Associations: Bedford Lodge, No. 329, A. Y. M., meets on the first Wednesday of each month in the Bedford Hall, on the corner of Pitt and Richard streets. Peace Branch, No. 114, I. O. O. F., meets on the first and third Wednesday evenings of each month, in the Bedford Hall. Bedford Lodge, No. 292, I. O. O. F., meets every Friday evening in the Bedford Hall. Bedford Lodge, No. 148, I. O. O. F., meets in the Odd Fellows' Hall, on Monday evening of each week.

Wanted:—A few hogs, goats, geese, &c., to stock the streets of the town and the public square. It is hoped that the borough authorities will see that the want is promptly supplied. If the City Fathers are too busily engaged to attend to little matters of this kind perhaps a little extra pay might induce the High Constable to lend his assistance.

Every Saturday, for June 1st, contains: Jacques Callot, A Railway Adventure, Recent Lectures and Writings of Emerson, Silcott of Silcotts, by Henry Kingsley, Priscilla's Lot, Stone Edge, The Rasal Column in the Newspaper, Foreign Notes, and the Coquette's Glove. Published by Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

Notice:—The head of the Johnston Tribune to have been the recipient of several donations, in the shape of green peas, lettuce, &c., together with a bottle of compound for beautifying the complexion. Certainly the donor was not possessed of the idea that editors, particularly such as our friend Swanwick, ever use or are in need of such an addition to their toilet.

Borough Taxes:—We are requested by the Burgess and Council to say that on account of the extraordinary repairs to the reservoir and streets, the taxes must be paid at once or the work stopped. It is to be hoped that the water will not be stopped off from the borough this summer on this account. Laboring men must be paid, and their families supplied, or the work cannot go on. J. W. W. Dickerson, Esq., has the old duplicate, and H. Nicodemus, Esq., the present one.

The Weather:—It seems to be an inextinguishable topic, made so, probably, from the fact that the "venerable clerk," has seen fit, lately, to give us a beautiful supply of the "variable" and "changeable." Seven day's rain, one day's snow, and two day's attempted sunshine, make up the calendar for the past ten days. To-day, (Tuesday) tastes of Spring, but "dark clouds still hang o'er us," enveloping the majestic mountain tops, and belching "more rain."

Why is it, that the day train on the Huntingdon and Broad Top Railroad is always behind time at Mt. Dallas while the night train arrives on time? The schedule gives the day train seventeen minutes more than the night train yet it never reaches Mt. Dallas on time. At present the day train is the only one that carries a mail and by reason of irregularity in the time of its arrival at Mt. Dallas the mail, instead of reaching Bedford at half past twelve o'clock as it should, frequently does not arrive until half past one and two o'clock.

Crop Prospects:—Wheat promises an abundant harvest. Oats are late and indications are that there will be a light crop. Corn is not all planted yet, while some, early planted in low ground, is reported rotting.

Fruit—Apples and pears have bloomed freely and promise a bountiful crop. Peaches have nearly all been frozen in the bud and in some localities the trees have been badly damaged by winter freezing. Grapes are putting forth very late and an average of half the buds have been winter killed. In many places the vines are badly damaged and will die to the ground. The past winter has been disastrous to small fruits generally, except the hardier varieties. Strawberries have bloomed freely and we have every prospect of an abundant supply of this early and delicious fruit.

The Atlantic Monthly, for June, has besides the continuation of Dr. Holmes's stories, Papers on the City of St. Louis, The Red School House, A Venetian Experience, Negro Spirituals, Poor Richard, Golden Chains, Shakespeare, The Man and the Dramatist, The Founders of Montreal, Russian America, and Among the Comedians. Published by Ticknor & Fields, Boston. These enterprising publishers announce the publication of the Complete Works of CHARLES DICKENS, in three different styles, named respectively "The Diamond Edition," of which five volumes are already published; "The Charles Dickens Edition," and "The Illustrated Library Edition," each of which will be begun in June. Messrs. Ticknor & Fields are the only publishers of Dickens's works in the United States from whom he receives any remuneration. For any information respecting Mr. Dickens's Works, address Ticknor & Fields, Publishers, 124 Tremont st., Boston.

Washington House:—We would call the attention of the travelling public to the fact that this well known establishment is being thoroughly renovated and refitted, and Mr. Dierl intends that his customers shall find it as represented, a "first class hotel."

A New Lodge, No 33, Independent Order of Good Templars, was organized in Clearville last week.

In its appropriate column we this week publish an obituary notice of Geo. Mullin, Esq., with a brief summary of his public career, as identified with the early history of this county.

The customers of John I. Noble's Woolen Factory, at Waterside, this county, will be waited upon by William H. H. Ralston, and offered an opportunity to exchange their wool for goods at fair prices. Wait until he calls.

Any person desiring a Scholarship of the Quaker City College, Philadelphia, one of the best Business Colleges in the United States, can be supplied, on reasonable terms, by applying to us.

We can not help noticing the rapid growth and progress of the organization of Good Templars in this place. Large additions in numbers are being made at each stated meeting and results betokening much good are made manifest.

"The Regulator."—Irvine & Staller are still selling their goods as cheap as ever. They have on hand the finest lot of Boots and Shoes ever brought to town, and their stock of Groceries, Queensware, &c., is hard to beat. Give them a call.

We notice that Bedford Street named in the proprietor as Shelburne, in the eastern part of the town, is in process of rapid gradation. This smacks of improvement, and that too, in the right direction. We hope Julian Street will not be forgotten in her time and place.

The Lewistown Gazette comes to us enlarged and shining like a new pin. We are very glad to see this evidence of prosperity in the Gazette. It is a very good and reliable Republican paper, and well deserves all the patronage bestowed upon it by the vigilant Republicans of this county.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the "Chalybeate House" William Chenoweth, proprietor, persons from a distance wishing to spend a few weeks in pleasant recreation will find the "Chalybeate" just the place, as the situation is delightful, and in all respect they are sure to be made comfortable.

RAILROAD CONVENTION.—The Fulton Republican says: In pursuance with authority invested in us, we announced that there will assemble a Convention at Harrisville, on Saturday, the 8th day of June next, at 10 o'clock, A. M., to consider the practicability of building a Railroad from the Broad Top Coal Region, to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at or near Hancock, Md., and to adopt initiatory measures for the same.

The several townships and boroughs of this and adjoining counties are urgently requested to send delegates, not exceeding six from each, to represent such districts in said Convention. The Public are earnestly solicited to attend. This is signed by Messrs. D. F. Christ, K. A. Moore and D. Hamilton, Committee.

JUNIATA SHAD.—Many of our readers are still incredulous as to the appearance of shad, not only in the upper waters of the Susquehanna, but in its tributaries, but every day affords ocular proof that the fishy monsters are returning to their old haunts, and that before many years shall be before the improvements of navigation interfered with their habitations. We were shown eight monster shad caught in the Juniata on yesterday morning, and brought to this city at noon the same day, by Dr. E. Francis, ticket agent at the Pennsylvania railroad office. They averaged nine pounds to the pair. D. F. was present when these shad were caught, and while on the ground he was informed that at Newport (where these were taken) a very large number had been seized this season.—Harrisburgh Telegraph.

JOHN DITTEL, landlord of the Black Horse Hotel, Lewistown, after receiving licenses posted the following unique notice: "To all whom it may concern: The undersigned desiring to obey all laws restraining the sale of liquors, respectfully requests all heads of families who have drunken sons, or husbands, wives or daughters, to give me the written notice required by law, forbidding me to sell such habitual drunkards liquor, with their signatures attached, and I pledge myself, my reputation, and my property, that such request shall be rigidly complied with. I desire to comply with all laws regulating my legitimate business, and in order to do so, request the assistance of all law abiding citizens. The members of temperance societies, who have annoyed me for liquor, will please me much by withdrawing their patronage from either me or the society."—Lewistown Gazette.

NICHOLAS NICKLEBY.—"The Diamond Edition" is an edition of which any author might be proud, even though he were inclined to set the highest price upon his writings. It is a miracle of cheapness and neatness. We examine it closely, and with abundant satisfaction, as we say so. We look at the fine, delicately tinted paper, the beautifully clear though exceeding small type, the clean regular printing, the pretty gravings, the neat regular folding, the pretty green and gold binding, and the nice solid feeling book which all these necessary concomitants go to make up—and we say again, deliberately, when we remember the price, that "The Diamond Dickens" is a miracle of cheapness.

If the complete works of the great novelist can be produced in elegant volumes of ten or more pages, on fine paper, with spirited illustrations, well printed and well bound, making a set of books that would ornament any library at the price of one dollar and a half a volume we think it likely that the people will tire of paying nearly or quite as much for worthless books miserably printed and not bound at all.

"The Pickwick Papers," "Our Mutual Friend," "David Copperfield," and "Nicholas Nickleby," have already been issued in the "Diamond" edition.

They will be followed by a volume a month until the series is complete.

The Illustrated Edition, in green morocco cloth, with a gold medallion portrait of the author, costs $1.50 per volume. An edition precisely similar in respect to printing and paper, but without the plates and bound in crimson morocco cloth, is sold at $1.25 per volume. The books are elegant enough for the richest, and cheap enough for the poorest.

"The Diamond Dickens" should find a place in every house in the land. The people who read the great English humorist and moralist can hardly fail to grow wiser and better. Published by TICKNOR & FIELDS, Boston.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE, for June, is received. Its contents are exceedingly rich; and to ladies who take an interest in the changes of fashions—and what lady does not?—make nothing of those who like good poetry, tales, sketches, and household hints, its attractions should be irresistible. The inducement to clubs are very strong.—T. S. ARTHUR & Co., 611 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

DIED. In Friends Cove, on the 18th inst., after a protracted illness, which she bore with Christian resignation, REBECCA, the beloved wife of Henry Dick, aged 52 years, 2 months, and 3 days.

At his residence in Harrisburg township, on the 16th of April, 1867, GEORGE MULLIN, Esq., in the 51st year of his age.

The subject of the above notice, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, but came to Bedford County at a very early age, and died a resident of this county. His parents were poor, and consequently unable to give him the benefits of a classical education, but endowed with spirit, ambition and energy, it was a natural result that he should succeed in despite of any lack of culture in this respect. He was one of that class of men to whom no obstacle seems insurmountable, no difficulty so great that it cannot be overcome by perseverance. Ever upright and honest, he won the esteem and respect of the entire community in which he lived. He was twice Sheriff of the County, receiving his first commission from Governor Joseph Heister on the 29th of May, 1832, and a second from Gov. George Wolf on Nov. 4, 1833.

In 1841 he was elected for three years to represent the 15th Senatorial District, composed of Bedford and Somerset Counties. As a legislator he was incorruptible and conscientious in the discharge of his duty, he never had an eye single to the interests of the Commonwealth, and to his constituency. During the six years of his official career as Sheriff, he was diligent and scrupulous in every instance, preferring to assume the debt himself rather than distress the poor, and was therefore truly styled "the poor man's friend." He had a wonderful retentive memory, and an inexhaustible fund of information; was thoroughly posted on the politics of the day, and could converse fluently on all subjects appertaining thereto, from an early time for four or five years, and up to the last days of his life. He was always a decided advocate of the Union—and during the late unfortunate and unjustifiable rebellion he stood by the Union, and with patriotic zeal, aided the Union cause in every way he could—contributing three of his own sons and a grand son to the active military service of the Government. In 1851 he was so much injured by a fall from his horse, as to be compelled to use crutches ever since, a period of over fifteen years. Last fall a fresh injury confined him to his bed. For a time his recovery seemed probable. But he had not the vigor of youth on his side, and he died on the 16th of April, 1867, at the age of 51 years, 2 months, and 3 days. His remains were interred in the Friends Cove cemetery, on the 20th inst. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church for many years, and was a zealous and faithful member of the same.

His sufferings were great but he bore them with as much fortitude as poor human nature can exercise under such circumstances. He seldom complained, and when he did, it was only when his pain was increased to an agony by lifting or moving, but ever submitted bowed to the hand that afflicted him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church for many years, and was a zealous and faithful member of the same.

From a Lady. WEST MILTON, Saratoga Co., N. Y., July 6, 1861. DR. HORTON.—Sir: I have long delayed writing to you my sincere thanks for the good you have done my daughter. I can truly say that nothing but the kind hand of Providence and your Bitters have saved her from an early grave. For three years I have been dosing her with syrups and all kinds of bitters that have been recommended to me for her, besides having two first rate physicians, but all seemed to do her no good, while I was searching the almanacs and all the newspapers that I could get hold of, in hopes of finding something that would suit her case. Accidentally there came part of a newspaper around some goods that I bought at the Spa. In looking over it I saw at a glance that your Bitters was just what she needed. I sent the next day to Ballston Spa and got a bottle of your Bitters. She commenced taking them, and such a change in one week with her appetite and the distress that vitals occasioned, and that burning in the stomach, I never saw in my life, as there was in her. She has taken three bottles and is now able to work all the time. I think there is a little derangement of the Liver. Please send me three bottles more, which I think will cure her entirely. We and others thought she had a disease of the heart, but that beating and fluttering that would almost stop her from breathing at times, is all gone.

Yours, with respect, MRS. AMANDA M'PERRISS. Dr. Scheenk's Mandrake Pills.—A Substitute for Calomel. These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and biliary ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

SCHEENK'S MANDRAKE PILLS cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the Liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weariness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these Pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is in perfect health, are on Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers' price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Scheenk's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
