

Bedford, Pa., Friday Feb. 15 1867.

OSTER SUPPER.—The Presbyterian Mite Society of Bloomsburg, will have an Oyster Supper on the evening of the 23d inst.

The Lecture of Prof. Fuller, in the Union School House, on last Friday night, was well attended, and gave unusual satisfaction.

An exchange says that printing paper has come down so as to effect the price per year subscriber to the amount of about one-fourth of a cent.

The second lecture for the benefit of the Cemetery Association, will be delivered at the Court-house, on Tuesday evening next, the 19th inst., by Rev. Kepler.

FREE LECTURE.—Mr. Union, the distinguished Orator of Boston, will deliver, in the Court House, on Saturday evening next, at 7 o'clock, his celebrated Temperance Lecture.

Postmasters throughout the county will save trouble by obeying the laws in regard to newspapers, &c. When a paper remains dead in the office for four consecutive weeks, it is the duty of the P. M., or his deputy, to send the publisher of the paper a written notice of the fact—stating, if possible, the reason why the paper is not lifted.

The GALAXY for February 15, 1867, commences in this number the new novel, "Waiting for the Verdict," by Rebecca Harding Davis, whose shorter stories of "Life in the Iron Mill," "Margret Howth," &c., have obtained for her so high a reputation.

SOUTHERN PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—We are asked daily, almost hourly, what this company is going to do. The community is very much exercised in regard to its reticence and finds relief in applying to us, presuming that we ought to know. It is true that we have felt an interest, in common with all persons who desire the welfare of this portion of Southern Pennsylvania.

BOUNTIES.—In last week's issue we referred to the provisions of the general law requiring the township Auditors to settle all Bounties accounts. Since then we learn that the court in the several restorations of the old law authorizing the court to appoint special Auditors to settle such accounts and had been signed by the Governor.

MARRIED.—At the Lutheran Parsonage, Schellburg, on the 20th ult., by Rev. B. H. Hunt, Mr. G. W. GELDER and Miss SARAH A. HILLEGASS, both of this county.

DIED.—In Woodbury township, December 7th, 1866, CLARA CATHARINE, daughter of Adan Ude, aged about 9 years.

At the Lutheran Parsonage, Schellburg, on the 20th ult., by Rev. B. H. Hunt, Mr. G. W. GELDER and Miss SARAH A. HILLEGASS, both of this county.

PENNSYLVANIA COLLEGE.—We understand a special meeting of the Board of Trustees of Pennsylvania College was held on Wednesday last. The election of a successor to Prof. Mayer, who has resigned his chair, was postponed to the regular meeting next fall.

Leave of absence was granted to Dr. Baugher, President of the Institution, for three or four months, to visit Europe.

It was also resolved to erect once a building for the Preparatory Department, not to exceed $25,000 in cost and a Committee was appointed to propose plans and specifications.

EVERY SATURDAY.—In addition to the excellent Series by Miss Thackeray, Henry Kingsley and Edmund Yates, this popular Weekly has numerous short, pithy articles on European political and social topics, which are of great interest to all intelligent Americans.

It also gives every week one or more choice poems by Swinburne, Buchanan, Jean Ingelow, or some other of the rising poets of England; frequently it is enriched by a translation of some especially instructive or interesting sketch from French and German periodicals.

In fact it contains weekly a valuable miscellany of what is best and most to American readers—most attractive in Foreign current literature. It is published by Ticknor and Fields, Boston.

THE N. Y. EVENING POST & AMERICAN ADVERTISER have made arrangements to furnish both papers for the low price of two dollars and a half per annum.

THE CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.—Some years since the Legislature of Pennsylvania incorporated a Railroad company under the name of, and that company laid out the route through a section of country, Somerset, Bedford and Adams counties, leading to Pittsburgh, which had heretofore not been favored with any facilities of carrying its iron, coal and produce to market.

THE CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD.—We are asked daily, almost hourly, what this company is going to do. The community is very much exercised in regard to its reticence and finds relief in applying to us, presuming that we ought to know.

THE LIGHTNING LAMP.—The Greatest Wonder of the Age.—This lamp was patented by Dr. Vaughan of Rainburg, on the 6th of November, 1866, and surpasses all other light in use.

TERMINAL EXPLOSION OF AN ENGINE.—We have learned the following particulars of one of the most terrible and yet the most singular explosions that we have ever read or heard of.

THE GREAT ACCLIMATING TONIC.—Wherever Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the celebrated American prevention of Climate Disease, has been introduced into unhealthy regions, their effects in restoring the health, vigor and animal spirits of those persons subjected to them is extraordinary.

DR. SCHENCK'S PALMONIC SYRUP.—This great medicine cured by Dr. J. H. Schenck the proprietor of Pulmonary Consumption, when speedy death appeared to be inevitable.
