BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, JAN. 4, 1867.

We return thanks to Messrs. Hartley for a sack of flour left at our door one day last week. It was our only Christmas Gift. It was ground at their New Steam Mill, in this place which is now turning out a large quantity of flour of the best quality.

We learn that John T. Keagy, Esq., of this place, has received the position of Assistant Messenger to the House of Repre sentatives of this State. "Mr. Reagy will make an excellent officer, as he is an excelent and most worthy christian gentleman.
