J. M. SHOEMAKER, No. 1, Anderson's Row, has on hand a splendid stock of Dry Goods, Groceries, &c., which he proposes to sell CHEAF FOR CASH. In adopting a strictly cash method, he intends to have no bad debts, consequently those who pay the cash will not be charged a per centage to cover such debts. 'Cheap for cash or country produce'' is his P. Church, No. 39 Park Row, New York. motto, and those desiring bargains should call at No. 1, and satisfy themselves that such during the past few days has been very soltry with heavy rains. A succession of heavy showers and wind prevailed over the whole whole fields of grain. Not much damage is apprehended, as the wheat and rye are both filled, and therefore safe from any serious in-jury from falling. The wheat crop is report-ed the best we have had for many years in this county, and is now safe from any serious harm, unless attacked by rust. Farmers are just beginning to cut grass, which is about an average crop. Corn and oats, though late planted, are thriving finely, and give promise of a bountiful crop.
