

TERMS:
$2.00 a year if paid strictly in advance.
If not paid within six months $2.50.
If not paid within the year $3.00.

Professional & Business Cards.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

E. P. MEYERS, J. W. DICKERSON,
M. MYERS & DICKERSON,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
BEDFORD, PENN'A.
Office same as formerly occupied by Hon. W. P. Schell, 1 to doors east of the Gazette office, will practice in the several Courts of Bedford county. Penalties, bonds and back pay obtained and the purchase of Real Estate attended to.
May 11, 1864-17.

JOHN T. KEAGY,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
BEDFORD, PENN'A.
Offers to give satisfaction to all who may entrust their legal business to him. Will collect moneys on evidence of debt, and specify proper benefits and pensioners soldiers, their widows or heirs. Office two doors west of Telegraph office.
April 16, 1864-17.

J. B. CESSNA,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Office with JOHN CESSNA, on Juliana street, in the office formerly occupied by King & Jordan, and recently by E. Myers & Dickerson. All business entrusted to his care will be given faithful and prompt attention. Military Claims, Pensions, &c., specially attended to.
Bedford, June 9, 1863.

J. A. D. SHARPE, E. P. KEER,
ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW,
Will practice in the Courts of Bedford and adjoining counties. All business entrusted to their care will receive careful and prompt attention. Penalties, Bonds, Back Pay, &c., specially collected from the Government.
Office on Juliana street, opposite the banking house of Reed & Schell, Bedford, Pa.
March 21, 1864-17.

JOHN PALMER,
Attorney at Law, Bedford, Pa.
Will promptly attend to all business entrusted to his care.
Particular attention paid to the collection of Military claims. Office on Juliana street, nearly opposite the Mengel House.
June 23, 1864-17.

J. R. DURBORROW & JOHN LUTZ,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
BEDFORD, PA.
Will attend promptly to all business entrusted to their care. Collections made on the shortest notice.
They are, also, regularly licensed Claim Agents and will give special attention to the prosecution of claims against the Government for Pensions, Back Pay, Bounty, Bounty Lands, &c.
Office on Juliana street, one door South of the 'Mengel House' and nearly opposite the Inquirer office.
April 28, 1864-17.

E. SPY M. AISP,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA.
Will faithfully and promptly attend to all business entrusted to his care in Bedford and adjoining counties. Military claims, Pensions, back pay, Bounty, &c., specially collected. Office with Mann & Spang, on Juliana street, 2 doors South of the Mengel House.
April 1, 1864-17.

M. A. POINTS,
ATTORNEY AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA.
Respectfully tenders his professional services to the public. Office with J. W. Lingenfelter, Esq., on Juliana street, two doors South of the 'Mengel House.'
Dec. 9, 1864-17.

K. IMMELL AND LINGENFELTER,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW, BEDFORD, PA.
Have formed a partnership in the practice of the Law Office on Juliana Street, two doors South of the Mengel House.
April, 1864-17.

JOHN MOWER,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
BEDFORD, PA.
April 1, 1864-17.

DENTISTS.
C. S. HICKOK, J. G. MINNICH, JR.,
DENTISTS, BEDFORD, PA.
Office in the Bank Building, Juliana Street. All operations pertaining to Surgical and Dental Dentistry performed in the most skillful and warranted. TERMS CASH.
Jan 65-ly.

DENTISTRY.
D. L. N. BOWSER, RESIDENT DENTIST, WOODBERRY, PA., visits Bedford three days of each month, commencing with the third Tuesday of the month. Prepared to perform all Dental operations with the view of affording relief. Terms within the reach of all and strictly cash except by special contract. Work to be sent by mail or otherwise, must be paid for when impressions are taken.
August, 1864.

PHYSICIANS.
W. M. W. JAMISON, M. D.,
Respectfully tenders his professional services to the people of that place and vicinity. (Dec 5-ly)

D. R. B. F. HARRY,
Respectfully tenders his professional services to the citizens of Bedford. Office and residence on Pitt Street, in the building formerly occupied by Dr. J. H. Hofus.
April 1, 1864-17.

J. L. MARBOURG, M. D.,
Having permanently located respectfully tenders his professional services to the citizens of Bedford and vicinity. Office on Pitt Street, opposite the Bank, one door north of Hall & Palmer's office.
April 1, 1864-17.

BANKERS.
G. W. RUFF, J. E. SHANNON, F. B. BERRIOT,
RUFF, SHANNON & CO., BANKERS,
BANK OF DISCOUNT AND DEPOSIT.
COLLECTIONS made for the East, West, North and South, and the general business of Exchange, transacted. Notes and Accounts Collected and Remittances promptly made. REAL ESTATE bought and sold.
April 1, 1864-17.

JEWELER, &c.
ASALOM GARLICK,
Clock & Watchmaker and Jeweller,
BEDFORD, PA.
Clocks, Watches, Jewelry, &c., promptly repaired. All work entrusted to his care warranted to give entire satisfaction. Inv-3-ly

DANIEL BORDEA,
PITTS STREET, TWO DOORS WEST OF THE BEDFORD HOTEL, BEDFORD, PA.
WATCHMAKER AND DEALER IN JEWELRY, SPECTACLES, &c.
He keeps on hand a stock of fine Gold and Silver Watches, Spectacles of Brilliant Double Refracting Glasses, also Scotch Pebble Glasses, Gold Watch Chains, Dress Pins, Finger Rings, best quality of Gold Pens. He will supply to order any thing in his line not on hand.
April 28, 1863-17.

BEDFORD HOUSE,
AT HOWELL, BEDFORD COUNTY, PA.,
BY HARRY DROELLER.
Every attention given to make guests comfortable, who stop at this House.
Howell, July 29, 1864.

Bedford Inquirer

A LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWSPAPER, DEVOTED TO POLITICS, EDUCATION, LITERATURE AND MORALS.

DURBORROW & LUTZ, Editors and Proprietors. BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 27, 1866. VOLUME 39: NO 26.

Poetry.

GETTYSBURG—JULY 1863.

O pride of the days in prime of the months
Now trobled in great renown,
When before the ark of our holy cause
Fell Dagon down—
Dagon foredoomed, who, armed and targe,
Never his impious heart enlarged
Beyond that hour; God willed his power,
And there the last invader charged.

He charged, and in that charge condensed
His all of hate and all of fire;
He sought to blast us in his scorn,
And wither us in his ire.
Before him went the shriek of shells—
Aerial screaming, taunts, and yells;
Then the three waves in flashed advance
Surg'd, but were met, and back they set:
Pride was repelled by sterner pride,
And Right is a strong-hold yet.

Before our lines it seemed a beach
Which wild September gales have strown
With havoc on wreck, and dashed therewith
Pale crews unknown—
Men, arms, and steeds. The evening sun
Died on the face of each lifeless one,
And died along the winding marge of fight
And searching-parties lone.

Sloped on the hill the mounds were green,
Our centre held that place of graves,
And some still hold it in their swoon,
And over these a glory waves.
The warrior-monument, crashed in fight,
Shall soar transfixed in loftier light,
A meaning ampler bear;
Soldier and priest with hymn and prayer
Have laid the stone, and every bone
Shall rest in honor there.

THE STORY OF A DAY.
A soldier slept, as the morning unrolled
O'er the white tents pitched on the pleasant plains;
The bayonet gleam was the gleam of gold,
Where sunlight poured on the height and the
And the fields of yellow grain.

Then the soldier arose, when his joy was done
And he merrily sang in his roustous glee;
He sharpened his sword and he brightened
his gun,
And he smiled as he thought of the laurels
won,
That yet on his brow would be,

The couriers rode when the noontide came,
And told of grim lines advancing fast;
So the camp was filled with a wild acclaim,
And the soldier's heart was kindled with flame,
And the hurrying squadron passed.

But the gleam full soon was the place of blood,
With the hissing of shot and the clang of steel;
And men lay dabbled and stained in the wood
Tho' the soldier's comrades in valor stood,
Till they made the foemen reel.

When the night came down the horses were strown
And the soft dew fell on the face of the dead;
But the soldier's song had changed to a moan
As faint and pale, where the sad moon shone,
He lay with his bleeding head.

'Tis morning again on the tents and the spears
But the soldier's voice is forever still;
There's a form that's missed from the cavaliers,
There's a sweet face blurred with bitter tears—
There's a nameless grave on the hill.

Political.
READ! READ! READ!!!
A Copperhead Surrender!!

The following acknowledgment of the triumphant vindication of the Union Party on the Reconstruction question, by the passage of the late amendment, and the utter hopelessness of the cause of the Copperhead-Johnson hybrid, is from the New York Herald of June 12th:

THE RECONSTRUCTION ADJUSTMENT—OUR FOREIGN POLICY THE CARD FOR PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

The proposed amendment of the federal constitution, providing for the reconstruction and restoration of the lately rebellious States, will doubtless pass the House of Representatives in the form adopted by the Senate. In this form, therefore, it will be submitted to the States for their ratifications. Whether it will succeed or fail in securing the required endorsements of three-fourths of all the States or even of the States represented in Congress, is a question which will remain for the legislators of the several States to determine. With the transfer of the whole subject to the States, however, Congress and the administration, at least for the remainder of this year, are excluded from the reconstruction labors.

This Congressional proposition for the amendment of the constitution, meantime, as modified by the Senate, is an ingeniously contrived party platform for the coming fall elections. It proposes to make it part of the supreme law of the land that whites and blacks born or naturalized in the United States are citizens of the Union and of the State in which they may reside, and shall have equality under the law; that representation in Congress shall be regulated by the number of voters; that a large schedule of men, who, as former officials under the government of the United States, have been guilty of violating their oaths by joining in rebellion, shall hereafter be excluded from all federal offices unless absolved by a two-thirds vote of each house of Congress; that the national debt and the bounties and pensions of Union soldiers shall be held sacred and that all rebel debts and all claims for losses of slaves by the late war shall be utterly repudiated. It is further proposed in a supplemental bill that the now excluded States respectively, on accepting and ratifying the condition laid down, shall not only be readmitted into Congress, but shall have a credit of ten years in reference to their quota of the national debt.

This, we say, a strong platform upon which to go before the people of the Northern States. There is nothing here objectionable to public opinion in the way of ergo, while the alternative suggested will be satisfactory to the North. There are no vindictive penalties here against rebels and traitors, but conditional exclusions, which cannot be resisted successfully before the people who put down the rebellion. The same may be said of the propositions touching the national debt, the debts of the rebellion and the four millions of liberated Southern Slaves. Upon this platform the republican party adhering to this Congress can carry our approaching Northern State elections as victors, and secure a re-election to a party sharply defined in its position in season before the people. The republican supporters of President Johnson, as against Congress, can make no fight against this platform, for it is the President's own policy. It is a compromise platform against Mr. Johnson, and republicans cannot even quarrel with the radicals before the people, although the hatred of the radicals against Johnson may continue as intense as on the eve of the late Connecticut election.

The President's reconstruction policy thus being appropriated by the radicals as their own, what is he to do? How is he to escape the ignominious flogging out of Tyler and Fillmore, those accursed men who stand in history as instructive monuments of the folly of ambition without sagacity or pluck?

After the above frank acknowledgment it proceeds to lay down the following programme for involving the country in a Foreign war for the purpose of redeeming the character of the President and resuscitating the defunct carcass of copperheadism.

President Johnson may fully retrieve himself in a bold stroke in his foreign policy for a new and popular issue. Let him advise Mr. Seward, as President Lincoln advised Montgomery Blair, that his time has come; and let the other members of our present Cabinet be given a gentle hint to the same purpose; and then give us a new Cabinet adopted to the new dispensation. Senator Fessenden, in reducing the crude and impracticable reconstruction scheme of Thaddeus Stevens to a practical shape, and, in so doing, nearly retiring on the subject, has done us a great practical statesman and near enough in principle to the administration to be advanced to the State Department. Let him, then, be so appointed. In the next place, in consideration of his public services, Mr. Seward is sent to take the place of Mr. Adams as our Minister to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of the indemnities due for the spoils of Anglo-rebel cruisers upon our commerce or his immediate return home. This will bring the money or make a popular issue. Assuming that England will refuse payment, all that the President will have to do to raise for his administration a powerful party, will be to send Mr. Seward to England, and with the alternative that government of the payment of