Bloody Run Mass Meeting.

The opening of the campaign by the Union party, in this county, on Saturday last, at Bloody Run, was a splendid success. The day was clear and bright, an augury of bright political skies, and of the success that must attend our cause. The delegation from Bedford, as it entered the town with banners proudly floating, the Union Brass Band playing patriotic airs, and in the midst a veritable Coon, alive and wide awake recalling the days of '40, was greeted with enthusiastic cheers. The meeting was organized by the election of the following officers: President, Lewis Koons. Esq. Vice Presidents ; Jacob Barndollar, John Sparks, Edmund Trimbath, David Foor, Capt. Josiah Hissong, Dr. J. A. Mann, Joseph Fisher, Esq., H. C. Penrod. Capt. J. C. Hawman, Wm. H. Weisel and John L. Grove. Secretaries; Lieut. W. W. Sparks, C. C. Garlick, Lieut. W. P. Barn dollar and Thomas Farber. The issues of the day were ably discussed by J. H. Longanecker, Esq., M. A. Points, Esq., Hon. John Cessna, J. B. Cessna, Esq., Hon. G. W. Householder and Rev. J. Gogley. The speeches were listened to with intense interest and frequently interrupted with roars of applause. Republicans from Snake Spring, Monroe and the two Providences were on hand by hundreds, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed throughout the vast audience during the entire afternoon. The whole affair passed off splendidly and to the entire satisfaction of all participants except a few copperheads present, who turned away with elongated countenances, as they witnessed this first grand demonstration of the campaign, convinced that a trip to the head waters of Salt River was a fixed fact in the Copper-johnson programme for October.

Be on the Alert! Danger is at Hand.

This has been a sickly season. The medical faculty prophesy evil in the future. They think pestilence is on the wing for America. Suppose this to be true, what is the best defense against it? REDOUBLED NERVOUS VIGOR. This is the only protection against PANIC, as well as against the PRINCIPLE OF INFECTION. Why do not those who predict the epidemie proose an adequate preventative? There Is one; the system against the subtle elements of disease. whether they float hither on the winds from distant lands, or rise like vapor from our own soil, ONE PREVENTIVE, of which there is no duicate among the compounds either of the Old World or the New, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Remember that it is a specific for all the com laints which lay the system open to visitations of deadly epidemies. If you are dyspeptic, it renews the vigor of your digestive powers, gives you are nervous, it invigorates every fibre of your nervous system, from the base of the brain, where it begins, to the extremities, where it terminates If you are bilious, it disciplines your unruly liver and brings the action of that organ into harmony with the laws of health. It is, in short, an invigprant and alterative so powerful that Nature, with this enemy we hear of, this disease which is desc lating Europe, is really bound hitherward, it bebooves the prudent to put on their armor, to clothe themselves with invulnerability as far as human means will permit, by preparing the system for esistance with this pure vegetable antidote.

"Congress is, truly, already insane. The conduct of that body would have made a Secessionist of Job, if he had been a slaveholder."—Gazette, April 18, 1862. Speaking of the Draft he said :

In speaking of the Provost Marshall Myers said:

In the speech of Heister Clymer at Un ontown, as reported for the Pittsburgh Post, the Democratic Organ of Alleghany county, Pa., we find the following passage

"By the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Johnson became President of the United States. If, under his administration, harmony should come again to the land, who will not see in THE AUSPICIOUS EVENT the spirit of God moving over the troubled waters.

"I AM GLAD OF IT." In his speech at Niagra Falls, President ohnson said:

"I have always had an exalted idea of the position of Senator; but notwithstanding I was placed upon the ticket for the Vice Presidency, I am free to say that I made Vice President of the United States. Can't you see the graduation comes along regularly? And, then by the Constitution of the country, I have been made President. I am glad of it."

COLLAPSE OF THE COPPER-JOHNSON COALITION.

The President, admonished by the defection of Raymond, Weed, Bennett, Beecher, &c., and the overwhelming rebuke of "My Policy" evidently pending over the whole country, has actually been frightened into terms and has industriously set himself to work opening up communication with the Southern Governors with a view to the adoption of the Constitutional amendments.

Andrew Johnson defends his present ourse by asserting that he stands where he did when elected Vice President, and that that I would not fight at all in the Republican party has left him and not such an unnatural war-that I he them. The following extracts from his speeches from 1861 to 1865 show how much truth there is in his assertions. Stevens is not more bitter and radical than Andy Johnson in the following:

"As Goes Pennsylvania so Goes the Union.

The Gubernatorial election in Pennsylvania will be all one way. Major Gen. Geary will undoubtedly be elected by a majority that will settle the question at issue in all the other loyal States, and revive the old proverb, "As goes Pennsylvania so goes the Union." Thousands of the supporters of President Johnson cannot conscientiously vote for Hiester Clymer, and the President himself cannot desire the defeat of such a candidate as Geary. The chief importance of the Pennsylvania election, therefore, is in its bearings upon the next Senatorship .-New York Herald, Sent. 17.

Progress of the Southern Loyalist ERIE, Pa., Sept. 20.

A part of the Southern Loyalist party arrived this morning and addressed a large meeting. Mr. Brownlow was very ill and ailed in an attempt to speak at the depot. He was so weak as to require assistance to stand and passed directly on to Cleveland. The rest of the party arrived this afternoon, and all passed on under charge of a recep-tion committee from Cleveland, headed by Mayor Chapin, at Conneaut, Ashtubla and Panesville. Large crowds greeted the loyalsts with cheers and bonfires.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 20. The train arrived in a pelting rain. The party was met by an immense crowd and escorted to the Hotel by bands of music, transparencies and a torch light procession, amid fire works and shouting. A meeting is arranged for to morrow, which promises to be a large one.

On the presidential journey, while speeches were going on at Niles, Michigan, the platform broke down, and Seward, Welles, and Postmaster-General Randall Doolittle, Grant and Farragut tumbled with it. The President was left standing on the very edge with the representative of the town who was addressive him. The only person scripping but hurt was did not seek the place. Four were instantly Killed and a large number wounded. The bushwackers drove the Union men out of the town, and four hundred rebels now hold possession of it. A Mr. Heath visited Platte City to get his brother's body, but was not allowed to take it away. They gave him a pass to get out of town through their picket lines.

The first shot was fired by a rebel constable upon a drunken unarmed Unionist. Members of the convention who had left, hearing the shooting, returned to Platte City, and while riding through the streets were fired upon from the windows of houses and saloons. Many horses were shot from under the delegates. Four men were killed and two we wounded. The extras caused great excitement here. Gov. Fletcher has been telegraphed to.
