

Bedford Inquirer

A LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWSPAPER, DEVOTED TO POLITICS, EDUCATION, LITERATURE AND MORALS.

DURBORROW & LUTZ Editors and Publishers.

BEDFORD, Pa., FRIDAY, JANUARY 4, 1867.

VOLUME 40; NO. 1.

All advertisements for less than 3 months 10 cents per line for each insertion. Special notices on hand additional. All resolutions of Association, communications of a limited or individual interests and notices of marriages and deaths, excepting five lines, 10 cents per line. All legal notices of every kind, and all Orphan's Court and other Judicial sales, are required by law to be published in both papers. Editorial Notices 15 cents per line. All Advertising done after first insertion. A liberal discount made to yearly advertisers.
3 months 6 months 1 year
One square.....	$ 4.50	$ 6.00
Two squares.....	8.00	12.00
Three squares.....	12.00	20.00
One-fourth column.....	14.00	28.00
Half column.....	18.00	35.00
One column.....	22.00	40.00

Business Cards

ATTORNEY AT LAW.
J. W. DURBORROW & JOHN LUTZ,
BEDFORD, PENN.
The following is written in a dialect generally called "Pennsylvania man." This is a peculiar dialect, created by a mixture of all the European German dialects, with a large sprinkling of English and pronunciation. It is passing rapidly before the progress of the English, and must ultimately become extinct. It will, however, always remain as a curiosity in literature. This poem, written by a Pennsylvania pastor, is here inserted at the request of literary friends. It has, we believe, the ring of the true vernacular.

Poetry

DAS AULT SCHUL-HAUS AN DER KRICK.
The following poem is written in a dialect generally called "Pennsylvania man." This is a peculiar dialect, created by a mixture of all the European German dialects, with a large sprinkling of English and pronunciation. It is passing rapidly before the progress of the English, and must ultimately become extinct. It will, however, always remain as a curiosity in literature. This poem, written by a Pennsylvania pastor, is here inserted at the request of literary friends. It has, we believe, the ring of the true vernacular.

Miscellaneous

CONFEDERATE X ROADS.
(which is in the State of Kentucky.)
November 20, 1866.

The papers in the country are very generally discussing the question: "shall the Democratic party live or die?" which we take into consideration the fact that the corpse is aore us, seems to me holier mockery and a hazardous feat with the felicitous friends of the party. There are not so many as you see in their own minds, but in the eyes of the world, they are still a power. The Chicago Times, and various other papers are advocating this use of flapping over to nigger suffrage. I have my WESTERN INTERESTS in the subject of it, and I will not say that I am not a Democrat, but I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage.

PHYSICIANS.

GEORGE C. BOWEN, M. D.,
Residence at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.

PHYSICIANS.

H. B. BARRETT, M. D.,
Residence at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.

PHYSICIANS.

W. M. WATSON, M. D.,
Residence at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.

PHYSICIANS.

W. M. WATSON, M. D.,
Residence at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.

PHYSICIANS.

W. M. WATSON, M. D.,
Residence at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.
Office at Bedford, Pa.

THE WAYSIDE FLOWER.

I saw a wayside flower, and said, from this I will gather instruction. The passer by had not deigned to look upon it, and it had stood unheeded and unappreciated the day long, wasting its perfume upon the passing breeze. This lesson the little flower taught me: that, in our daily walk, we may pass unnoticed fair and beautiful beings, who, because they are unobtrusive, are unappreciated.

THE HUMAN EYE.

The language of the eyes very hard to counterfeit. You can read in the eyes of your companion, while you talk, whether your heart is true or false. There is a look by which a man shows he is going to say a good thing, and a look when he has said it. Vain and forgotten are all the offices of hospitality, if there be no holiday in the eye. How many parties are ruined by the eyes of the guests, though assembled by the lips. A man comes away from a company; he has heard no important remark, but in sympathy with the society, he is cognizant of such a stream of life as has been flowing in him through the eye. There are flowers in the eye, and others are deep wells that men might fall into; and others are oppressive and devouring, and take too much notice. There are asking and asserting eyes, eyes full of faith—some of good and some of sinister omen.

THE DEATH OF THE INFANT DAUGHTER OF GEN. TOM.

The infant daughter of General Tom, Minnie Stratton, or as she is called to call herself Minnie Tom, died at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst.

THE CANDLE FISH.

Mr. John Lord, an Englishman, who went to British Columbia as scientific member of the commission appointed to mark the boundary between British and United States territory, has published in London an account in his own language of a strange little creature which he had seen on the coast of the Columbia. The creature was a small fish, and was called by the natives "Candle Fish."

HORACE GREELY'S RIDE TO PLACERVILLE.

When Mr. Greeley was in California, various papers are advocating this use of flapping over to nigger suffrage. I have my WESTERN INTERESTS in the subject of it, and I will not say that I am not a Democrat, but I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage.

THE LEGISLATURE OF GEORGIA.

The Legislature of Georgia adjourned sine die, on the 14th inst. The closing speeches of the presiding officers of both Houses were expressive of great determination not to succumb to unlawful demands. The sentiment of the Legislature seems decided in favor of a territorial government rather than the acceptance of the constitutional amendment or similar terms.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of North Carolina, will send three Commissioners to Washington to confer with the authorities in relation to the military order suspending the order of removal of the courts of the States. Governor Worth, the head Commissioner, selects his Associate Commissioners.

THE WAYSIDE FLOWER.

I saw a wayside flower, and said, from this I will gather instruction. The passer by had not deigned to look upon it, and it had stood unheeded and unappreciated the day long, wasting its perfume upon the passing breeze. This lesson the little flower taught me: that, in our daily walk, we may pass unnoticed fair and beautiful beings, who, because they are unobtrusive, are unappreciated.

THE HUMAN EYE.

The language of the eyes very hard to counterfeit. You can read in the eyes of your companion, while you talk, whether your heart is true or false. There is a look by which a man shows he is going to say a good thing, and a look when he has said it. Vain and forgotten are all the offices of hospitality, if there be no holiday in the eye. How many parties are ruined by the eyes of the guests, though assembled by the lips. A man comes away from a company; he has heard no important remark, but in sympathy with the society, he is cognizant of such a stream of life as has been flowing in him through the eye. There are flowers in the eye, and others are deep wells that men might fall into; and others are oppressive and devouring, and take too much notice. There are asking and asserting eyes, eyes full of faith—some of good and some of sinister omen.

THE DEATH OF THE INFANT DAUGHTER OF GEN. TOM.

The infant daughter of General Tom, Minnie Stratton, or as she is called to call herself Minnie Tom, died at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst.

THE CANDLE FISH.

Mr. John Lord, an Englishman, who went to British Columbia as scientific member of the commission appointed to mark the boundary between British and United States territory, has published in London an account in his own language of a strange little creature which he had seen on the coast of the Columbia. The creature was a small fish, and was called by the natives "Candle Fish."

HORACE GREELY'S RIDE TO PLACERVILLE.

When Mr. Greeley was in California, various papers are advocating this use of flapping over to nigger suffrage. I have my WESTERN INTERESTS in the subject of it, and I will not say that I am not a Democrat, but I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage.

THE LEGISLATURE OF GEORGIA.

The Legislature of Georgia adjourned sine die, on the 14th inst. The closing speeches of the presiding officers of both Houses were expressive of great determination not to succumb to unlawful demands. The sentiment of the Legislature seems decided in favor of a territorial government rather than the acceptance of the constitutional amendment or similar terms.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of North Carolina, will send three Commissioners to Washington to confer with the authorities in relation to the military order suspending the order of removal of the courts of the States. Governor Worth, the head Commissioner, selects his Associate Commissioners.

THE WAYSIDE FLOWER.

I saw a wayside flower, and said, from this I will gather instruction. The passer by had not deigned to look upon it, and it had stood unheeded and unappreciated the day long, wasting its perfume upon the passing breeze. This lesson the little flower taught me: that, in our daily walk, we may pass unnoticed fair and beautiful beings, who, because they are unobtrusive, are unappreciated.

THE HUMAN EYE.

The language of the eyes very hard to counterfeit. You can read in the eyes of your companion, while you talk, whether your heart is true or false. There is a look by which a man shows he is going to say a good thing, and a look when he has said it. Vain and forgotten are all the offices of hospitality, if there be no holiday in the eye. How many parties are ruined by the eyes of the guests, though assembled by the lips. A man comes away from a company; he has heard no important remark, but in sympathy with the society, he is cognizant of such a stream of life as has been flowing in him through the eye. There are flowers in the eye, and others are deep wells that men might fall into; and others are oppressive and devouring, and take too much notice. There are asking and asserting eyes, eyes full of faith—some of good and some of sinister omen.

THE DEATH OF THE INFANT DAUGHTER OF GEN. TOM.

The infant daughter of General Tom, Minnie Stratton, or as she is called to call herself Minnie Tom, died at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst.

THE CANDLE FISH.

Mr. John Lord, an Englishman, who went to British Columbia as scientific member of the commission appointed to mark the boundary between British and United States territory, has published in London an account in his own language of a strange little creature which he had seen on the coast of the Columbia. The creature was a small fish, and was called by the natives "Candle Fish."

HORACE GREELY'S RIDE TO PLACERVILLE.

When Mr. Greeley was in California, various papers are advocating this use of flapping over to nigger suffrage. I have my WESTERN INTERESTS in the subject of it, and I will not say that I am not a Democrat, but I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage.

THE LEGISLATURE OF GEORGIA.

The Legislature of Georgia adjourned sine die, on the 14th inst. The closing speeches of the presiding officers of both Houses were expressive of great determination not to succumb to unlawful demands. The sentiment of the Legislature seems decided in favor of a territorial government rather than the acceptance of the constitutional amendment or similar terms.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of North Carolina, will send three Commissioners to Washington to confer with the authorities in relation to the military order suspending the order of removal of the courts of the States. Governor Worth, the head Commissioner, selects his Associate Commissioners.

THE WAYSIDE FLOWER.

I saw a wayside flower, and said, from this I will gather instruction. The passer by had not deigned to look upon it, and it had stood unheeded and unappreciated the day long, wasting its perfume upon the passing breeze. This lesson the little flower taught me: that, in our daily walk, we may pass unnoticed fair and beautiful beings, who, because they are unobtrusive, are unappreciated.

THE HUMAN EYE.

The language of the eyes very hard to counterfeit. You can read in the eyes of your companion, while you talk, whether your heart is true or false. There is a look by which a man shows he is going to say a good thing, and a look when he has said it. Vain and forgotten are all the offices of hospitality, if there be no holiday in the eye. How many parties are ruined by the eyes of the guests, though assembled by the lips. A man comes away from a company; he has heard no important remark, but in sympathy with the society, he is cognizant of such a stream of life as has been flowing in him through the eye. There are flowers in the eye, and others are deep wells that men might fall into; and others are oppressive and devouring, and take too much notice. There are asking and asserting eyes, eyes full of faith—some of good and some of sinister omen.

THE DEATH OF THE INFANT DAUGHTER OF GEN. TOM.

The infant daughter of General Tom, Minnie Stratton, or as she is called to call herself Minnie Tom, died at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst.

THE CANDLE FISH.

Mr. John Lord, an Englishman, who went to British Columbia as scientific member of the commission appointed to mark the boundary between British and United States territory, has published in London an account in his own language of a strange little creature which he had seen on the coast of the Columbia. The creature was a small fish, and was called by the natives "Candle Fish."

HORACE GREELY'S RIDE TO PLACERVILLE.

When Mr. Greeley was in California, various papers are advocating this use of flapping over to nigger suffrage. I have my WESTERN INTERESTS in the subject of it, and I will not say that I am not a Democrat, but I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage.

THE LEGISLATURE OF GEORGIA.

The Legislature of Georgia adjourned sine die, on the 14th inst. The closing speeches of the presiding officers of both Houses were expressive of great determination not to succumb to unlawful demands. The sentiment of the Legislature seems decided in favor of a territorial government rather than the acceptance of the constitutional amendment or similar terms.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of North Carolina, will send three Commissioners to Washington to confer with the authorities in relation to the military order suspending the order of removal of the courts of the States. Governor Worth, the head Commissioner, selects his Associate Commissioners.

THE WAYSIDE FLOWER.

I saw a wayside flower, and said, from this I will gather instruction. The passer by had not deigned to look upon it, and it had stood unheeded and unappreciated the day long, wasting its perfume upon the passing breeze. This lesson the little flower taught me: that, in our daily walk, we may pass unnoticed fair and beautiful beings, who, because they are unobtrusive, are unappreciated.

THE HUMAN EYE.

The language of the eyes very hard to counterfeit. You can read in the eyes of your companion, while you talk, whether your heart is true or false. There is a look by which a man shows he is going to say a good thing, and a look when he has said it. Vain and forgotten are all the offices of hospitality, if there be no holiday in the eye. How many parties are ruined by the eyes of the guests, though assembled by the lips. A man comes away from a company; he has heard no important remark, but in sympathy with the society, he is cognizant of such a stream of life as has been flowing in him through the eye. There are flowers in the eye, and others are deep wells that men might fall into; and others are oppressive and devouring, and take too much notice. There are asking and asserting eyes, eyes full of faith—some of good and some of sinister omen.

THE DEATH OF THE INFANT DAUGHTER OF GEN. TOM.

The infant daughter of General Tom, Minnie Stratton, or as she is called to call herself Minnie Tom, died at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst.

THE CANDLE FISH.

Mr. John Lord, an Englishman, who went to British Columbia as scientific member of the commission appointed to mark the boundary between British and United States territory, has published in London an account in his own language of a strange little creature which he had seen on the coast of the Columbia. The creature was a small fish, and was called by the natives "Candle Fish."

HORACE GREELY'S RIDE TO PLACERVILLE.

When Mr. Greeley was in California, various papers are advocating this use of flapping over to nigger suffrage. I have my WESTERN INTERESTS in the subject of it, and I will not say that I am not a Democrat, but I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage.

THE LEGISLATURE OF GEORGIA.

The Legislature of Georgia adjourned sine die, on the 14th inst. The closing speeches of the presiding officers of both Houses were expressive of great determination not to succumb to unlawful demands. The sentiment of the Legislature seems decided in favor of a territorial government rather than the acceptance of the constitutional amendment or similar terms.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of North Carolina, will send three Commissioners to Washington to confer with the authorities in relation to the military order suspending the order of removal of the courts of the States. Governor Worth, the head Commissioner, selects his Associate Commissioners.

THE WAYSIDE FLOWER.

I saw a wayside flower, and said, from this I will gather instruction. The passer by had not deigned to look upon it, and it had stood unheeded and unappreciated the day long, wasting its perfume upon the passing breeze. This lesson the little flower taught me: that, in our daily walk, we may pass unnoticed fair and beautiful beings, who, because they are unobtrusive, are unappreciated.

THE HUMAN EYE.

The language of the eyes very hard to counterfeit. You can read in the eyes of your companion, while you talk, whether your heart is true or false. There is a look by which a man shows he is going to say a good thing, and a look when he has said it. Vain and forgotten are all the offices of hospitality, if there be no holiday in the eye. How many parties are ruined by the eyes of the guests, though assembled by the lips. A man comes away from a company; he has heard no important remark, but in sympathy with the society, he is cognizant of such a stream of life as has been flowing in him through the eye. There are flowers in the eye, and others are deep wells that men might fall into; and others are oppressive and devouring, and take too much notice. There are asking and asserting eyes, eyes full of faith—some of good and some of sinister omen.

THE DEATH OF THE INFANT DAUGHTER OF GEN. TOM.

The infant daughter of General Tom, Minnie Stratton, or as she is called to call herself Minnie Tom, died at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst. The child was born at the residence of her father, on the 23rd inst.

THE CANDLE FISH.

Mr. John Lord, an Englishman, who went to British Columbia as scientific member of the commission appointed to mark the boundary between British and United States territory, has published in London an account in his own language of a strange little creature which he had seen on the coast of the Columbia. The creature was a small fish, and was called by the natives "Candle Fish."

HORACE GREELY'S RIDE TO PLACERVILLE.

When Mr. Greeley was in California, various papers are advocating this use of flapping over to nigger suffrage. I have my WESTERN INTERESTS in the subject of it, and I will not say that I am not a Democrat, but I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage. I will say that I am not a Democrat who will not support the nigger suffrage.

THE LEGISLATURE OF GEORGIA.

The Legislature of Georgia adjourned sine die, on the 14th inst. The closing speeches of the presiding officers of both Houses were expressive of great determination not to succumb to unlawful demands. The sentiment of the Legislature seems decided in favor of a territorial government rather than the acceptance of the constitutional amendment or similar terms.

THE LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

The Legislature of North Carolina, will send three Commissioners to Washington to confer with the authorities in relation to the military order suspending the order of removal of the courts of the States. Governor Worth, the head Commissioner, selects his Associate Commissioners.