A MAN named James Artheurs was killed by being run over by a freight train at Bell's Mills, on the 3d inst. He was about sixty years of age, and was formerly a resident o Bedford co.

Our farmers are now basily engaged in harvesting their wheat crop, which is said to be the best that has been raised in this coun ty for many years. The crop in the adjoining counties also comes fully up to the ex pectation and promises an immense yield.

WE understand that one of our enterprisin citizens has on foot a project for the erectio of a steam planing mill near town. We hope the scheme may be successful, as we are much in need of something of the kind in this locality.

JOHN W. THE condition of the streets in some parts of the town is truly a shame to the inhabi-tants of the immediate locality where such nuisances abound. Stacks of wood, old dilapidated wagons, and like rubbish fill the street, and make it inconvenient, and in some places impossible, for vehicles to pass others, whilst piles of lumber, store boxes, &c., render the pavements almost impassable. Now, though we get a arge number of exchanges, we would not have any one labor under the false impression that we get them for nothing, and that we have no other use for them than to give away to such as are too stingy to subscribe for their own. Our papers cost us annually from two to three hundred dollars. This is not a small item to give away, but it is nothing compared with the tax upon our time and patience caused by these paper beggars. They will therefore take notice that we will sell them newspapers, old or new, our own or exchanges, for cash; but that we have quit the business of giving them away. We can-

[TRANSLATION.†] To John Anderson, M. D., these verses are inscribed as a token of Friendship by the author James Ross.

ON THE MEDICINAL SPRING OF BEDFORD

Prom the base of a lofty mountain issuing, 0 fountain, thy profusion of waters, thou sendest forth in silence from thy fountain, deep in earth's womb embowelled: them mingling with the stream which murnurs below, thou loosest.

No verdant plains nor verdant fields are nourished by thy stream irriguous. Nor flocks nor younglings of the herd dest thou with food supply. To no prowling beasts of prey do thy shady, thy romantic banks, afford shelter or refuge.

Hence, blooming virgins gay, matrons old and aged sires, and youths lately in wellock joined, greatly delight to saunter along thy streams, to quaff thy healing waters.

While, with joyful satisfaction, the valetudinarian in the waters of this fountain laves himself, the diseases of the breast, the pains of the head the distresses of the side and deafness—all shrink from the healing efficacy of the healthful element.

Let those drink whom the gout torments, and those whom a distressing cough annoys,—diseases which yield not to the art or care of the physician however learned. In drinking they certain aid shall find.

The humble cottager and the wealthy lord, however learned. In dribking they certain also shall find.

The humble cottager and the wealthy lord, however weakened by disease, shall reinvigorate their systems by drinking these waters. Tender eyes shall regain their strength, lost powers of digestion shall again return, and the enf. sbled loins with new strength be girded.

Let the sons of leisure and votaries of amusement on these health preserving waters regale themselves. The vigorous young mar and the rosy checked maiden from them receive no harm. Rich and poor innumerous can well attest the truths I sing.

HUNTINGDON AND BROAD TOP RAILEOAD.

The following highly complimentary notice of this road has been handed us by a gentleman whose fine discrimination in matters of this kind is not to be questioned. We sometimes hear of some nervous old creature who prespecimen to the "fattened grunter," are al- fers thirty miles of slow coaches to this route, (whose case is to be pitied) but in general the persons who try this road find it, as it is, perfeetly safe and satisfactory. The compliment s well deserved:

is well deserved:

MESSAS, EDITORS: Have you traveled over the H. & B. T. M. R. R. lately? If you have you no doubt observed a very great improvement. Within a few weeks I have gone over it six times and with as much comfort as could be expected on a short road. When you leave Mt. Dallas you can rely upon arriving at Huntingdon at the promised time "sharp and so vice versa. In other words the trains both ways are run according to the schedule, and when that is done travelers are satisfied even though the speed is not so great as that of the lightning line on the Pennsylvania Central. There are now no annoying delays at the different stations. The trains stop to let off and take on passengers, but there is no waste of time. What has to be done is done promptly, and you feel that all the employees off and take on passengers, but there is no waste of time. What has to be done is done promptly, and you feel that all the employees are so, to such an extent, when allowed to roam at will, that, setting aside the mischief done gardens, trees, shrubbery, &c., the kitchen is not exempt from their ravages. We know a case wherein somebody lost a dinner, and the pets left without even tas much as expressing thanks. There is but one remedy—a mixture of powder and lead, administered through the instrumentality of an elongated instrument used in war.

Good Advice.—The farmer who waits till his neighbor is done to borrow or hire his plough, to put out his cour cron—or deneads.

Among the master of time at the of time to get here and have a good night's rest. This gratifying state of affairs is attributable, I am informed, to the energy and usiness capacity of Mr. McKillips, the present superintendent, a quiet, unobtrusive gentleman, who is certainly the "right man in the right place." In going over the "trestleman" the work was done under the direction of Mr. Falton, the Chief Engineer of the company, who does skilfully and well whatsoever the undertakes.

Among the master of time. What has to be done is done to be done is done to the complex are attending to their business like men developed are attending to their bus

He was killed at Pocotaligo, South Carolina the time, and who afterwards creditably served a full term of three years in the same com pany his father so nobly sacrificed his life in FROM the boyish "ma wants a few old leading. The memory of Capt. Wehn and his gallant son, will ever be cherished by those of their late comrades in arms, who knew in them the characteristics of brave soldiers and true patriots.

> Has the ordinance, passed by the Borough authorities last Spring, requiring property holders to build or repair the pavements in front of their properties been rescinded, or is the miserable condition of some of the walks in direct contempt of that act? We be lieve that such improvement, if neglected by the owners of property when improvement is necessary, was to be done by the authorities at the expense of the holders. There is certainly room for improvement in some le calities, and that, too, on the property of reasonable time, we pledge ourselves, by exchange, persons who are conceded to be enterprising men, and generally take the lead in "po improvements." Why is this?-"a law held in contempt is worse than no law at all."

Did you see the new window on Juliana not consent to be made a public convenience Street? Yes, and bought some of the fines of because we choose to extend a courtesy to goods out of it I ever bought. Some of our Cotemporaries seem to thin that the triumph of their cause depended, like the fate of Jericho, upon the amount of noise made-in these days of refinement and luxury an article of real intrinsic merit is soon ap reciated; hence the unbounded and unparal eled success of PLANTATION BITTERS.

This remedy has ever and always been found eliable. As a gentle stimulant and tonic appetizer it cannot be excelled. It is no doubt a sovereign remedy for stomachic disorders for Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, and in stimu ating a healthy appetite.-2. t.

The Laws of Health.

It is useless for State Legislatures to pass law for the preservation of the public health, if the great law of self-preservation, which depends for its enforcement upon the will of the individual, is suffered to remain a dead letter.

There is scarcely an adult member of the comnunity, of either sex, in this country, who has not seen the testimony in favor of HOSTET-TER'S STOMACH BITTERS, turnished over their own signatures by persons of acknowledged eminence in science, literature, act, commer and every department of business and profession al life. These witnesses have declared in the most explicit terms that the preparation is a safe-guard against epidemics, a sovereign remedy for yspepsia, a valuable anti-bilious medicine, romoter of appetite, a genial and harmless stimu lant, a good acclimating medicine, a strengthener of the nerves, a general invigorant, a protecti against the deleterious offects of malaria and im pure water, and that it imparts a degree of vigor and activity to the vital forces which is not communicated by any other of the tonics and stom-achies in use. Under these circumstances the self-preservative law of nature should teach every rational person who, either by reason of inherent debility or in consequence of exposure to un-wholesome influences, is in peril of losing the greatest of all temporal blessings, HEALTH, the importance of using the BITTERS as a defensive medicine. Dyspepties who neglect to give it a trial are simply their own enemies. It is guaranteed to cure Indigestion in all its forms, and the billious and nervous will find nothing in the whole range of official and proprietary medicines which will afford them the same relief. July 121 m.

Dr Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup. This great medicine cured by Dr. J. H. Schenck the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His phy cians pronounced his case incurable, when he ommenced the use of this simple but powerful emedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been appre-hended, for all the symptoms quickly disappear ed, and his present weight is more than two hun red pounds. Since his recovery he has devoted his attention clusively to the cure of Consumption, and the iseases which are usually complicated with it, and he cures effected by his medicines have been ver umerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenel ties weekly, where he has large concourse of pa ents, and it is truly astonishing to see poor cor ptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are generally all reuired in curing Consumption. Full directions without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is cenvent it is best to see him, He gives advice free but for a thorough examination with his Respir meter his fee is three dollars.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the Doctor, one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other as he now is in perfect health, are on Government stamp. Sold by all Druggists and Dealers' price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for lvice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Prin cipal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadel
