GOV. A. G. CURTIN TO SPEAK. The Union men of Bedford county, will semble in Mass Meeting in Bedford,

TUESDAY EVENING SEPT. 4TH, 1866. Every man who stood by the Government aring the trying hours of the late rebellion, ad the fearful struggle of our nation and the fearful struggle of our nation or life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and who believe that "treason is a rime and must be made odious" and that influential, intelligent, corscious traitors hould be punished," are cordially invited to stand

Active measures will be taken to secure as success of the Union ticket in the State, and particularly in this county. We earnest believe that by united action and proper tal, we shall be able this Fall to carry our nty. A great revolution has been wrought anny. A great revolution has been wrought he public sentiment of our county during hast year or two. Last Fall we reduced Copperhead majority to one hundred and irty-five, and now let the good work earnly go on and we will be triumphantly victohistory.

Loyal men, Soldiers and citizens, come as ne man, and let us determine to overthrow he tyranny and imquity of Copperheadism.

Contents: Silcote of Silcotes, Bathing with an Emperor, The Story of a Burglery, he Theory of Flirtations, Choosing a House, The Atlantic Telegraph, Foreign Notes, The Sundews, Les Noyades. Though already without a rival in its peculiar field, the enterprising publishers propose to enlarge it as ndicated in the following note:

With the number for September 1st, Every Saturday will be enlarged from 32 to 40 pages. The great success of the journal justifies and demands this enlargement. The conductors will hereafter introduce as a feature Serial.

Tookes are used with always good success. TORIES, in compliance with a general desire.

They will select only those of a first-class character, and or readable quality. "Silecte of Silcotes," by Henry Kingsley, has just been begun, and others will follow shortly.

Every Saturday will continue to present the most readable, interesting, and valuable Stories, Essays, Sketches, and Poems, from the foreign journals and periodicals. Translations from the French periodicals will form a regulor and important feature. A most thrilling story from the French of Edmond About, will be given in September. Ticknor & Fields. Boston. Editors: I have no doubt it will be a source of real congratulation to the enterprising citizens of our county to know that the project of erecting a Rolling Mill and Nail Factory at Hopewell, or some point convenient thereto, is to a very great degree a immediate surroundings (with one exception) here has already been one hundred and eventy-six shares taken, amounting in round numbers to $17,600, and this portion of our ounty can hardly be said to be canvassed. have no doubt that when Broad Top and Hopewell townships speak in their strength n favor of this long neglected enterprise, we vill have a subscription amounting to thirty r forty thousand dollars. The fact is the tizens of this end of our county are awakening up to what are their true interests. The farmer sees that by subscribing a few shares made on him for his produce and by the con-sequent enhancement of the value of his land. The mechanic and laborer see that by takng a small interest in advancing this laudable object that they are contributing to their own interest by increasing the demand for labor. The miller wisely reasons that if he takes stock in the proposed object, and it is a success, it will increase the population of our

will increase his market for flour, chop, &c., and last, but not least, the editors of our county papers will doubtless see that if the opulation of our county can be increased at hat ratio, that their subscription list will be materially lengthened. I find too, that the stockholders in making their subscription ar governed by the consideration that the enterprise is entirely and clearly feasible, based ipon the known fact that there exists in this vicinity unteld wealth, in the rich deposits of iron ore and coal, which only awaits enter prise and capital to develope these inexhaustable treasures and bring them forth to be manufactured and used by our own fellow itizens in our county, instead of sending the raw material to Pittsburgh, at a cost of ten dollars per ton, to have it manufactured into bariron or nails, and after the manufacturer there has made his profit, to send it back to as at the cost of another ten dollars. In tons of metal to make one ton of bar iron or nails, it will cost $15 per ton to get the metal to market. Our merchants then order a bill of iron and nails from Pittsburgh, and they find that it costs them ten dollars more, makrd County is requested to meet at the WASH- into the reconsumer pay for transportation alone $25 per ton. I'm glad to learn that the enterprising citizens of your town are waking up to what is the true interests of Bedford county, and that they have already called a meeting to be held in the Court house on Wednesday evening, the 5th day of September, for the purpose of aiding in the enter prise. THE St. Louis Democrat says: A telegram ays that an organization has been formed at the South "for the purpose of exhuming the rebel dead." The Philadelphia Convention, operating alike in both sections, does a larger business that way than any other organization, however.

"THERE is no Abraham Lincoln President now," said Mr. Vallandigham in his Kentucky speech. Vallandigham is about right. What followed must have hightened the effect of his exuitation. 'Give it to him!' (meaning Lincoln.) shouted one of the rebel crowd. We have an idea that they and Vallandigham did "give it to him," and that he died of it. That is why Abraham Lincoln is not President, and Andrew Johnson in N. V. Teilhone. son is. -N. Y. Tribune.

The Alteration in the Columbia Dam.

—In a recent edition of the Telegraph we noticed the fact that workmen were then employed in forming a coffer dam at Columbia to facilitate the passage of fish up the Susquehanna. We have since learned that the dimensions of the coffer will be 50 by 78 feet, and that it is being sunk in the river immediately above the site selected for the erection by the Susquehanna canal company of a sluice dam. The sluice will be made in the dam about one-third the distance over from the York county shore. It is to be 40 feet in width at the lower edge of the dam, and will extend up the river a distance of sixty feet, narrowing to twenty feet in width at the THE ALTERATION IN THE COLUMBIA DAM. feet, narrowing to twenty feet in width at the upper end, and will extend thirty feet up stream from the upper edge of the dam. The sides will be formed of framed timber, twelve sides will be formed of framed timber, twelve feet wide each, and filled in with stone. The bottom of the sluice will have an inclination of five feet in the whole distance of sixty feet. The upper end will be twelve inches lower than the comb of the dam. It is intended to put in at the head of the sluice a breakwater crib, in the form of the letter V. The sluice will be completed by 1st of November.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

The Jersey City Times has the following. A gentleman just from Washington informs us that he knows that the following is a part of what Gen. Phil. Sheridan did send in his dispatch to the authorities at Washington in reference to the riot at New orleans. He says Gen. Sheridan used substantially the following language:

"This is one of the greatest outrages that ever occurred in any country. I refuse to obey the orders of any "Confederate., I tender my resignation, and shall keep New Orleans under martial law until further advisor."

obey the orders of any "Confederate., I tender my resignation, and shall keep New Orleans under martial law until further advices."

If that is what Gen. Sheridan sent and it sounds just like what he would send, it is no wonder that his dispatches were mutilated or suppressed. We make this statement on the authority of our informant, whose name is at the service of the officials if they want it. Let them now publish Gen. Sheridan's official dispatches.

THE Knoxville Whig fires the following center shot:

WHAT IS DIGNITY? The rebel newspapers of the country think that Governor Brownlow displayed a great want of dignity in sending a dispatch to Colonel Forney, giving his respects to the 'dead dog at the White House.'

It was dignity in the President to oppose the nomination and election of the Governor on the ground that he had always been a member of the Whig party. It was dignity in the President to seek by letterwriting, and by the use of patronage, to defeat the passage of the Constitutional Amendment and to break up the Legislature. It was and to break up the Legislature. It was dignity in the President, in a drunken harangue on the 22d of February, to denounce Sanators and President. angue on the 22d of February, to denounce Senators and Representatives by name as traitors. It was dignity in the President to get beastly drauk in his inauguration, and boast of his greatness in the presence of Congressmen and Foreign Ministers. Is this man heid up as an example of dignity by his new born dignity party? The Governor does not belong to that school of dignity.

Gen. L. H. Rosseau, it is said, will not return to Louisville. He is done for as a politician in Kentucky. He thought he was working with Andy Johnson, but the Kentucky Democracy will stoop to touch no man who fought in the Union army.
