

Bedford Inquirer.

BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 12, 1867.

Mass Meeting.

There will be a Mass Meeting of the Republican Party at the Court House, on Tuesday evening, April 23rd inst.

Union County Committee.

The members of the Union County Committee are requested to meet at the Washington Hotel in Bedford on Tuesday, April 23rd inst., at 5 o'clock, P. M.

A Large Steam Tannery.

Certain parties from Huntingdon county have purchased a site for a large Steam Tannery at the Foot of Dry Ridge, on the line of the projected railroad.

Shad on their way up.

Thomas Mullinix, of Snake Spring township, caught a shad at Hartley's Spring Run, about six miles below Bedford, on Wednesday last week.

Sale of a Wife.

We complain of the Mormons for their plurality of wives, and of the Indians for their readiness to dispose of their wives at any time for a consideration.

An enterprising citizen.

A very fine building in this place, which has attracted crowds of citizens to inspect and feast their eyes upon the novelty.

A Mistake.

Michael Naugle, Esq., requests us to say that he did not write, as many supposed, nor had he hand in getting up the "Take Notice," calling for the "organization" of a "new party," at his house, published in our last week's issue.

Bedford county indebtedness to the State.

The readers of the Inquirer will remember that we, during the late canvass, exhibited to them the indebtedness of Bedford county to the State which was then some $16,742.

Bedford county in account with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

If this exhibit be correct, and we have every reason to believe that it is, the county of Bedford does not owe the State of Pennsylvania a farthing.

DR. S. G. STALLER, near Schellsburg, and Dr. J. C. CLARKE, formerly of Cumberland county, having associated themselves in the practice of Medicine, respectfully offer their professional services to the citizens of Schellsburg and vicinity.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS.—All persons are hereby cautioned against trespassing upon the premises of the undersigned for any purpose whatsoever, as we are determined to enforce the law against all trespassers.

JOHN H. SHAFER.

Consumption Curable by Dr. Schenck's Medicines.

To cure consumption, the system must be prepared so that the lungs will heal. To accomplish this, the stomach and liver must first be cleaned and an appetite created for good wholesome food.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is nutritious as well as medicinal, and by using the three remedies all impurities are expelled from the system, and good wholesome blood made, which will repair all disease.

Thousands die, as we are, inch by inch, of bodily weakness; for debility will kill as certainly, though not so quickly, as a raging fever.

Strength for the Exhausted. Thousands die, as we are, inch by inch, of bodily weakness; for debility will kill as certainly, though not so quickly, as a raging fever.
