Friends, who are in arrears on our books for advertising, job work and subscriptions will confer a great favor by paying up your arrearages. WE NEED MONEY VERY BADLY. We pay cash for every thing that we buy: our paper bill is now one hundred and fifty dollars, cash, per month. This is only one item while we have to pay our hands, rents, taxes, and maintain ourselves. We hope that this appeal will not be in vain; if we were not hard up we would not ask you to come to our relief, but we are, there is no doubt about it.

The Republican meeting at Centerville will be held in the afternoon of Tuesday, Oct. 24, instead of the evening.

Our readers in the eastern portion of the county will not forget the Mass Meeting to be held at Bloody Run, on next Saturday afternoon, the 23rd inst. We predict this will be one of the finest meetings of the series. Turn out! Turn out!

Rev. S. Yingling, former pastor of the Lutheran congregation in this place, will preach in the Lutheran Church, on Sabbath morning next at half past ten o'clock.

AZARIAH BLACKBURN, Guardian,

"THE CAMP, THE BATTLE-FIELD" and "THE HOME" is the title of a handsome volume, just issued by the National Publishing Company, 507 Minor Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The author has delved most industriously amongst the masses of curious incidents which have marked the late war, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, and will not get embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos, of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author, Dr. L. P. Brackett, has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 100 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, scout, bivouac, siege and battle-field adventures; thrilling facts of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully in this work of literary art.

Be on the Alert! Danger is at Hand.

This has been a sickly season. The medical faculty prophesied evil in the future. They think pestilence is on the wing for America. Suppose this to be true, what is the best defense against it? REDUCED NERVOUS VIGOR. This is the only protection against PANIC, as well as against the PRINCIPLE OF INFECTIO. Why do not those who predict the epidemic propose an adequate preventative? There is one, a tonic, nerve and a stimulant, competent to shield the system against the subtle elements of disease, whether they float higher on the winds from distant lands, or rise like vapor from our own soil, or are incorporated with the universal fluid. This ONE PREVENTIVE, of which there is no duplicate among the compounds either of the Old World or the New, is

HOSSTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Remember that it is a specific for all the complaints which the system open to visitations of deadly dyspepsia. If you are dyspeptic, it renews the vigor of your digestive powers, gives you appetite, and restores your cheerfulness. If you are nervous, it invigorates every fibre of your nervous system, from the base of the brain, where it begins, to the extremities, where it terminates. If you are bilious, it dispenses your unruly liver and kidneys into the general circulation, in harmony with the laws of health. It is, in short, an invigorant and alternative so powerful that Nature, with Hosster's Bitters for her ally, may bid defiance alike to native malaria and foreign infection. If this enemy we hate, of this disease which is decimating Europe, is really bound hitherward, it behoves the prudent to put on their armor, to clothe themselves with invulnerability as far as human means will permit, by preparing the system for resistance with this pure vegetable antidote.

"MY POLICY"

A SOUTHERN EXPOSITION OF IT.

Congress to be Expelled by the Bayonet.

New Orleans to be Repeated in Washington

[From the Raleigh (N. C.) Progress, Aug. 14.]

The next session of Congress will bring about the crisis. If it accumulates, as in the last session, as a radical Congress, as a revolutionary body, as a body that will usurp the impeachment of the President may be looked for as the sensation of the session. What is there within its own corrupt and lawless essence to restrain that assemblage of fanatics and demagogues from any extremity of folly and dissipation? With the same recklessness of right and reason with which they ejected from their seats members whose presence there was distasteful or inconvenient to them, they will seek to eject their Chief Magistrate from his seat and install one of their faction, invested with an usurped Executive authority, as Dictator, or rather as a plain instrument of their revolutionary legislation. If that should come to pass the whole fabric of our political system would be shaken to the centre, and again the terrible agencies of brute force would sweep the destinies of the Republic. It would then be necessary to clear the Capitol of the incendiaries at the point of the bayonet even as the Mechanics Hall at New Orleans was cleared of the lawless Conventions by the states and revolvers of the police. We hope the country will not be compelled to measure the relative strength of its radical and conservative elements by any other test than that of the bayonet but rather, especially when clothed with usurpation, is especially without its opportunity to provoke riot in defense of the popular desire for order and tranquility.

The only way to insure peace is to break up the radical monopoly of Congress. We do not do this by a vote of censure, an "assassination" Congress therefore not legal. Its supporters and friends call it a "rump Congress," a "usurping Congress," therefore not a lawful Congress, and they are trying to elect Congressmen in the North, and admit enough from the rebel States to enforce this "Policy."

If a Congress of twenty-three States is not a lawful Congress, every United States Bond you own is not worth a dollar, because an unlawful Congress could not make a lawful Bondholder, remember, this "Policy" does not mean a "United States" Bond, and makes them as worthless as rebel Bonds.

If "Johnson's Policy" succeeds, it brings into Congress ninety-four Congressmen from the rebel States, instead of eighty-five—before the war—thus they gain nine Congressmen by their treason. The Northern States lose nine Congressmen by their victory over treason.

If the rebels get their ninety-four Congressmen, and the Johnson "Policy" men elect enough in the North to give them a majority, United States Bonds will be held illegal, and United States Bondholders will lose principal and interest.

If you want to prove Congress legal, and if you want to prove Johnson illegal, attend to the Bonds of the United States, and make them as worthless as rebel Bonds.

If "Johnson's Policy" succeeds, it brings into Congress ninety-four Congressmen from the rebel States, instead of eighty-five—before the war—thus they gain nine Congressmen by their treason. The Northern States lose nine Congressmen by their victory over treason.

GRANT AND FARRAGUT.

Favor the Policy of Congress—Accompany the President by Express Instructions.

New York, Sept. 14.

Special to the Tribune, dated Columbus, Ohio, September 13th, says: "In conversation with Governor Cox, last evening, General Grant and Admiral Farragut declared their disapproval of the President's policy, and commended that of Congress. Both gentlemen say substantially that they endorsed if they venture to usurp the Executive authority by impeachment, through the doors of the Capitol closed against the Representatives of the Southern States and people. Let them get rid of their monopoly or it will crush them yet. They tried the experiment at New Orleans, the result of which should teach them some discretion at Washington.

GRANT ON CLYMER.

While General Grant was in Philadelphia with the President, en route to Chicago, a broad and butternut of that city, who claimed to be a soldier, accosted him in the Continental Hotel, and introduced the subject of Pennsylvania State politics. Said the fellow to him: "We are having a very warm canvass for Governor in this State."

"So I hear," replied Grant.

"We are very sanguine of beating General Geary and electing Mr. Clymer by a handsome majority," continued the butternut.

"What makes you feel so confident?" asked the General.

"Because," said the Johnsonite, "we count on getting the larger part of the soldiers' vote for Clymer."

"I think you will be mistaken in that. Clymer is a Copperhead, and the soldier who votes for him will disgrace himself and the flag he fought under," was the General's reply, as he turned on his heel and walked away.

General Grant makes no secret of his desire that the gallant General Geary shall be elected Governor of Pennsylvania.—Chicago Tribune.

"I AM GLAD OF IT."

In his Niagara Falls speech, Johnson, for the thousandth time, paraded the list of offices he had held. Beginning with his rise from the "goose" to a village Alderman, he thus "swung round the circle" to the Presidency:

"I have always had an exalted idea of the position of Senator; but notwithstanding I was placed upon the ticket for the Vice Presidency, I am free to admit that I did not seek the place. But friends of the country, friends that were personal to me, were anxious that I should be on the ticket. I was placed there. I accepted it; the race was run, the victory was obtained, and I was made Vice President of the United States. At my graduation comes along regularly! And, then by the Constitution of the country, I have been made President. I am glad of it."

Glad of what? Why, glad that Abraham Lincoln was assassinated by a Copperhead so that he could become President. No other fair construction can be placed on his language. He was made president, he says, by the Constitution, and he is glad of it! If Lincoln had not been murdered by one of his present party he would not be President by the constitution, and Johnson would be sorry for it.

This is the first time the infamous wretch has publicly avowed his joy and gladness over the murder of President Lincoln. He had been drinking freely all the way from Albany to the Falls, and was just drunk enough to "let the cat out of the bag."

When wine is in wit is out. When a man is filled with liquor up to a certain point he loses his discretion and speaks freely and boastfully of whatever is uppermost in his thoughts. Johnson had just that stock of high wine on hand that made him feel glorious and great. He had risen from village Alderman to Vice-President, by the votes of the people, and a happy murder had made vacant the Executive chair and he was glad of it, as it enabled him to climb to the top round of the ladder. He was Vice-President by the votes of the Republicans, and has been made President by the pistol of his Copperhead friend Booth, and he was glad of it.—Chicago Tribune.

RATS FORSAKE THE SINKING SHIP.

The Contest given up.

The Congressional Policy Sustained.

The New York Herald of September the 11th, which has heretofore been an ardent supporter of the President's Policy, speaks thus of the result in Maine:

"The general result of the Maine election are very decisive and very significant. They are startling and incomprehensible to the conservatives and indicate a popular ground wholly unexpected by the radicals themselves. It is manifest to us that this remarkable election turned more upon the exciting political events of the day, North and South, than upon the exact political issues presented between the Southern restoration policy of President Johnson and the reconstruction policy of Congress. Extraordinary results are generally due to extraordinary causes. Had the Republicans simply, for example, followed their standing majority in Maine, the result could have been explained by the simple statement that the battle was fought between the Union party of the war and the old Copperhead Peace Democracy. But the enormous gain of the Republicans vote throughout the State requires a larger explanation."

After endeavoring to find a plausible excuse for the overwhelming result it concludes thus:

"Whatever may have been the real causes, however operating to bring about the extraordinary result of this Maine election, it is too decisive against the Democracy and conservatives to be limited to Maine. WE ARE PREPARED TO ASSESS IN ALL OUR POLITICAL CONTESTS OF THE PAST OF A NATIONAL CHARACTER, THE RESULT IN MAINE, INDICATES THE GENERAL DIRECTION OF THE ELECTIONS COMING AFTER IT THROUGHOUT THE NORTHERN STATES. The prospect now of a conservative majority in the next Congress is very doubtful; the prospect of another radical Congress is better than has appeared at any time since December last. IN SHORT, THIS MAINE ELECTION OF 1866 WILL PROBABLY MARK ANOTHER NEW CHAPTER IN OUR POLITICAL HISTORY, AND PERHAPS ANOTHER REORGANIZATION OF PARTIES, AND ANOTHER RECONSTRUCTION OF PLATFORMS FOR THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION, BEGINNING WITH THE CLOSE OF THE COMING ELECTIONS OF OCTOBER AND NOVEMBER."

When we remember that a few days ago the Herald was their particular foul mouth-piece in their denunciation of the cause is peculiarly significant. A few more "Earthquakes" are in prospect!

STARTING CONTEMPLATING A RENEWAL OF THE REBELLION.

Secret Meetings, Preparations, Etc.

[From the Chicago Journal.]

A private letter from a loyal citizen of New Orleans, addressed to a gentleman of this city, makes some startling revelations as to the plan of the "reconstructed" rebels of the South. The writer is a gentleman of undoubted character. The intelligence contained in this letter reveals the effect upon the minds of the ex-rebels of the South of such revolutionary speeches as that made by General McClelland at the Illinois copperhead State Convention, and those being made by Andrew Johnson in his stumping tour through the North.

"NEW ORLEANS, LA., Sept. 1, 1866.—I presume that you are aware that the rebels are making every preparation for the renewal of their rebellion. They are organizing themselves that the fall elections will go overwhelmingly against them, and they have organized and armed themselves for the eventuality. In fact, I saw an advertisement in one of the papers in New Orleans, publishing this city, notifying the K. G. C.'s to meet at the 'Age,' for the transaction of business. All of their officers are appointed, and I am informed that there is a General actually in command of the 'rebel' department of the Louisiana. If there is any man in this city who is a southern loyalist will be massacred, unless they succeed in making their escape, and many may consider themselves doomed men, and can thank 'my policy' for it."

A dispatch dated New Orleans, the 6th, says: "Three thousand additional troops have been ordered to this city from Texas, and are hourly expected to arrive."

"The report of the military commission will be forwarded to-morrow to Washington by Gen. Sheridan. It is understood on good authority that the report will specify that a great number of men from the Rebel States, in the city of New Orleans, were brought from Mississippi, and appointed on the police for the express purpose of assisting in the massacre of the Unionists of this city."

"Great indignation prevails at the present in New Orleans among the loyal men at the suppression of General Baird's official report."

FACTS FOR GOVERNMENT BOND-HOLDERS.

Read and Reflect—Then sell your Bonds—or buy more!

In 1861 eleven States seceded; and twenty-three only, since that time, have been repeated in Congress.

All the United States Bonds—5-20's, 7-30's and 10-40's—were created by this Congress of twenty-three States.

But a few months since the seceding States, on the part of Mr. Johnson, but in behalf of the general interests and security we call upon him to see that the Republic, and the whole Republic, be fairly and fully represented at the next Congressional session. He will need there the conservative vote of the South to protect him from impeachment. And not alone for the safety and welfare of the country, but in mercy to the desperate men that are plotting to depose him, we would have their absolutism in Congress cancelled at the threshold of the next session. For assuredly their very lives will be endangered if they venture to usurp the Executive authority by impeachment, through the doors of the Capitol closed against the Representatives of the Southern States and people. Let them get rid of their monopoly or it will crush them yet. They tried the experiment at New Orleans, the result of which should teach them some discretion at Washington.

THE DESERTER LAW.

We would call especial attention to the following provisions of the Disfranchising act now being reported to and published in their Election Proclamation:

WHEREAS, By the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled, "An act to amend the several acts heretofore passed to provide for the enrolling and calling out the national forces, and for other purposes," and approved March third, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, all persons who have deserted the military or naval service of the United States, and who have not been discharged or relieved from the penalty or disability therein provided, are deemed and taken to have voluntarily relinquished and forfeited their rights of citizenship and their rights to become citizens, and are deprived of exercising any rights of citizens thereof; and

WHEREAS, Persons not citizens of the United States are not, under the constitution and laws of the United States, qualified electors of its Commonweal;

SECTION 1. Be it enacted, etc., THAT IN ALL ELECTIONS HEREAFTER TO BE HELD IN THIS COMMONWEALTH, IT SHALL BE UNLAWFUL FOR THE JUDGE OR INSPECTOR OF ANY SUCH ELECTION TO RECEIVE ANY BALLOT OR BALLOTS, FROM ANY PERSON OR PERSONS EMBRACED IN THE PROVISIONS AND SUBJECT TO THE DISQUALIFYING LAWS BY SAID ACT OF CONGRESS APPROVED MARCH THIRD, ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FIVE AND IT SHALL BE UNLAWFUL FOR ANY SUCH PERSON TO OFFER TO VOTE ANY BALLOT OR BALLOTS.

SECTION 2. THAT ANY PERSON RECEIVING ANY BALLOT OR BALLOTS ON BEHALF OF ANY SUCH PERSON, OR OFFERING ANY BALLOT OR BALLOTS, SHALL BE DEEMED GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR AND UPON CONVICTION THEREOF IN ANY COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH SHALL BE SENTENCED TO PAY A FINE OF NOT LESS THAN ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS, AND TO UNDERGO AN IMPRISONMENT IN THE JAIL OF THE PROPER COUNTY FOR NOT LESS THAN SIXTY DAYS.

SECTION 3. THAT ANY PERSON DEPRIVED OF CITIZENSHIP, AND DISQUALIFIED AS AFORESAID, SHALL, AT ANY ELECTION HEREAFTER TO BE HELD IN THIS COMMONWEALTH, BE HELD TO BE RESPONSIBLE TO THE OFFICERS THEREOF, AND OFFER TO VOTE, A BALLOT OR BALLOTS, ANY PERSON SO OFFENDING SHALL BE DEEMED GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR AND UPON CONVICTION THEREOF, IN ANY COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH, SHALL BE PUNISHED IN LIKE MANNER AS IS PROVIDED IN THE PRECEDING SECTION OF THIS ACT IN THE CASE OF OFFICERS RECEIVING SUCH UNLAWFUL BALLOT OR BALLOTS.

SECTION 4. THAT IF ANY PERSON SHALL PERSUADE OR ADVISE ANY PERSON OR PERSONS, DEPRIVED OF CITIZENSHIP AND DISQUALIFIED AS AFORESAID, TO OFFER ANY BALLOT OR BALLOTS TO THE OFFICERS OF ANY ELECTION HEREAFTER TO BE HELD IN THIS COMMONWEALTH, OR SHALL PERSUADE OR ADVISE ANY SUCH PERSON OR PERSONS TO RECEIVE ANY SUCH BALLOT OR BALLOTS FROM ANY PERSON DEPRIVED OF CITIZENSHIP, SUCH PERSON SO OFFENDING SHALL BE GUILTY OF A MISDEMEANOR, AND UPON CONVICTION THEREOF IN ANY COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS OF THIS COMMONWEALTH, SHALL BE PUNISHED IN LIKE MANNER AS IS PROVIDED IN THE SECOND SECTION OF THIS ACT IN THE CASE OF OFFICERS RECEIVING SUCH UNLAWFUL BALLOT OR BALLOTS.

GENERAL GRANT DISGUSTED.

The New York Herald's Chicago correspondent telegraphs as follows:

"It is reported that General Grant has said:—'I am disgusted with this trip. I am disgusted at hearing a man make speeches on the way to his own funeral.'"

It is reported that this was said in the presence of a clerk at the employ of General Grant's brother, in the city of New Orleans, and was intended to express his disgust at the relations between the President and General Grant are not of an entirely harmonious character, although the General passes most of his time in other than the Presidential camp when traveling.

MORRISON HOUSE,
HUNTINGDON, PA.

I have purchased and skilfully renovated the large stone and brick building opposite the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot, and have now opened it for the accommodation of the travelling public. The Carrets, Furnitures, Beds and Bedding are all entirely new and first class, and I am safe in saying that I can offer accommodations not excelling in Central Pennsylvania.

I refer to my public notices, and to my many testimonials while in charge of the Broad Top City Hotel and Jackson House.

ADVERTISING.

Friends, who are in arrears on our books for advertising, job work and subscriptions will confer a great favor by paying up your arrearages. WE NEED MONEY VERY BADLY. We pay cash for every thing that we buy: our paper bill is now one hundred and fifty dollars, cash, per month. This is only one item while we have to pay our hands, rents, taxes, and maintain ourselves. We hope that this appeal will not be in vain; if we were not hard up we would not ask you to come to our relief, but we are, there is no doubt about it.

The Republican meeting at Centerville will be held in the afternoon of Tuesday, Oct. 24, instead of the evening.

Our readers in the eastern portion of the county will not forget the Mass Meeting to be held at Bloody Run, on next Saturday afternoon, the 23rd inst. We predict this will be one of the finest meetings of the series. Turn out! Turn out!

Rev. S. Yingling, former pastor of the Lutheran congregation in this place, will preach in the Lutheran Church, on Sabbath morning next at half past ten o'clock.

BOUNTIES.—The act equalizing bounties has become a law. Persons who enlisted in 1861-2, and who were only entitled to, and received $100, are now entitled to another $100 in addition. The heirs of all deceased soldiers of this class are entitled to $100. All applications to DURNBORG & LUTZ, Bedford, will be promptly attended to.

WANTED!

Wanted—AGENTS—$75 to $200 per month for gentlemen, and $35 to $75 for ladies, everywhere, to introduce the Common Sense Family Sewing-Machine, improved and perfected. It will hem, fell, stitch, quilt, wind, and cut, and broder beautifully—price only $26—making the elastic lock, and fully warranted for three years.

We pay the above wages, or a commission, from which twice that amount can be made. Address or call on C. BOWERS & CO., Office No. 253 South Fifth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. All letters answered promptly, with circulars and terms.

SOLDIERS' BOUNTIES.

The undersigned has the blanks now ready and will attend promptly to the collection of all claims under the new law for the equalization of bounties.
