Our deceased friend was a fast prisoner to disease of protracted and intense sufferings during the latter years of his life. For many months he was deeply sensible of his daily sink elf, as "being suffered by Providence to continue n that condition, that he might be perfected brough such trials and be prepared for eternity. His patience, and resignation to that will were well marked by all who had the privilege of con versing with him in last days. But at length the long looked for hour came, and he departed from the troubles of the flesh and entered on his rest.

He was a consistent member of the Evangelica autheran Church—and much esteemed and loved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances, as the unusual attendance, that followed his remains to their last resting place, testifies.
