LETTER FROM PILGRIM.

MESSES. EDITORS :-Pilgrim has just read in the "Gazette" Mr. Meyers' description and eulogy upon the new and growing "State of southampton." A perfect Eldorado—an Eden of delight, and a Goshen of Democracy! Pilgrim thinks there is some mistake about it. Mr. Meyers dreamed that. He had been "swinging round the circle" after loaves and fishes and his platform without a name broke down. The light in his policy lantern went out on election night. Overcome by the drowsy god his eyes closed slowy and he was in the fabled land of dreams. cenes of grandeur, visions of beauty rose before him, but when he awoke it was gone -like the mist from the mountain-tops. Pilgrim in his meanderings once passed through the "glorious State" of Southampton. We saw no thriving villages-no neat cottages, with clambering honey suckles, no temples of prayer were seen lifting their gilded spires eaten sash-no teacher was seen-no children once there stood a seat of learning; but it

MRS. V. B. TATE & M. A. REA.

Mrs. Tate has returned from the City with a splendid selection of BONNETS,
FEATHERS,
VELVETS,
RIBBONS,
and every thing belonging to a

Millinery Establishment.
We desire to call your attention to our

FALL STOCK Laures Dicos und Promi f my own selection, such as Ornaments, Buttons of my own selection, such as Ornaments, Euttons, Quipure and Cleeny Laces, Coras, Tassels, Fringes, Velvets, Ribbons, Belting and Trimmings generally. Mrs. Tate & Miss Rea flatter themselves that their late novelties will not be surpassed by any, having given their personal attention to all the branches of their department. The acknowledged superiority as regards their reliability and the patronage, extended to them renders comment approximations.

unnecessary.

Mrs. Tate procured while in Philadelphia a FIRST CLASS DRESS MAKER who is now ready to make Dresses, Cloaks, and Children's wear. Ladies may rely on being artistically fitted, and their work finished in the most prompt and efficient manner, at the lowest possible price. Cutting and basting done promptly.

Girls wanting to learn Mantua-Making must apply immediately; a fine opportunity is given them.
