JUST HOW TO DO IT.—An exchange says. If you wish to keep your town from thriving, turn a cold shoulder to every young mechanic or beginner in business—kill him off if you can. Look up to every new comer with a scowl and discourage all you can; if that won't do decry his work and go abroad for wares of his kind rather than give him your money. Last but not least refuse to patronize the village paper. "Then go to seed." There is no more effectual way to retard the growth of a town than this.

NORMAL SCHOOL.—This institution will soon close its most prosperous session it has had for years. Under the Superintendency of Mr. H. W. Fisher it has been a grand success.—An announcement of its closing exercises will be found elsewhere. We cannot close this notice, however, without giving the students a word of good advice. Be careful, what ever else you forget, to go to the cheap and fashionable clothing and gents furnishing Emporium of Berkstresser & Co., and secure your under clothing, hosiery, gloves, ties, overcoats, dress coats, &c., &c., before entering upon the arduous duties before you during the severe winter upon whose verge we are standing.

PENNSYLVANIANS GOING TO VIRGINIA.—The Hagerstown Mail, of this week, says: For several days past there have been a great many arrivals in Hagerstown, of Dauphin, Lancaster and York county farmers, on their way up the Valley of Virginia, in search of farms. They are all of that substantial, industrious and intelligent class of agriculturists who have made the eastern part of Pennsylvania a garden spot. Many of them are accompanied by their wives, whose judgment in the selection of a farm they very justly place a high estimate upon. The great proportion arrived in the cars of the Cumberland Valley railroad, but on last Friday a large wagon, expressly gotten up for the occasion, and drawn by six splendid gray horses, passed through town with about a score of purchasers and their wives aboard. Virginia will be benefited by the introduction of this population.

SALE OF PROPERTY.—George Blymyer & Son have sold out their large hardware store to Mr. T. M. Lynch, and the business will hereafter be conducted in his name. These Junior member of the late firm, intends we are informed, starting in the business in some other locality, whilst the Senior goes into the firm of B.M. Blymyer & Co., dealers in Stoves, Tinware, &c.

N. Lyons & Sons have disposed of their Tannery, in Bedford township, to Colonel McComb of Delaware, for the sum of $6,500.

Elias M. Fisher has purchased the Post Office building of Post Master Loyer for the sum of 5,000. Mr. Loyer intends, we believe, removing East.

Mrs. McCalla has purchased the property in which Mr. E. M. Fisher now resides for the sum of $2,000.

INFORMATION is wanted in regard to the time when, place where and circumstances under which Peter Shedron, late a private in Company H, 22nd Regiment of Pennsylvania Cavalry volunteers was wounded, and from the effects of which he died at Fredrick City, Maryland, on or about the 5th day of July, 1864. Shedron became detached from his command while on a retreat from Martinsburg, Virginia, on the 3d of July, 1864 and joined a wagon train going through to Fredrick City. Any person acquainted with the facts in the case will confer a great favor upon his widow and orphans by communicating them to the editors of the INQUIRER. tf.

INJURED.—An aged gentleman, residing with and a relative, we believe, of Dr. Geo. Anderson, was thrown from a wagon in the vicinity of "The Arandale," on Monday and pretty badly injured. His face was badly cut, but as far as we can learn, nothing serious is apprehended.

THE BEDFORD LYCEUM.—The punctual attendance of all the members of the Lyceum, together with those who desire its success, is requested on Saturday Evening at 6½ o'clock, at the Court House. Let all come.

For the Inquirer
Autumn.

There came the autumn, all in yellow clad,
As though he joyed in his plenteous store,
Laden with fruits that made him laugh, full glad.
That he had banished hunger.—
Spencer's Fairy Queen.

Yes, Autumn is here; bright laughing, gorgeous sky appanelled autumn. Here in his pride and glory. Here with his frosty morning and sun shiny days. Here with his fruitful orchards, richly colored forests. Here to be welcomed by young and old.

A sound breaks upon the ear. It is the noise of children. Wild with excitement they roam the woods in search of nuts. The farmer is storing away his golden apples and the vintner gathering the fruit of the vine. Here the piece of the one is expressed for a grateful beverage, there the colored liquid, the life of the other flows into the vat. Soon it will find a place in the dark cellar. It may yet strengthen the weak or perhaps be served on the sacramental board at some future day.

Yes, Autumn is here, and what a feast the eye enjoys! How richly the forest is clothed! How delicate the coloring of its robe! How pleasing the variety which appears! There is beauty, beauty all around.

But while this season brings so much to please, it also suggests sober thoughts. The beauty nature wears is fading beauty. Soon the leaves shall fall and the chill winds whistle through the naked branches.

The season suggests thoughts of the change that awaits us, awaits us all, and may not be far off. It speaks solemnly of the time when beauty shall fade from the cheek, when light shall vanish from the eye, when strength shall fail the active limb and we lie down in the dust.

When the spring time comes again the forest will be clothed afresh and the birds sing as sweetly as ever. To which shall we awake from the sleep of the grave? And how shall we appear on the resurrection morn? Shall it be in "clean robes, white robes, washed in the blood of the Lamb?"

'When I gaze on the valleys of death.
On life and its varieties, which all are so brief;
"And think that poor mortals but vapors of breath,
An falling to moulder like autumn's bright Leaf.
On faith's burnished mirror, reflected afar,
I see a new life—God giveth the soul;
And as death draweth near, so brighten the star.
Becometh that leads to this life's precious goal,"

H. J.

Metcutio said of his wound,
"It was not as deep as a well, or as wide
As a gate, but it would do."
PLANTATION BITTERS will not raise the dead
But they cure the sick, exalt the depressed,
And render life a thing to be enjoyed.

We believe there are millions of living witnesses to this fact. Dyspepsia is a horrid disease, but Plantation Bitters will cure it. It is a most invigorating tonic, for weakness and mental despondency. Those who are "out of sorts" should try Plantation Bitters.

The Truth about Dyspepsia.

Whoever says that dyspepsia is incurable, tells a—that is to say, makes an egregious mistake. More than ten thousand aggravated cases have been cured by HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, while the number that have been prevented from coming to a head, by the same means, is incalculable. In this season of the year, when the appetite is sometimes too vigorous for the comfort and safety of the stomach, indigestion is most prevalent and most distressing. Is the appetite to be balked to accommodate the digestive organs? Not so; for then the frame would lack its due proportion of nutriment. The thing to be done is to STRENGTHEN THE STOMACH, tone the liver, and put the bowels in perfect order. Nothing will do this so effectually, so rapidly, so quietly, so pleasantly, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This potent preparation trims and balances the system, and clothes it as it were, with defensive armor. Chronic dyspepsia, liver complaint, and fever and ague are never known to attack those who are wise enough to invoke the aid of this great preventive. oct4

Dr Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup.

This great medicine cured by Dr. J. H. Schenck the proprietor, of Pulmonary Consumption, when speedy death appeared to be inevitable. His physicians pronounced his case incurable, when he commenced the use of this simple but powerful remedy. His health was restored in a very short time, and no return of the disease has been apprehended, for all the symptoms quickly disappeared, and his present weight is more than two hundred pounds.

Since his recovery he has devoted his attention exclusively to the cure of Consumption, and the diseases which are usually complicated with it, and the cures effected by his medicines have been very numerous and truly wonderful. Dr. Schenck makes professional visits to several of the larger cities weekly, where he has large concourse of patients, and it is truly astonishing to see poor consumptives that have to be lifted out of their carriages, and in a few months healthy, robust persons. Dr. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup, Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are generally all required in curing Consumption. Full directions accompany each, so that any one can take them without seeing Dr. Schenck, but when it is convenient it is best to see him. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer his fee is three dollars.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers' price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

DIED.

IN MEMORIAM.—On Wednesday, Oct. 16, 1867, in the town of Bedford, at the residence of her son, Isaac Mengel, Mrs. ELIZABETH MENGEL was translated by sudden death from the trials and conflicts of earth to her happy and peaceful home in heaven. The cause of her death was a sudden visitation of apoplexy, enjoying good health until within two hours of her death. She was a consistent and much beloved member of the Ev. Luth. church, into which she was baptized in infancy. At an early age she confirmed those vows in York, Pa., and united with the church under the pastoral care of Rev. J. G. Schmucker, Sen., D. D. She was sixty-seven years, ten months and ten days of age. Her religious experience was of the ripest and deepest kind. Her fidelity and humility were well marked. Her greatest joys were to read her Bible, and faithfully attend upon the ordinances of God's house, to refresh and invigorate her christian character and graces. To the day of her death she was faithful to her master and religious duties. She leaves many mourning friends and acquaintances.

"None knew her, but to love her,
None named her, but to praise."

We sorrow for her departure: but our consolation is that our loss is her inexpressible gain.
