It is much pleasanter of a winter night to think of those who have been and are warmed and fed by our unostentatious charities, than of those to whom it may have been said "depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled (by somebody else)." This month occurs the usual season of Thanksgiving, which, formerly observed by only a few of the older States, has now become a National festival May this be among the many causes for thankfulness of our readers and of ourselves, that as God has prospered us, God's poor have sha-
