

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 17, 1866.

UNION COUNTY MEETING!

Opening of the Campaign.

GOV. A. G. CURTIN TO SPEAK.

The Union men of Bedford County, will assemble in Mass Meeting in Bedford, on TUESDAY EVENING SEPT. 25TH, 1866.

Every man who stood by the Government during the trying hours of the late rebellion, and the fearful struggle of our nation for life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and who believe that "treason is a crime and must be made odious" and that "influential, intelligent, conscious traitors should be punished," are cordially invited to attend.

Active measures will be taken to secure the success of the Union ticket in the State, and particularly in this county. We earnestly believe that by united action and proper effort, we shall be able this Fall to carry our county. A great revolution has been wrought in the public sentiment of our county during the last year or two. Last Fall we reduced the Copperhead majority to one hundred and thirty-five, and now let the good work earnestly go on and we will be triumphantly victorious this Fall.

Loyal men, Soldiers and citizens, come as one man, and let us determine to overthrow the tyranny and iniquity of Copperheadism. Come as the whole count, when favorites are treated. Come as the waves come, when storms are roused.

His Excellency, Hon. A. G. CURTIN, will positively be present and address the meeting. Other prominent speakers are expected, whose names will be announced next week.

Chairman Union Co. Com. J. T. KEAGY, Secy.

The Union County Committee of Bedford County is requested to meet at the Washington Hotel, in Bedford, on TUESDAY, the 24th of September, 1866, at 2 o'clock, p. m. A full attendance is requested.

Attention is called to the card of J. W. Dickerson in another column, headed Soldiers' Bonities.

All the necessary blanks for the collection of the bounty authorized by the late act of Congress have been procured by DUNBROW & LUTZ, and they are prepared to make all applications for bounties under the act.

The Helena Glee Club will give a musical concert in the Court House, on Friday evening the 24th inst., for the benefit of the Congregational Church at Helena, in Broad Top township.

WORKS OF THE WAR—Their Heroism and Self-Sacrifice.—The above is the title of a new book by Frank Moore, author of "The Rebellion Record," "Diary of the American Revolution," &c. This book is intended to occupy an entirely new field in the literature of the noble women who have borne so conspicuous a part in the war.

HOUSE RACING.—Several weeks ago a notice of a proposed training course at the Claybats Spring, appeared in our columns. We were reluctant to permit its publication at that time as we believed that the course would soon be proscribed to other and unlawful purposes.

NEW ECONOMY.—Of all the Farm Implements ever invented, there is none that stands so high in the estimation of our most successful farm growers as the Ginn Grain Drill.

THE EDITOR OF PETERSONS' DETECTOR sends us the following list of country banks redeemed at par in Philadelphia. This is the only correct list now published, being up to date.

TEXAS CORRESPONDENCE. ENHURD, TEXAS, Aug 8, 1866. My Dear Inquirer: You are doubtless acquainted with the fact that I am once more on the Rio Grande.

On Tuesday of last week, a colored man named John Franklin, was arrested charged with the murder of Maj. George Raymond in Woodbury, N. J. He had a hearing before the Police Magistrate, who committed him to prison to answer the charge.

On the 4th of August inst., at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Woodbury, by M. F. Stock, Justice of the Peace, DANIEL H. MILLER and MARY P. GRIMES, both of Middle Woodbury.

Peace hath its victories. To prevent or conquer disease is a grand achievement; and as surely as butter and eggs will destroy, so surely will HOSSETTER'S BITTERS preserve and prolong life.

As I gave you an account of the establishment of a School in Liberty (euphonious name) in a former letter, I shall give you its final. As I informed you that Miss Fitch, of Chicago, was the principal teacher, a lady of splendid acquirements, being a graduate of the Female Seminary of that place.

teaching, known to the most perfect systems. The books were at first donated, but are now sent south at publishers prices, by philanthropic societies in the North.

But to return to Miss Fitch, whom I left in Liberty. I found her on my return without a boarding place, or a school house. A few moments served to explain it all. The troops were recalled, and although there were none in Liberty, yet those at Beaumont crowded them into quiet. Mrs. Beal informed me that she had gone up town to buy some goods, and that she was assisted by some 20 men and women, who threatened that if she did not turn the school narm out they would tar and feather her.

Resolved, That our townsman, Mrs. Beal, in taking as a boarder the nigger teacher, must have been actuated by starvation alone, as her past character has been impeccable; therefore, be it Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to raise an amount sufficient to board one person for one year, and a tender of the same be made to Mrs. Beal, in consideration of which she shall expel the teacher.
