BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1867. UNION STATE NOMINATION.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE, HENRY W. WILLIAMS, OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

UNION COUNTY NOMINATIONS.

FOR ASSEMBLY, JOHN T. RICHARDS, Fulton County, JOHN WELLER, Somerset County.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY. M. A. POINTS, Bedford Borough JOHN R. JORDAN, Bedford Borough WILLIAM KIRK, St. Clair. WILLIAM KARNS, Hopewell. ADAM ULLERY, Middle Woodberry. JOHN S. SWARTZ, Snake Spring REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVEN-

Our Ticket.

The proceedings of the Republican County Convention will be found in another column. This body met in the Court House on the afternoon of the fourth of July, and discharged its delegated duties by placing in nomination the following named persons for the respective offices to be filled at the approaching general election: District Attorney, Moses A. Points, of Bedford; Treasurer, J. R. JORDAN, Bedford; Commission er, WILLIAM KARNS, Hopewell; Poor Director, ADAM ULERY, Middle Woodberry; Auditor, John Swartz, Snake Spring; and Jury Commissioner, WILLIAM KIRK, St. Clair.

This is an excellent ticket and it will receive the hearty support of the entire Republican Party of the county. Let the friends of Republican principles go heartily to work to secure its triumphant election.

The Convention unanimously recomm ed, if we are correctly informed, John T. RICHARDS, Esq., of Fulton, and Col. JOHN Weller, of Somerset, for Assembly. This is a handsome compliment to the gentlemen who so faithfully represented us in the last House of Representatives. It is the manner in which honesty and uprightness should always be rewarded; it is a happy illustration of the fact that, when public men maintain their integrity the people stand ready to approve and endorse them. Our ticket is now complete. It is com posed of most admirable material; made up of men in whom the public can place un bounded confidence. To secure its election will require organization and vigilance. Buckle on your armor and prepare for the fight. The fossil remains of the Democratic party will be fully galvanized into action; and it will rattle its "dry bones" with its usual vigor, and endeavor to frighten the timid into its support; but it will be the mere old ghost fitted up anew, with scarcely decent apparel to cover its nakedness, hovering around its old haunts, the haunts political vice and charletanry. friends of Kepublican Institutions must not be deceived, but must go gallantly to work.

The resolutions cover the entire series of resolutions adopted by the late Republican State Convention at Williamsport, and meet the sanction of the Republican party throughout the State. We call the especial attention of our Republican readers to these resolutions on the outside of this paper. The Republican Party now, as here tofore, pursues no doubtful or equivocating policy, but declares to the world, in language not to be misunderstood, its principles and its objects. Its principles are based upon the requirements of the age in which we live, with a view to benefit the greatest number, and the dispensation of the largest civil, political and religious liberty.

OUR PLATFORM.

In the Senate there were seven more short principles are based upon the requirements of the age in which we senators than were needed for a quorum, and in the House there was an excess of thirty seven members over a quorum.

Before the calling of the roll, Mr. Sumner protested against the constitutionality of the resolution under which the session was convened. His point was that if there had not been a quorum present the presidence of the roll of the No.

That such guarantees against future treason must be demanded from the vanquished as will make treason odious and forever impossible, that the principles so triumphanly vindicated in war should be incorporated in, and made permanent by the organic law of the land, permanent by the organic law of the land, that our courts of justice should not be permitted to become the sanctuaries of traitors. that the reconstruction laws must be en forced not only in the letter but the spirit in which they were enacted, and that no opinions manufactured to order shall be permitted to interfere therewith, are plain permitted to interfere therewith, are plain issues upon which there need be no doubt in the mind of any man who desires, either the present or future, welfare, peace and prosperity of our country.

That it is necessary to guard the State Supreme Court against being composed of Judges hostile to the principles of republicanism, must be conceded by all, when we remember the efforts made to thwart the measures of the government enacted for the purpose of putting down the rebellion, by partisan judges throughout the country, prominent among which is that of Judge Sharswood the candidate of the copperhead party for judge of the Supreme Court, in which he pronounces our national perhead party for judge of the Supreme Court, in which he pronounces our national currency unconstitutional, an opinion delivered in the interest of treason, and the effect of which, if he had been clothed with power to enforce it, would have been to bankrupt the nation in the hour of its greatest peril. That such protection should be given to American industry as will prevent our laboring population, the hone and given to the thirds vote, and it was adopted by ninety to thirty-six. This strong vote caused some surprise among the extreme men, for it settled the fact of a very short session, say ten days or two weeks.

A resolution, with Thad Stevens as Chairman of a Committee of nine, was adopted by ninety to thirty-six. This strong vote caused some surprise among the extreme men, for it settled the fact of a very short session, say ten days or two weeks.

In the meantime a Senatorial caucus had decided to the same effect, so it is finally settled than the session will be brief and devoited wholly to the reconstruction guestion. ing population, the bone and sinew of the country, from being reduced to a level with foreign paupers, will be denied by none but assume to be. Such are the issues upon which we enter the campaign, according as they do with the past record of the party and the best interests of the State, we have no fear as to the result of the contest a against the medley of contradictions presented as a platform by the opposition. In such a ontest only the most culpable negligence can make the issue doubtful.

EXECUTION OF MAXIMILIAN.

On the 19th ult, the Emperor Maximilian fter trial was condemned and shot. Thus ends in a bloody tragedy the first attempt to establish an empire, ruled by a foreign poten tate, upon the North American continent. May all foreign intermeddlers with the affairs of this continent take warning, and hereafter seek fame and national aggrandizement in promoting the welfare of their own people rather than attempting to set up new lynasties on these shores. The courts of Austria, France and England are in mourning for the deceased Emperor. Austria justly mourns the loss of a member of the Imperial family, France, the failure of her cheme of national aggrandizement and conjuest, and England may well regret the part she-played in getting the unfortunate Maximilian involved in the political difficulties that have finally brought him to his tragic end. These will be the only sincere mourn ers over the simultaneous end of Empire and We observe a number of our cotemporaries shedding crocodile tears over the defunct Emperor. As a mere man we regret Maximi'ian,s execution; but we cannot unmindful of the facts, that he was a usurper, a stranger forced upon a strange peo ple as a ruler, by foreign bayonets, and that he caused even better men than himself to be shot, for no other crime than resisting with force a foreign usurper. We depreca ted his coming, he refused to depart when he saw the inevitable failure of his infamous attempt to set up an Empire; he murdered others, and the fate he has met is no more than he deserved, therefore we cannot pretend to mourn over him. As an enemy of our country he came in the hour of our trial to establish an Empire on our border and there await the moment of our dissolution, ready to appropriate the fragments of the last republic. Though he and his friends have been disappointed, he was none the less an enemy of liberal ideas and free institutions, who threw himself across the pathway of the world's progress, and in ena fate, which we cannot regard as untimely. Judge Sharswood in Favor of Repudia-When brave men were rushing to peril their lives in defense of the Government. and when those who had the means were willing to place them at the disposal of the Government, trusting in good faith that they would be repaid, at that moment George W. Sharswood, from the bench of one of the highest courts of the State, rendered an opinion looking to the repudiation of the national debt. It was the most wicked blow struck at the time at the existence of the Government, AND HAD IT NOT BEEN FOR THE STERN AND TRUE LOYALTY OF THE PEO-TO THE NATION. In view of this fact, is Judge Sharswood fit to be trusted? Let the people answer this question at the polls,

The Rebels Repudiate their Copperhead Friends.

[From the Charlottsville (Va.), Chronicle. We have no apology to make for the Radical party without regard to its course owards the South. There is, it appears to is, nothing that can be said to excuse it. * * We know that the Republican party * We know that the Republican party have determined to break down all opposition at the South, and to make it contribute to the strength of the Republican party. From this conviction there is a practical thing which the South might do that would improve its treatment. One cause of the wielent course of the republicans forwards the South is the constant irritation kept up at the Northern Democratic press, for campaigning Northern Democratic press, for campaigning Northern Democratic press, for campaignin purposes, keeps up a perpetual hot fire against the Republicans—advises the South to resist negro suffrage and the reconstruction bill, calls on us to become martyrs, &c., &c. President Johnson gives countenance to this party, and by some ill-advised interference from time to time stirs up from his to this party, and by some ill-advised interference from time to time stirs up from his wakeful naps the Radical monster. There is, in short, a regular war of bitter words going on all the time between the two Northern parties, and the Southern whites are identified in the Northern mind with the Northern Democracy, who pretent to champion our cause. What is the tonsequence? The lash falls incessantly, and at intervals the serew is given another turn. The idea is, we must keep these Southern Democrats well under the foot or they will rally and cooperate with their Northern allies. That is the train of thought.

We, therefore, do repeat what we have already frequently called attention to, that the first step for the Southern people to take is to disclaim all connection with the Northern Democracy. We have not one particular may be reported to us for adjustment.

HALF WAY BETWEEN BENNETT & CO., TOWER HALL. them Democracy. We have not one part cle more respect for the Northern Democracy than we have for the Republican They got us into our troubles, and based abandoned us. And they are doing us ir finite injury now by obstructing the settle ment of reconstruction. They use us merely as so much political capital, and are no true friends. But whether friends or foes, they have no power, and are a perpetual nuisance. We have got to make terms with the Re nave no power, and are a perpetual nursance.

We have got to make terms with the Republican party—they are the Government, and will be for a good many years.

Now let us in public meetings lay it down that we do not intend to act with the Northern Democracy.

We shall now make our position clear by adding that we (individually) are not going to the Republicans. A great many people ate; a great many respectable people who act chiefly from considerations of policy are: we are not. If the Republicans will treat us properly, we will in the federal elections vote for the best man they put up; but we shall not join the party.

Policy suggests that the Southern people is not true; we do not see how any conscientious man can describe himself by a name which is not true; we do not see how any Southern man can describe himself by a name which is not true; we do not see how any Southern man can put on the livery of the Republican party without losing his self-respect.

But the thing is going to be done by a great many; people do not reason nicely; oaths, names, emblems are barriers of straw where a powerful inducement draws a man to break through them.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Surrat Trial—Opening of the Defense.
— Death of Maxmillian Confimred by our Consuls. — Washington, —July 6 1867

WASHINGTON,—July 6 1867
The Surratt trial to day opened with the argument of the counsel for the defense, which took the broadest ground in favor of the innocence of the prisoner. The counsel claimed that Surratt was not in the assassination plot, and that he was four hundred miles from Washington on the day of the assassination. They also declared that the innocence of Mrs. Surratt would be fully proven. In the frequent allusions to her SECOND DAY—SENATE.

It is useless for State Legislatures to pass laws for the preservation of the public health, if the great law of self-preservation, which depends for its enforcement upon the will of the individual, is suffered to remain a dead letter.
