THE JOHNSTOWN CALAMITY. - The Johns town Tribune says : "Suit is about being instituted against the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for damages incurred by the falling of the platform at that place on the 14th of September. Several of our attorneys will represent the claimants.

with their neighbors.

UMBRELLA THIEVES. -There are some per sons in town who make it a point on wet evenings to steal all umbrellas left at outer doors. We hear of a number of persons who have been the victims of this class of petty thieves. We hope that a sharp look out will be kept for them and the miscreants caught and properly punished.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE for November has a fine steel portrait of Gustave Dore, the artist, whose fame as an illustrator of the Bible, and other books, is world wide. It has articles from the British Quarterly, the North British and Saturday Review, Fraser's, Mc-Milian's, Bentley's, Cornhill Magazine, etc., with literary and scientific notices from for eign journals, making a varied and attractive table of contents. Mr. Bidwell, the editor, aims to give monthly the cream of the for eign periodicals.

DEATH OF MRS. WHARTON. - We were pained to learn, on Tuesday evening last, of the death of Mrs. Anna Wharton, wife of Henry Wharton, Esq, of this borough. Mrs. Wharton, by numerous acts of friendship, combined with all the graces and accomplish ments of a true, noble and refined lady, had drawn around her a large circle of friends who were wont to bask in the sunlight of her society, and had so endeared herself in the affections of our town people generally, that the intelligence of her decease caused the deepest regret which has been manifested in our town for years. She leaves, behind her, besides her husband, five small children, the youngest of which had scarcely seen the light of this world ere its mother's spirit fled fron earth. Having in our youth experienced a similar loss, we can feelingly sympathize with these little ones in their desolation, and the father in his bereavement. May they not forget that "whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth," and that their mother awaits their coming in a brighter and better land .- Huntingdon Monitor

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE. - On Monday night last about 10 o'clock, a fire broke out in the Har-Sadlery shop of Cook & Zim man, on Allegheny street, this place, which was burned to the ground. The fire rapidly August; or any woodcock between the fire communicated to the residence and lager beer saloon of Jos. Sanker, and another small frame buildings on the South, all of in each and every year, under the penalty of being of frame, the fire spread with great rapidity, and the exertions of the firemen and citizens were mainly directed to saving the surrounding properties, which, thanks to the stillness of the night, they were enabled to do. Most of the occupants of the burned buildings succeeded in saving all their effects though in a damaged condition.

It is not positively known how the fire orig inated. Messrs. Cook & Zimmerman we understand, were fully insured in one of the companies for which Mr. Kerr, of Altoona, is the agent. Corporal Sanker was insured, we believe, in the Blair County Company. much account, pecuniarily .- Hol. Standard,

WHAT NEWSPAPERS DO FOR NOTHING .- The following article should be read and pondered well by every man who takes a newspaper without paying for it : My observation enables me to state, as a fact, that publishers of newspapers are more poorly rewarded than any other class of men in the United States who invest an equal amount of labor, capital and thought. They are expected to do more service for less pay, to stand more sponging and "dead heading," to puff and defend more people without fee or hope of reward, than any other class.

They credit wider and longer, get oftener cheated, suffer more pecuniary loss, are oftener the victims of misplaced confidence than any other calling in the community. People pay a printer's bill with more reluctance than any other. It goes harder with them to expend a dollar on a valuable newspaper than Amanda M. Douglas, &c. The publishers ten on a needless gewgaw; yet everybody avails himself of the editor's pen and the

How many professional and political reputations and fortunes have been made and sustained by the friendly though unrequited pen of the editor. How many embryo towns and cities have been brought into notice and puffed into prosperity by the press? How many railroads, now in successful operation, would ton's Cyclopedia, &c. A beautiful Steel En have been foundered but for the "lever that graving, 29 inches long by 20 inches wide moves the world ?" In short, what branch called "one of life's happy hours," will be of industry and activity has not been promo- sent gratis to every single (2.50) subscriber, ted, stimulated and defended by the press?

And who has tendered it more than a miserable pittance for its service? The bazaars of fashion and the baunts of dissipation and appetite are thronged with an eager crowd, bearing gold in their palms, and the commodities there vended are sold at enormons profits, though intrinsically worthless, and paid for with scrupulous punctuality; while the counting room of the newspaper is the seat of Jewing, cheapening trade, orders and pennies. It is made a point of honor to liquidate a grog bill, but not of dishonor to repudiate a printer's bill.

DEATH OF GEORGE A. BUCHANAN. - Another Beath of George A. Buchanan.—Another brave man has gone to his rest. It is our painful duty to announce that Sergeant Geo. A. Buchanan is no more. This noble young man died, on the 1st inst., of Tyohoid fever, at Tyler, Smith county, Texas. Sergeant Buchanan was born and raised near Hope well, Bedford county, in this State, and previous to the breaking out of the rebellion ocated in New Orleans. While the war was n progress he was forced to enlist in the rebel army or be conscripted. Preferring the former, he volunteered as a private in the First Louisiana rebel regiment, intending to desert at the first favorable opportunity. He finally accomplished this purpose, and was one of three who escaped from the Southern army, and by means of a skiff reached Fort nacy is not proof against the pertinacious,

The death of Sergt. Buchanan is deeply lamented by all the members and officers of the company, as he seems to have been a favorite of all.

Sergt, Buchanan sojourned in Harrisburg at intervals between his enlistments, and made many acquaintances here. All who knew him will deplore his death. He was a most estimable young man, true to his friends xamplary in his conduct, patriotic in the fullest sense of the term, and one of the bravest soldiers in the service. During the batle of Fredricksburg he received a bullet near his abdomen, producing a wound that would have exempted him from further service, and which would have caused almost any other person ta have applied for a discharge. But Buchanan continued in service, and bore his wound until his death .- Harrisburg Tel-

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic.

This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digesion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck' Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appe tite, and food that could not be eaten before using t will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New Tork, Boston, and at his principal office in Philaelphia every week. See daily papers of each place, or his pamphlet on consumption for his day.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two ikenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last tage of Consumption, and the other as he now is n perfect health, are on Government stamp.
