Sunday morning (Easter).....10½ " with music appropriate to the occasion, and a sermon on the "Resurrection." Sunday afternoon at 3½ o'clock.) Sabbath School service and Celebration.

ASSESSORS, REMEMBER.—Borough and township Auditors must remember, that the law requires that immediately after the settlement of accounts for the year, they must prepare a condensed statement of the condition of the finances of the town or township, and publish the same in two newspapers. School Directors, we believe, are required to do the same. There is a penalty of fifty dollars for a failure to come up to the requirements of the law.

PLANTING TREES.—The season for the planting of fruit and shade trees is at hand, and we see many persons improving the opportunity for adding to their comforts by planting choice fruit trees or enhancing the beauty of their homes with shade and ornamental trees and shrubbery. There is perhaps nothing else in which so small an expenditure of money and labor yields so large a return in substantial comfort and pleasure. We are glad to note from year to year an increasing appreciation of this fact among our people. It is a favorable augury that they are not wholly given over to the pursuit of the almighty dollar, but care also for the higher comforts of life, and cultivate a taste for the beauties of nature. But there are still a few who are occasionally guilty of acts of vandalism that should receive the reprobation of all who are not utterly devoid of esthetic culture. We now and then see one of these anachronisms ere in hand felling the old trees whose grateful shade has for years refreshed the weary traveler, afforded a cool resting place for the exhausted laborer, and whose stately proportions and beautiful foliage has oft times delighted the eye and thrilled with pleasure the heart of the passer by, but all whose usefulness and beauty must now be destroyed because its widespreading branches have cast a shadow over and blighted a few paltry hills of corn or potatoes. We hope the race of vandals will soon become extinct but until it does, "Woodman spare that tree" will not lose its significance, though its plaintive quest will never reach a responsive chord in their callous natures.

THE HERALD OF HEALTH.—The April number of this excellent journal is on our table and contains a number of instructive articles on both the preservation and restoration of health. Special attention is given to Hygiene, a subject sadly neglected in this go-ahead age. The Herald should be in the hands of all. It will assist the well in preserving, and the sick in restoring health. Published by Miller, Wood & Co., Nos. 15 and 17 N. Laight Street, New York.

DELAY & BECKERLE'S BANK NOTE REPORTER, for April 1, has been received. Every man in business should have a copy of it if he would be posted in regard to the latest counterfeits. Terms, semi-monthly, $2 per annum; monthly, $1 50 per annum. Address, Charles C. Rhodes, Publisher, 45, South Third Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

BRITISH PERIODICALS.—We have Blackwood's Magazine, for March, and the Edinburgh and Quarterly Review for the first quarter of 1867, re-printed in this country from proof copies of the originals by the Leonard Scott Publishing Company, 38 Walker street, N. Y.

The contents of Blackwood are: The Army—part II. Feerier Hymns of the Populace. The History of Scotland. The Innermost Room. Co-operative Societies. Cornelius O'Dowd, continued. The Brownlow's, do. Ministerial Resolutions.

The Edinburgh Review has nine articles entitled as follows: Foreign Policy of Sir John Lawrence. Adam Ferguson. The Private Business of Parliament. Rawlinson's Ancient Monarchies. Modern Glass Painting. Tenant Compensation in Ireland. Early English Texts. Meteoric showers. Position and Prospects of Parties.

The London Quarterly contains, Charles Lamb and some of his Companions. The Children Conference. Books of Fiction for Children. Crime in the State of New York. The Week's Republic in Palermo, 1866. Game and Game Laws. Ultra Ritualism. Yankee Humor, and English Democracy and Irish Pessimism.

The terms of these publications are: For Blackwood, or any of the four Reviews, $4 a year—for all of them taken together $15.00 a year. Address as above.

JUDGE TAYLOR'S CHARGE.—A couple of weeks ago, says the Johnstown Tribune, just as we were putting our paper to press, we were called upon by a gentleman acquaintance, who usually comprehends the signification of common English words, and were informed substantially that His Honor, Judge Taylor, in his charge to the Grand Jury of this county, then just delivered, had affirmed the legality of the act disfranchising deserters, and had instructed the Jury not to find bills against any parties against whom suits had been entered for enforcing that law. We at once wrote and printed a paragraph containing the substance of our friend's statement. Last week the editor of the Ebensburg Democrat, in language the courteousness of which we wish could always characterize the editorial management of the country press, assured us that the statement contained in the paragraph in question was an error. The following letter from Judge Taylor confirms the correctness of the Freeman's version and puts our informant far into the vocative:

HUNTINGDON, March 29, 1867.

Editor Johnstown Tribune:—DEAR SIR:—In yours of the 27th inst., calling my attention to a paragraph in a late number of the Tribune, prepared and printed "upon information derived from a friend," —and desiring me to inform you whether it is a correct report of a portion of my late charge to the Grand Jury of Cambria county—I reply that it is not. The error will be explained and corrected by a statement of what I did say on the occasion.

I found on the usual list of offenses for which bills would be laid before the Grand Jury, handed to me by the District Attorney, that of "wilfully rejecting the vote of a qualified voter." This after reading what the District Attorney had written descriptive of it, I instructed the Grand Jury was an indictable offense; reminding them, at the same time, that it must appear to have been a wilful, and consequently corrupt, to be a criminal rejection of the offered vote. Premising that every human tribunal, called upon to decide any question, is fallible, it was not enough, I added, that it should be made to appear that they rejected a vote which should have been received. It must appear, also, that it was done willfully and corruptly. Error, if it was only error, would not be indicted and punished as a crime. I concluded by saying that if the evidence in any case before the Grand Jury proved mainly a willful and corrupt rejection of the vote of a legal voter, they should find the bill a true bill; if the evidence did not show such a rejection, they should find the bill not a true bill.

That is what I did say, and all that I said, as nearly as I can remember and report it. I think that all who heard me will recognize this as a verbatim report. I did not at the time know the facts or circumstances of any case which the District Attorney intended to lay before the Grand Jury.

Very truly, yours, &c.,
GEO. TAYLOR.

I. O. OF O. F.—The Independent Order of Odd Fellows, throughout the United States and the Canadas, intend observing Friday the 26th of this month, it being the forty-eighth anniversary of the establishment of the order in America, as a day of Thanksgiving for reasons set forth in the proclamation of its grand national officer, which we here publish:

A PROCLAMATION APPOINTING A DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

WHEREAS, the R. W. Grand Lodge of the United States, of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at its late September Session, 1866, in grateful recognition of the unerring hand of God in rescuing the genius of Odd Fellowship from the ruin which desolated so many of the benevolent and charitable institutions of our common Country, as the indispensable effects of civil war,—and of the unmistakable prosperity which has crowned its labors during the year which has just passed, did, by unanimous vote, direct the M. W. Grand Sire to issue his Proclamation appointing a Day of Thanksgiving to those and countless other blessings vouchsafed to our beloved order:

Now, Therefore, I, James P. Sanders, M. W. Grand Sire, do hereby fraternally direct that the twenty-sixth day of April, 1867, be observed by the Members of our Order throughout the general jurisdiction, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer; and that they do assemble on said day in such manner and form of organization, with their families, as the appropriate authorities in their respective State Jurisdictions may prescribe, to render thanks to the ever-living God, for his manifest favor and protection to that Institution which, so so much love and cherish, and especially for the preservation of its unbroken unity, through trials and perils of unparalleled severity.

Done at the City of Baltimore, this first day of November, A. D. 1866, and of our Order the forty-eighth.

JAMES P. SANDERS,
M. W. Grand Sire.

In obedience to this proclamation, Bedford Lodge No. 202 and Cove Lodge No. 868, of Woodberry, also Penn Branch Encampment, No. 114 of the pilots, will unite in a public procession in full regalia and appropriate services in the Presbyterian church, at 10½ o'clock of that day. The public are cordially invited to attend.

THE GALAXY for April 15, 1867.—This twenty-fourth number completes the third volume and the first year of the Galaxy. The same general character which has marked the magazine in the past will be maintained in the future. With constantly increasing resource the Galaxy will aim to keep pace with the growth of literary taste in the country, and to add to encouraging whatever is truest and most progressive in American letters.

The present number contains the second installment of Steven Lawrence, Yeoman, the new story, by Mrs. Edwards, the author of "Archie Lovell;" another part of Waiting for the verdict, Mrs. R. H. Davis' new story; and the following articles:—The father-Bing, by S. S.; Health for Cities, by Pharcellus Church; Some Lover's Clean Day, by John Weiss; The Facts About M. Du Chaillu, by W. Winwood Reade; Vittoria Colonna, by Annie Corn. Richie; Literature and the people, by Eugene Benson; Bermuda and the Bermudas, by Charles Hallock; Always Love, by William Winter; Words and their Uses, by Richard Grant White; Nebula, by the Editor, containing:—Famous Americans of Modern Times; Madam Recamier; Hippocrene; Congress; and Le New York Custom House.

The price of the Galaxy is $5 a year; 50 cents a number. Address W. C. & F. P. Church, 39 Park Row, New York.

THE ECLECTIC MAGAZINE for April gives a fine portrait of David Peabe, a Papal Armenian, and Governor of Mount Lebanon, whose wisdom and sagacity has successfully kept in check the fanaticism of the Turks since the massacre of 1860. Eighteen articles, of more or less interest; with Poetical selections, Literary notices and &c., make up the number. The leading article, Swiss Lake Dwellings from the London Quarterly treats an important scientific question in a highly interesting and satisfactory manner. "Submarine Telegraphy" is an article of extraordinary interest and valuable as matter of history. The Biographical papers on the English Bench and Bar, on Hogarth, on James and Horace Smith, and on Browning, are worthy a careful perusal. There is also a timely article on the Paris Exposition.

CARD.

The following card explains itself:

HUNTINGDON, PENN'A.,
April 17, 1867.

Messrs. Patterson & Lutz:—Will you please say for me in two or three lines that until I enter upon the duties of my office, no applications for office will be considered. I am overrun with letters, and I cannot answer them all.

Yours truly,
C. W. ASHCOM.

MARRIED

On the 9th inst., at the residence of Major S. Snively, by the Rev. G. C. Probst, Serg't HARVEY CALDWELL, of Rushville, Indiana, to Miss MARY SNIVELY, of Bedford co., Pa.

Dr Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

This great medicine cured by Dr. J. H. Schenck the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than one hundred pounds.

Since his recovery he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has large concourses of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is in perfect health, are on Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers' price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

General Wholesale Agents: Demas Barnes & Co., N. Y.; S. S. Hance, Baltimore, Md.; John D. Parke, Cincinnati, Ohio; Walker & Taylor, Chicago, Ill.; Collins Bros., St. Louis, Mo.

Strength for the Exhausted.

Thousands die, as it were, inch by inch, of bodily weakness for lack of what will kill as certainly, though not as quickly, as a raging fever. Is it asked how the weak shall be made strong; the debilitated sustained and restored; the exhausted filled with vital energy? We answer that of all invigorating preparations given by science to man, from the institution of the art of healing to the present hour, none has wrought such wonders in the way of restoration as HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. This is indeed the tonic of tonics. As a revitalizing, strength-supporting, life-prolonging agent, the like of it is not to be found in the catalogue of medicines. Among the various articles used to arouse the dormant powers of nature, it stands alone—the great awakener of the paralyzed physician. It not only awakens the physical powers from a state of collapse and inaction, but it imparts permanent vigor to the muscular and nervous systems—reinforcing, as it were, both the stronghold and the outworks of vitality. The aged, the decrepit, the nervous, the broken down of both sexes, are recommended to try it. They will assuredly find it a present help in time of trouble.

FOR SALE.—The subscriber offers at Private Sale the Farm, on which he lives, between Bedford and "The Springs," containing 145 ACRES of Limestone land; 140 acres in cultivation; the rest excellent Timber. Improvements are the Mansion, built in 1866, containing ten rooms; a tenant house, barn, carriage-house, ice-house, wood-shed, smoke-house, spring-house, &c. Also a never-failing spring of best soft water, with spouting pump at barn and mansion; several hundred choice young bearing fruit trees; three hundred bearing grape vines, four years old, one hundred of which are Delawares. This place will be found a most desirable residence, or it would be admirably calculated for the establishment of a boarding house for summer resort. The view is very fine; the supply of cold soft water is ample and excellent for baths of all kinds; and it is three months of a mile from the celebrated Bedford Mineral Springs. Price $11,000—in reasonable payments. A portion of the land is worth $200 per acre—could be sold in lots at that. If desired I will divide the place and sell the mansion house with ten or twenty acres separately.

☞ Teeth extracted without pain by the use of NITROUS OXIDE or LAUGHING GAS.

This is no humbug, but a positive fact. Gas administered fresh every day. As the Gas administered by Dr. Porter is prepared in accordance with the painting method of Dr. Strong, of New Haven, Ct., and Prof. Silliman (late Professor of Chemistry in Yale College) he incurs no limitation in asserting that it is attended with no danger whatever. Persons desiring the services of a Dentist would promote their own interest by calling upon Dr. Porter, as he is determined to spare no effort to please the most fastidious. Dr. Porter's mode of operating will at all times be of the mildest character, avoiding the infliction of the slightest unnecessary pain, and carefully adapted to the age, constitution, health and nervous condition of the patient.

☞ Special attention is invited to Dr. Porter's scientific method of preserving decayed and ailing teeth. Teeth blackened and diseased, cleansed to appear beautiful and white.

H. VIRGIL PORTER,
