E. T. LAMBERTON, Lieut. and Adj't.

In hours of deepest sorrow 'tis consolation to know that others weep, when we weep, and mourn with us at the portals of the tomb.

Although life looks dark, and the world around seems drear, and the bright hopes of the future seems blasted and withered like the tedder plant before the cold breath of autumn, still in his grief I hard him exclaim, "Father, not my will but Thine be done."
