

Farm, Garden & Household.

HYGIENE OF THE FARM.

The title of your valuable journal, the Farm and Fireside, while it seems to render prominent, as its special object, the advancement of that greatest of all national interests, Agriculture...

yet, after a few weeks active exertion and exposure in hunting, marching, or harvesting, he can flourish upon fat pork and the aboriginal apple pie that we signed and fought for...

PRETTY POOR PRACTICES.

"Cosmos," who edits the rural column of the Saturday Evening Post, thus enumerates a list of pretty poor practices:

To purchase in town 500 loads of livestock manure, and suffer 600 of better home made manure to run to waste.

To attempt to fatten three hogs into 1200 pounds of pork on just as much feed as would keep two nicely growing.

To estimate agricultural facts as arant humbugs, and spend three days every month saving the country at political meetings.

To depend upon borrowing your neighbors' rakes, mowers, and all sorts of implements in haying and harvest time.

To house up a thousand bushels of grain, waiting for a rise, till one-tenth has gone to feed rats and mice, and the remainder smells like the essence of rat, and the price is down 40 per cent.

To plant out a big orchard of choice fruit trees with a first thought of money-making, and leave them to do or die.

To keep two fancy five hundred dollar carriage horses, and pay six dollars a day for a team to plow.

It is positively a poor practice to call "book learning" all both, to ignore news and agricultural papers, and attempt to keep up an even yoke with your progressive neighbors by main strength and stupidity.
