SCHOOL ACCOUNTS. There appears to be a eneral negligence on the part of School Directors to publish the accounts of the recipts and expenditures of their respective stricts as required by the Act of Assembly. The State Superintendent of Common Schools states that this section of the law is as obligatory upon the Board of Directors as is the ection requiring them to keep open the chools, and a neglect to perform this duty ecording to the law will subject Directors to emoval by the courts, the same as the neglect of any other duty required by law.

THE WORK ON THE NEW RESERVOIR SEED to have come to a full stop. Nothing seems to have been done for months, and the half inished work unless soon looked after, will be found crumbling to the ground. The walls are already giving way; whether from bad workmanship in the building or want of care ince their completion, we are not prepared o say. Will the city fathers have the good ess to inform us whether or not we are to have any use of the new reservoir this season Or are we to be without water again when the dry season arrives? The tax-payers of the borough would like to know when, if ever, they are to derive any benefit from the oney invested in this enterprise.

A GOOD EXAMPLE. - Rev. A. V. Schenck f the Presbyterian Church, has been preaching a series of sermons on the observance of the Sabbath. Ministers of the gospel throughat this community would do well to emulate his example in illustrating the necessity for, and enforcing the duty of observing the fourth mmandment. There is no doubt but that a desperate effort will be made at the next of the Sabbath; and it becomes the moral watchmen of the country to be vigilant in unteracting all efforts to educate public seniment into favoring a relaxation of laws imposing moral restraints upon that portion of very community that would know no laws but such as ministered to its own avarice or

At a meeting of as many of the Committe s could be assembled, it was.

Resolved, That the ministers of the several churches in the county, be respectfully requested to announce to their congregations that contributions in aid of the Southern Famine Relief Fund, will be solicited on next Sabbath, 19th inst., or as soon thereafter as they may deem best.

We hope that the gentlemen appointed the above committee will see that ministers in their neighborhood are requested to announce this collection to their congregations. There is pressing need for help. White and black alike are crying to us for bread. Shall we turn a deaf ear to the cries of starvation?

Contributions can be sent to any of the committee residing in Bodford who will a once forward them to the Treasurer at Phila adelphia or may be sent direct to J. M en, Treasurer, S. E. Corner Walnut and Dock Streets, Philadelphia. - Bedford

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD.

We clip the following items from paper's ublished in neighboring counties:

JOHN PALMER, Ex. District Attorney for Bedford county, bas absconded with a large mount of bounty funds, &c., due soldiers widows, and others. We presume he has gone to pay Jeff Davis a visit to receive a son on Democracy .- Hol. Whig.

Burglary.-On Saturday night last be weeen 10 and 11 o'clock the drug stores of C. Shriver, & Co., 51 and 53 Baltimore reet were burglariously entered and robbed of what money remained in one of the drawers, amounting to five or ten dollars. The tkief effected an entrance by passing through the cellar, and thence into the wholesale house by a trap door. He then entered the retai tore, and while engaged in his depredations, one of the clerks entered for the purpose of filling a prescription, whereupon the thief became alarmed and hastily decamped .- Cumerland Civilian.

MAD DOGS IN PERRY COUNTY .- The Per ole's Advocate, published at New Bloomfield Perry county, of the 1st inst., says: We learn that several hogs and a young heifer belonging to Mr. Solomon Bernheisle, of Tyron township, were bitten by a mad dog and be came rabid. It is also reported that Mr. Mo ses Waggoner, living about Loysville, had to ession of our legislature to repeal at least a kill a horse that showed unmistakable symp tows of being mad. Jacob Kline, of Bridge port, Spring township, killed his dog last week, as it had been bitten and showed sighs of going mad.

Berlin came near being made a "temper ance" village last week. Remonstrar against granting license to two of the Hotel keepers were presented to the court, the third "Landlord" agreeing not to ask for a license in case the other two were refused. The thirsty citizens however prevailed on the | ded. remonstrants not to urge the matter, and on promises of circumspect conduct in the futhe lovers of the "ardent" in that ancien village will not be compelled, as they feared, be a little fire. So bad is the reputation of to establish a "jug line" to the neighboring
