Mr. EDITOR: -I desire to say something about the apple-tree borer, an enemy from which we have greatly suffered in our attempts o severe healthy trees and good crops. So ar as my own trees are concerned, I think I have found a remedy. planted an apple orchard some eighteen five or six years, when they began to droop and look sackly. Upon examining them I found the borer in great numbers, having one considerable damage, and some of them | beft. appeared to be past recovery. I went to work and took them out. After removing them I was about to apply coal tar, but I was old that it would be a worse enemy than the orer. I thought awhile, and decided to apply urine, from the cow stable, having tanks and appliances to secure all this valuable liquid manure, as every farmer spould have. I applied this copiously around the bottom of the trees, and washed the trunks thoroughly. orchard, and the trees have completely recovored, and give me abundant crops.

I have been using this remedy for three years, and it has well repaid me for the labor required; and I think I can recommend it confidently to my brother farmers, and properly apply it, say twice a year after-
