HE ODD FELLOWS THANKSGIVING .- Friday he 26th ult., was an auspicious day fo Brotherhood of Odd Fellows. The weather a few days previous had been very un-, but the sun, on Friday morning a clear sky, and the day was bright delegations from Cove Lodge No. 368 odberry, Allaquippa Lodge No. 547, at and Saxton Lodge, No. 594, at . had arrived, and at a few minutes ten the procession was formed at the f Bedford Lodge No. 202, and consist the four Lodges above named, and o say that the display was splendid would out a feint idea to those not fortunate gh to witness it, of the reality. The alia was very beautiful. The Regalia worn D. D. G. M. Hickok, a present from the rnity, and that of D. D. G. P. Gettys, ere truly magnificent. The procession headed the Union Republican band, aided by eral members of the Democratic brass the direction of J. R. Jordan, Chief Marshall, and Wm. Kirk and Strong, Assistant Marshalls, proceedngh the principal streets, to the Preserian church, where the following exerciwere gone through with:

Voluntary, by Choir of Presbyterian Church Prayer, by Rev. B. G. W. Reed. HYMN-Air, Coronation

All glorious, mighty Lord! To thee Our grateful songs we raise; Bless'd source of our prosperity, Thy guardian care we praise. Our Order—once a little band— In weakness, and in fear, Besought the guidance of thy hand; Its thorny path to cheer.

The few—through thy preserving care— Are now a mighty host; And thou, who heard'st our feeble prayer Shalt be our constant boast.

Oft mid despondency and tears, Our weary foot have gone, But thou, through long, eventful years, Hast safely led us on.

Then joyfully, our hym ns of praise In gratitude we frame, Our Hallelujahs, high we raise, To thine Almighty Name.

[This hymn was composed for the occasio the orator of the day, Dr. C. N. Hickok.

HYMN.—Air, Harwell.

Bless'd be thou, the God of Israel.

Thou our Father, and our Lord,
Bless'd thy Majesty forever,
Ever be thy Name adored.

Thine, O Lord, are power and greatness,
Glory, victory, are thine own;
All is thine in earth and heaven,
Over all thy boundless throne.

INTERNAL REVENUE DECISIONS. -As a mat ter of interest we give the following decisions on questions of daily business transactions ondensed from the rulings of the Com

oner of Internal Revenue: Who shall affix Stamps to Iastruments of Writing ?- The law does not designate which | the determination to extirpate this nefariou of the parties to an instrument of writing shall furnish the necessary stamps, nor does the government assume to determine that it shall be supplied by one party rather than another .-The affixing of a stamp may be the subject of agreement between the parties thereto; but if and vivid pictures of the hitherto unknown an instrument subject to stamp duty is issued phases in the great struggle for National without having the necessary stamps affixed thereto, it cannot be recorded, or admitted or used as evidence in any court, until a legal thus issues it is liable to a penalty, if he omit | General Baker, and sixteen well executed cial bonds of Executors, Administrators and by the Publishers authorized agents. Guardians, are subject to a stamp tax of one dollar each. Receipts taken by Administrators, Executors, Guardians, Trustees, &c., to be used as vouchers in the settlement of their tude to Messrs. Ticknor & Fields for this accounts, are subject to the same stamps as other receipts.

Receipts of Attorney.—No stamp is re-tual "consideration of value," and not the mere nominal consideration, determines the alty sold.

Marriage Certificates.—A marriage certifiate issued by the officiating clergyman or nagistrate, to be returned to any officer of a tate, County, Town, &c., to constitute part of a public record, requires no stamp; but if it is to be retained by the parties, a five cent tamped must be affixed.

Landlord and Tenant.-A notice from a andlord to his tenant to quit possession of remises, requires no stamp.

ond to convey real estate requires stamps to ven to secure a surety from loss, or given or any purpose whatever, other than as seurity for the payment of a definite and certain sum of money, is taxable only as an agreement or contract. Upon every assign-ment or transfer of a mortgage, a stamp tax is ment or transfer of a mortgage, a stamp tax is required equal to that imposed upon a mortgage for the amount remaining unpaid; this tor is required upon every such transfer in writing, whether there is a sale of the mortgage or not; but no stamp is necessary upon the endorsement of a negotiable instrument, even though the legal effect of such endorsement, is to transfer a mortgage by which the instrument is secured. The official bonds of administrators, executors, and guardians, are subject to a stamp tax of $1 each, as bonds for the due execution or performance of the duties of an office. Receipts taken by administrators, executors, guardians, trustees, &c., to be used as vouchers upon the settle ment of their accounts, are subject to the tion deeds between tenants in common need not be stamped as conveyances, inasmuch as there is no case of realty, but merely a marking out, or a defining of the boundaries of the part belonging to each; but where money or other valuable consideration is paid by tition, there is a sale to the extent of such consideration, and the conveyance by the party receiving it should be stamped accordingly.-Exchange.

THE MEETING ON COURT WEEK .- Pursuant to the call of the Republican County Committee, the Union men of Bedford county assembled in Mass Meeting in the Court Bedford County Agricultural Society was held House, on Tuesday evening, April 23, and on motion of J. THE HISTORY OF THE SECRET SERVICE DURING THE REBELLION.—By General L. C. Baker, late Provost Marshal and Chief Destine of the War Department. Philadel after published as a regular monthly. Among the noticeable articles in the present number of the work of the war Department. The Galaxy closes its career as a lort nightly magazine with the May number. It will be consolidated and enlarged and hare after published as a regular monthly. Among the noticeable articles in the present number of the following the state of the second state of the sec and true. From the inception of the Rebel-lion until the days when Rebel rule was restablished in Washington under the patronage and protection of Andrew Johnson, Genral Baker was an active, efficient, and-useful servant to the country. What he saw and did during the eventful five years of the war, Great Britain and Russian America. orms the sterling and engrossing themes of his remarkable book.

From the nature of the service in which | 39, Park Row, New York. he General was constantly engaged, his deeds nd methods of action were but vagnely hined at in the chronicles of the day. But now that the necessity for secrecy no longer exists General Baker deems it fit and proper that his untrymen should learn the full details of his career, and they are to be found in this the most romantic volume which the war has roduced. The author has made a clean breast of it; there is "nothing extenuated, nor aught set down in malice." That these revetions will cause a great fluttering in the high fficial circles at Washington there is no fount; more strange things have transpired in he National Capital since the surrender of Lee, and General Baker has full knowledge of them all, -and the present publication will o doubt produce a rich crop of Congressional nvestigating Committees. The details of the conspiracy which culmi nated in the assassination of the lamented Lincoln, are here for the first time fully dirulged; the great crime is traced from its ineption until the guilty conspirators dangled between heaven and earth.

During the time of actual war General Baker saw much service, all of it of a myste rious, novel and highly interesting character The manner in which he circumvented the lisloyal schemes of contraband traitors, who despite military lines, furnished the Rebell with necessary supplies, is fully explained; traffic gave rise to many exciting and startling adventures, which read like legends of the feudal ages, but are literally true. The ronance of the war has not yet been written unity. The work is printed from new and beautiful type, on stout white paper, handsomely and substantially bound in black cloth tamp has been affixed, and the person who is embellished with a fine sfeel portrait of the stamps with the intent to evade the pro-provisions of the law. wood cuts, representing scenes of interest among the rest is a view of the burial place of Executors and Administrators .- The offi- J. In the early days of the system, before its immense importance was realized, such a view might have been excusable, however short sighted. It certainly prevailed to a very great degree, and led to the granting of many foolish charters, and to much future embarrassment. It is a view of the matter, however, which is no longer tolerable. It is only after many limitations and restrictions that railroads can be said to be private corporations at all. In common with banks, they hold relations to the community different from other corporations; for they possess many extraordinary powers, which in law are sometimes called prerogative franchises, and which partake of the quality of sovereignty, for "both currency and internal communication between different portions of a state are exclusively the prerogatives of sovereignty," Even more than banks they have a debt to talfil to the community, as well as to their stock-balders; they receive greater privileges, for which they are bound, in return, to a heavier consideration."
