ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE!

The Republicans of this coun ty will see the necessity of organizing at once. Do not delay another day, yea, not another hour! Let every man be seen and his sentiments ascertained. Bedford county can be carried against the Copperheads, if the friends of freedom and opponents of rebels do their duty. Go to work! GO TO WORK! A word to the wise is sufficient !

EQUALITY FOR WHITE MEN.

The cry of "Negro Equality" is echoed and re-echoed from every corner of the land against the Union Party though its record, as it stands in the proposed Constitutional amendment, shows it to be ready and willing to incorporate into the Constitution an amendment which accords to each State the right of regulating for itself the question of suffrage. But this does not satisfy Copperheads and rebels. The same amendment proposes to put white men on an equality throughout the length and breadth of the land and for this it is bitterly opposed by every copperhead, rebel and copper-Johnson in the land. A Southern slave driver before the rebellion possessed about twice as much power in the Government as a Northern white man by reason of the three-fifths representation of the negroes and now Northern doughfaces and copperheads combine with Southern rebels to demand for these same slave drivers each about three white man. It is for this purpose that Andrew Johnson and his copperhead, rebel, and bread and butter followers not only bit terly oppose the amendments but actually threaten a revolution unless the Southern States are admitted and this increased power accorded to red handed rebels. Equality for white men is the motto of the Union party. Let copperheads and rebels cease their cry of "Negro Equality" until they are willing to acknowledge, that rebels and traitors are no better than loval Northern white men, by adopting the Constitutional Amendments. The Union party is ready to admit the rebel States and place their people on an equality with loyal men, but it is not willing nor will it ever be to place increased power in the hands of the rebels and thus reward instead of punish them for trea-

RISE IN PRICE OF REBEL BONDS. HARD ON SNYDER. In another column will be found a telegram from London of the 31st ultimo, an uncing the fact that the news of the action of the Philadelphia 14th of August Convenion had resulted in a material advance in the value of Rebel Bonds. Loyal men everywhere have contended that the action of the President in concert with rebels and opperheads was leading directly to the assumption of the rebel debt. This prediction s now further verified by the fact that European financiers put the same interpretation upon "My Policy" and accordingly have began to buy up the boxds of the defunct Confederacy in the confident expectation that they will be paid by the United States if Andrew Johnson's policy of recon- drels is without a parallel, when they attempt struction is adopted. Tax-payers what think you of this action of European financiers. If you wish to pay the rebel debt vote the Copper-Johnson-Reconstruction ticket by all within the next two years.

The Copperheads Demand Thirty Additional Members of Congress for the South, and Southern rebels, at Ennacepma, demands thirty additional members of Congress for the Southern States. This is the juestion to be settled at the ballot-box! NORTH CANNOT ACCEPT. COMPENSATION FOR THEIR SLAVES.

One of the principal incentives which has actuated the Secessionists to enter into an alliance with the Copperheads and Johnonites of the North is the desire to establish a party that will eventually, if successful, give them compensation for their slaves. Fellow citizens, are you ready to assist in the establishment of a party that will ask you, yea you, to pay for 4,000,000 of Slaves? If you do, vote the Copperhead ticket !

Much interesting matter is unavoid ably crowded out of our columns this week to make room for the report of the Union meeting on Tuesday evening, and the speech of Hon. Thaddeus Stevens, which we have no doubt will be more interesting to our readers than anything else we could lay before them. Comments on Monday as well as Tuesday evening's meeting will appear in next week's paper.

a communication in that delectable sheet the Bedford Gazette, over the signature of J. Snyder, of this city, a copy of which somehow strayed into this community, was handed around among loyal men as a laughable curiosity. The brazen-faced impudence of those Northern doughfaced, copperhead, sympathizers with treason, who in their very hearts wished the traitors of the South to ucceed in their efforts to break up this government, but were too cowardly to come out and shoulder their guns and go to the assistance of their Southern brethren, we say the brazen-faced impudence of these scoun-

to stigmatize, as disunionists, the very me who crushed out that wicked rebellion and whipped their traitorous brethren into submission. Who ever heard of Ben. Myers means and you will have your taxes doubled or his beautiful party, either by word or deed, while that accursed rebellion was raging, trying to uphold the government, while in its almost death struggle for its very existence?

Had it not been for such cowardly sympathizers remaining at home, discouraging enlistthe way of the government, the revenues, would not have lasted half so long, and conequently not half the number of lives lost or half the amount of money expended. But to those correspondents. We say correspondents, because there were two of those bean tifal birds who had a foot in that dirty mess. If I believed that J. Snyder, the pretended anthor of that communication was as well known in your town as he is in this, it would not be necessary for me to state that he is an ignoramus, and could not write a single sentence correctly, if it were to save his neck. He is blessed with just about as much brains as is necessary to make a good copperhead rebel sympathizer, and that requires about as much as would fill the eye of a cam bric needle, provided it is not drilled out too large. Therefore you can rest assured that Jake is not the author of that article. But the true author of that article is a bird which I have understood Uncle Sam captured sometime during the rebellion, and kept caged for a considerable time in one of his forts. And this, probably causes the gentleman to think that he has a right to call some body disunionist, as he was under arms during that time. This pettifogger would have practised law in Alleghany county Court for the last year or two, if he could have found some person green enough to employ him. But failing at that bar, we must give him credit for displaying considerable energy, for if all reports be true, he has succeeded in building up a fine practice at Jake's bar, with whom he also boards. And this probably may account for his writing those articles and allowing Jake to publish them over his signature. This might be a sly way of liquidating a hotel bill, and as Jake appears to delight in seeing his name in print, such an arrangement may be satisfactory. He certainly should be well paid, for I have no doubt the job appeared perfect to the eyes of Jake, as it contained as many falsehoods as any one could well cram into so small a space.

I have perused this last article, which appears in the issue of the 2dth inst, corofully, and have not been tole to find a single statement correct. But I do not wish to consume your space in noticing more falsehoods, only so far as they relate relate to the declarations of your honored fellow-citizen, Mr. John Cessna, of whom you may well be proud for he is a credit to your county, and an honor to the old Keystone state. Would to God that we

About forty whites and blacks were thus killed, and about one hun-dred and sixty wounded. Everything is now dred and sixty wounded. I recommend the removing this bad man. I believe it would be hail with the sincerest gratification by two thirds of the population of the city. There has been a feeling of insecurity on the part of the people here on account of this man, which is now so much increased that the when is now so much indicated that the safety of life and property does not rest with the civil authority, but the military. As far as can be ascertained, the following are the facts in this outrageous affair. A white camp meeting attended by many min-isters of the M. E. We would infinitely prefer to acture them their arms and fight them in indinght, whilst the colored people were conducting their religious exercises, they were suddenly set upon by a gang of men making loud shouts of epithets and impre-cations. The attack commenced with the beating of a negroe while on his knees. ## NATIONAL HUMILIATION.

From the day that Andrew Johnson took his seat as Vice President of the United States, to the present moment he seems to have improved every opportunity to belittle himself and disgrace the position he holds, by either bacchanalian revels, or the retailing of vile slang in partisan speeches. No prominent public man in the nation, much ess a President or Vice President, has ever in our country's history, been guilty of so many disgraceful and unbecoming acts. From his drunken idiocy on the day of his inauguration his public life has been almost an unbroken succession of acts the very remembrance of which brings the blush of shame to the cheek of every one in whose besoms burns a single spark of patriotic national pride. His persisent and continu ed abuse and vituperation of a co-ordinate and superior branch of the national Govern ment is upparalled in the history of constitutional Governments. His unblushing and disgusting egotism has been a source of constant mortification to his friends and brought upon him the merited contempt of the civilized world. His stooping to blackguard private citizens was thought to be lowest depth to which drunken recklessness could drag him down, but a lower depth has been found, a deeper humiliation has been reserved for the nation. Hitherto these disgusting exhibitions have been circumscri bed within the limits of Washington City but now, forgetful of the dignity of his high position, the President of the United States, for the first time in our history, and we fervently hope the last, has started on a tour, ostensibly to pay a tribute to the memory of the lamented Douglass, but, in reality on an electioneering tour in which his incoherent vilification and abuse is heaped on all who happen to dissent from "My Policy" at every railroad station on the route. Blush thou O America and bow thy proud head in shame that he in whom thy peope trusted and raised so high should fall so low. It is treason that has brought him low. ## CRANT AND FARRAGUT.

It will be seen by our dispatches this morning, that Admiral Farragut, the gallant old tar who took New Orleans and run the rebel batteries of Port Hudson and Mobile, is ashamed of the bad company he is com pelled to keep. In his speech at Delmoni co's, he took pains to state distinctly that he was "invited to accompany the President to the West," and that he was "taught in that good old school where an invitation from his Commander-in-Chief was always a pleasant duty to perform." In other words the invitation of the Admiral's superior officer was regarded as a command, and he has become so ashamed of his company, since Johnson turned the journey into a rebel electioneer ing tour, that he feels it necessary to dis claim all responsibility for the disgraceful exhibition, of which he forms an unwilling and involuntary part. He ovidently fears that even his reputation for loyalty will suffer before the country, unless he washes his hands of the treasonable sentiments proclaimed by Johnson. General Grant intimates very plainly in his brief speech, that it was agreed and understood before the party left Washington that the President was not to make any speeches. Of course the Fresident would keep no such promise, particularly after partaking of Delmonico's wine; and it became necessary for General Grant to throw out this broad hint, that in making stump speeches for the rebels, the President was acting in bad faith, and that but for the agreement to keep still, he would not have accompanied him. The attempt to drag General Grant and Admiral Farragut into the support of the rebel cause, under the guise of a pleasure excursion, will not ceed just yet. - Chicago Tribune.

Extra Session of the New Jersey Legislature.

Extra Session of the New Jersey Legis. TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 30. Governor Marcus L. Ward has this day issued a proclamation convening the Legis hure of New Jersey at Trenton, on Mon-day, September 10, for the purpose of rati-fying the constitutional amendment, and filling the existing Senatorial vacancy. To this the Chambersburg Repository re-freshed, he might have added that the ma-tion sees a man hanging on the verge of the government, who was elected to the Vice Presidency by but a 'part of the States' and was fung into the Presidency by one J. Wilkes Booth. Owing his place and power to but a single constituent, the has been singularly faithful to the principles of the assassin who clothed him with honor."

HUMILIATION AND DEGRADATION.

SENATOR DIXON said in his speech at the Connecticut Convention, to elect delegates to the Randall Philadelphia Assembly: "The plan proposed by Congress is before you. It proceeds upon the ground of com-pelling the States lately in rebellion to submit oners, and others who were prisoners, and o humiliating and degrading terms." What are those terms? First, that they shall not have gained political power in the Government by the rebellion. Second, that those who violated their oaths to the Con-stitution shall not be eligible to office until Comment of the second of the secon yard of the building whither some of the colored men had escaped, and partially se-Congress removes the disability

Those are the conditions which Mr. Dixon calls humiliating and degrading. We ask any honest and manly ex-rebel if he thinks so? We ask him if he would not consider the Government humiliated if, after it ha foiled his effort to destroy it, it should invite him to increased power in it; or if he would think himself degraded after he had violated his oath-however his conscience may have justified him—if those whom that violation had brought to untold suffering and loss should hold him ineligible to office until they saw that all danger had passed? Mr Dixon merely follows the lead of the Copperhead chiefs in telling the late insur-gents that Congress means to humiliate and degrade them; assuring them that there is a party at the north which will support that view, and urging them to hold out, and re-fuse to enter Congress unless they can come with more power than those who have not rebelled. And this incitement to the late s of the loyal people Mr. Dixon cal tative think that calling vinegar honey makes it honey?-Harpers Weekly.
