ONE DAY TO YOUR COUN-

One of the first duties of the American citizen, is that of voting. The voice of the control of the General and State Governpeople as expressed by the majority at the ments, we may expect to hear Booth apballot box is the law of the land. It is at plauded as another Brutus that had rid his leader to the extent of his intelligence. the bailet box that we declare who shall make our laws and upon what measures or principles they shall be founded. How important then that every man who has an opinion, (and every man should have one,) on the great questions at issue, should go to the polls and give expression to it, and cast the weight of his ballot as well as his personal influence in favor of the enactment and administration of such laws as seem to him most likely to be conducive to the public welfare. We are in the midst of a fearful crisis. The President attempting to leaders of the party? usurp the legislative powers of Congress has placed himself in direct antagonism to the representatives of the people and is unscrupulously and unblushingly prostituting all the power and patronage of the Government in his control to corruption and bribery for the purpose of defeating the will of the loyal masses.' He and his satellites boldly declare that no Constitutional amendment nor any legislation affecting the lately rebellious States shall be passed without the participation and consent of those States. Thus for the first time in the history of this or any other nation, it is proposed to make conquered rebels the arbiters of their own punishment. When was it ever before proposed to place a criminal in the jury box or on the judge's stand to try his own case? Yet this is what President Johnson and his supporters propose to do in disposing of the question of reconstruction. But this is not papers, and Pomercy himself was recently all. The principles laid down in the platform of the address of the 14th of August Convention, would invalidate every act of Congress since the withdrawal of the South- of a large portion of the Copperbead party ern members in 1861. If such a policy is throughout the country and prudential consanctioned by the people, our national currency will be made worthless, our Government bonds mere waste paper, the glorious emancipation act null and void and our gallant soldiers, maimed and crippled in defence of the national life, will be made beggars ted after the "My Policy" style, have comwhile the widows and orphans of our saint- menced a new rebellion. ## CLYMER'S RECORD.

The record of Heister Clymer and his laims to the suffrages of the loyal men of Pennsylvania, as gathered from his political acts and associations may be set down as ollows :

He declared there was no Constitutional right to coerce a State.

He discouraged enlistments in the Union army. He denounced the conscription act as un-enstitutional.

He opposed every measure devised by the Government for the vigorous prosecution of the war for the preservation of our national integrity.

He opposed the extension of the elective franchise to the soldiers in the field. He encouraged deserters and bounty ause and thereby aided the rebels, prolong-

Who ever dreamed that Mr. Shannon had my modesty! This is about the hundredth etter of the kind that we have heard of. Mr. hannon asks everybody to vote for him, but we have every confidence that our people will augh him to scorn as he laughed the Union cause to scorn during the rebellion. If he is cally cast no complimentary votes for indi ridual friends, for this is not a contest ove nen. Every man on the Union Republican icket is competent and able to discharge the luties of the office tor which he is a candidate, and by his friumphant election we will est show our earnestness and sincerity for the overwhelming success of the Union cause.

A GREAT JOKER! Mr. Shannon Laughing

Record Away ! Mr. Shannon, in his peregrinations about the county, has hit upon, what he thinks to be, the happy expedient of laugh ing away his record. He rises before an audience with all the assurance of a polish ed demagogue, descants upon the merits of the "Nigger," speaks in glowing terms of his election, (in a horn) and then with a flourish proclaims his opponents to be disunionists, and to prove it, he seizes a poster circulated by the Republicans, containing xtracts from the record of Col. J. W. Tate B. F. Meyers and O. E. Shannon, himself reads his own assertions made in 1861, and endeavors to palm them off as the sentients of the editors of this paper. This Mr. Shannon considers a huge joke, and a very pleasant way of getting out of an unleasant difficulty. We know one instance in which the joke didn't take. If Mr. Shannon can gull the people in this way, we are very much mistaken. The 9th of October will satisfy him of that fact.

SUPPRESSING THE STARS AND STRIPES.

The Copperheads held a meeting at Rainsburg on the 1st inst., in which their old hatred of the Stars and Stripes, was nspicuously displayed. A National flag with the name of Gen. Geary inscribed was found suspended across the street from the house of a good Union citizen. If some treasonable device had polluted its folds it might have been tolerated, but because the name of one of Pennsylvania's bravest and most distinguished soldiers, was inseribed thereon, it was not to be endured. A committee therefore, waited upon the gentleman from whose premises it was suspend Sheriff's Proclamation for the holding of a ed and by threats of personal violence compelled him to take it down. In the melee which ensued. one of the young ladies was struck by one of the wretches, knocked down and badly hurt. THE LAST SWINDLE! The Copperheads frightened to death at the prospect of defeat, have resorted to the swin dle of transferring all the deserters from Re publican districts to Copperhead districts. If they did, the Board is liable to prosecution for receiving them!

This article was written a year ago, but the reasons which prompted it are fully as potent now as they were then. We ask every member of the Dunkard, Menonite and other non-resistent churches in this county to give it a careful perusal. If good wishes could have been effective, the past four years of fearful bloodshed, with all its attendant evils, would have been avoided; we must In the ordinary pursuits of life, we not only wish to have good mechanics to do our work, and good hands to labor on our arms, but we make an effort to secure them. We do not always succeed, but our failure does not discourage us, we try again. Because bad men often get into office is no reason why we should not try to put good men in their places; and we firmly believe if that large and influential class of our citi ens (who do not vote on account of conscien tious scruples) would lend their assistance, that a much greater number of honest men would be elected. No one will deny that civil government is of Divine origin. The Scriptures teach this doctrine most fully. The entire history of the Jewish dispensation is an illustration of this fact. Under the new dispensation we are brought to submit ourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake. We are told that our rulers are a terror to evil doers, and a power to them that do well. We are also commanded to pray for those in authority. These truths being self-evident, how important it is that we would have good rulers, who meeting he said a monument would be raiswould make good ordinances for us to obey: and how can we have good rulers if we allow wicked men only to elect them? How many years has "the name of Brutus been synonymous with patriotism and virtue? When Henry IV was assassinated one of the first men of France wrote an apology for John Chatel, the assassin, in which he said: "This participle is a virtue, generous and hereic ricide is a virtuous, generous and heroic act, comparable to the greatest, either in profane or sacred history and none but an atheist will doubt it." Among many an-cient nations those who dispatched usurpers and tyrants were worshipped as Gods. 'Others had a law that whosoever killed a 'bad King should be King himself.' In the same number of this delectable 'first class Democratic magazine' Stanton s spoken of as a wretch and there is a poetical article headed "a tribute to the beast meaning General Butler. The whole work is the most villainous publication with which we have ever met and yet it is subscribed for and read by men in our town who claim to be decent citizens. We would suggest to the editor that he ought to employ Col. Tate as an assistant editor. It would give the Colonel an appropriate field to elaborate his opinions about America's Booth to whom in his speech before the Democratic

We have received from several of our soldier readers requests to refute the contemptible falsehood uttered by ANDREW Johnson and re-echoed by his followers, to the effect that Congress had voted twice as much bounty to negro soldiers as to white. The following extract from the New York

Let us breifly expose the ineffable silliness of this impudent lie. Congress enacted that every Union's oldier in our war who has been honorably discharged after three years' faithful service should receive an extra bounty of $100, while those likewise dis-charged after two years' service should re-ceive but $50.
