the wealth and social power of the State Wm. D. Kelley and many others in this were nearly all against us. The Press was against us, bitterly, furiously, venomously, Even The Richmond Whig, which would be Republican if it durst, was coerced into supporting the "Conservative" ticket at Convention and to elect "Conservatives" franchised for conspicuous treason by the Reconstruction acts, and these, we trust,

It is instructive to note that the most Radical counties and districts are those which, in the times now happily past, were the strongholds of Slave-driving Democracy. Halifax, Brunswick, Mecklenburg, Louisa, Caroline, &c., &c., were Democratic Gibraltars, when none but slaveholders and their white satellites were voters; but, now that the Laboring Class also vote, they are citadels of Radicalism. Rockingnam, Shenan-doah, Page, Warren, &c., which were Democratic without being preponderantly slaveholding, constitute the only notable exceptions to the general rule. We may joy fully expect to see the districts heretofo represented in Congress by Meade, Goode, Dromgoole, and other vehemently pro-Slavery fanatics, henceforth honoring and bles sing the Republic by sanding to her counc apostles of Liberty and Equal Rights for All.

will, upon giving evidence of present loyalty, soon be restored to all the rights of freemen.

And it will be found that the Convention just elected is not only Radical, but, in the truest sense, Conservative also. We did hope to see Gov. Peirpoint's name head the Republican ticket in Richmond, for we believe it would have insured the choice of that ticket by a large majority, and would have been a pledge to the people generally that Liberty for All would be asserted and secured without giving just cause of alarm to any. Mr. Hunnicutt has probably said some of the harsh things about Rebels that are attributed to him; but we are confider that, should he seek to inaugurate a polici of confiscation, or anything like it, he would find himself in a very small minority. The Convention will strongly assert the Equal Rights of Men; but it will be moderate and cautious in so using the triumph of genuine democracy as not to endanger its perpetuity. Reconstructed Virginia takes her place among Republican States, and there she will remain. Her aristocracy, stimulated by exaggerated reports of the recent achievments of its confederates in California, Ohio, and Pennsylvania, did its very utmost to retain its ancient power and prestige, but, happily, in vain. Henceforth, Virginia, which embosoms the ashes of so many gallant sons of the Republic, consecrates herself to the maintenance of that Liberty and Union which they laid down their lives to maintain. Long live the regenerated Old Dominion!-New York Tribune.

THE Republicans have a majority in both branches of the Pennsylvania Legislature, fridge, of Northampton, are also understood to be candidates for the Clekship. Geo. W. Hammersly will of course be re-elected Clerkof the Senate. For State Treasurer, ex-Senator Connell, of Philadelphia: Gen. W. W. Irwin, of Beaver, and Gordon F. Mason, of Bradford, will be candidates. Mr. Kemble, the present State Treasurer, does not desire a re-election.

THE PENSION LAWS.

The press of the country is beginning to speak out upon the disgraceful delays which last. Probably not six journals in all, and characterize the granting of Pensions to widows and orphans. It is time that the by the Republican colors, while sixty or attention of Congress were directed to this by the Republican colors, while sixty or eighty were doing their utmost to defeat a convention and to elect "Conservatives" the Delaware County Republican is to the Convention and to elect "Conservatives" thereto. The leading organ of the Reaction called lustily on those Whites who employed Blacks to discharge every one who should vote the 'Radical ticket; yet ninety nine in every hundred Colored voters would vote no other, and nineteen of every twenty would not be deterred from veting. And thus every district which had a majority of Colored voters on its registry with several others, has chosen Radicals to the Convention, giving us a clear majority of at least twenty delegates, and carrying the Convention by over Ten Thousand—perhaps by Twenty Thousand—Republican majority. The White preponderance over the Blacks in the State exceeds Twenty Thousand men, of whom not more than Six Thousand are disfranchised for conspicuous treason by the Reconstruction acts, and these, we trust, We do not assert that the office is under the control of the numerous pension agents that swarm at the capitol, but we do say that the acts of those employed therein indicate such agency. The press should agitate an amendment to the pension laws and a reform in their administration until both these important objects are consumated. Justice without tardiness must be done to those who have been made widows and orphans by the late rebellion. Let Congress take up the subject at an early period of the session and so amend the laws granting pensions that those who administer them may not be in doubt as to the proper manner in which they should be disposed.

It may not be inappropriate for me to remark that I had no part in promoting this meeting. I was not consulted as to the propriety of the measure, but, like most of you, an here in response to the published call, to which are appended the names of some of the most thorough Radicals and most enterprising and substantial business men of our ward. It afforded me pleasure to find my convictions of duty confirmed by those who signed the call, and I am here to express my approval of the nomination of General Grant for the Presidency.

Mr. Kelley then said that he did not believe in the doctrine of availability, which made Tyler and Johnson President; nor did he consider the nomination of Grant necessry to secure a Republican victory. He said he would rather fall with a forlorn hope defending my principles than share any temporary triumph that might be achieved by abandoning the least important of them. Nor was he in favor of making Grant President as a reward for his transcendent military services. The Presidency could add no lustre to his official title of General of the armies of the United States, one which no one but Washington had borne before.

General Grant will not only be available but irresistible as a candidate. But why I desire his nomination is that during his Presidency he will secure the enduring ascendancy of our principles by promoting the embodiment of the most advanced of them in statuary and constitutional provisions, and it has a transported of present the best.

HAIL! VIRGINIA!

The Mother of States records her verdict in favor of loyal Reconstruction on the basis prescribed by Congress! The struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the Republican radicals Thaddeus Stevens.

We believe both Morrissoy and Heonan are wived, we cannot, therefore, divine who is to be the lucky possessor of so much crinoline and camel's hair.

THE entire drift of public sentiment, from a Republican stand point, is in favor of loyal Reconstruction on the basis prescribed by Congress! The struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous, and the result doubtful; for the wealth and social power of the struggle has been arduous. of the Republican party as both a political misfortune and a national calamity, a shert review of the facts and a few reflections thereon are deemed not out of place. The most diligent and persistent efforts to arouse our friends from apathy, to impress upon them the importance of the contest, the danger of defeat, and the necessity for action to avert it, failed to produce the usual and desired results. The immediate cause of our failure is apparent from the official returns, compared with those offormer years. In 1865 the Republican vote was.....238,400 "the Democratic vote was.....215,740 that the total vote of 1867 falls short of the vote of 1866, 62,800.

It thus appears that the total vote cast in 1866 exceeded, that of 1865, 143,330; and that the total vote of 1867 falls short of the vote of 1866, 62,800.

On an examination of the details it further appears that the decrease this year is 40,710 on the Republican vote of 1866, and a decrease of only 22,090 on the Democratic vote of 1866. Or, in other words, there were over 18,000 more Republicans who did not go to the polls at the last election than there were Democrats. There are eight connties in the State, viz; Allegheny, Bradford, Crawford, Eric, Lancaster, Philadelphia, Schuylkill, and York, in every one of which more Republican voters remained at home than were required to elect Judge Williams; and in both Allegheny and Philadelphia there were more than four times as many absentees as were needed to give us the State. But, let us "never despair of the Republic." Reconstruction on the basis of universal liberty and impartial justice must yet be accomplished; and there can be no doubt the Union Republican party is as strong to day, on all great National issues, and as determined to accomplish its mission, as at any time during the late six years. Our duty is plair, and is well stated in a recent private letter from our standard bearer in the late better from our standard-bearer in the late-contest, as follows: "Instead of being dis-pirited we should gird up our loins, and burnish our armor, for the next year's Presi-dential contest, and make such use of this defeat as to secure a decisive and overwhel-ming victory."

By the President of the United States - A Proclamation.—In conformity with a reestablished on national consent and approval, I, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, do hereby recommend to my fellow-citizens, that Thursday, the 28th day of November next, be set apart and observed throughout the republic as a day of November 1 the province of the control of t National Thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty Ruler of nations, with whom are lominion and power, and who maketh peace n his high places. Resting and refraining in his high places. Resting and retraining from secular labors on that day, let us revently and devoutly give thanks to our heavenly Father for the mercies and blessings with which He has crowned the now closing year. Especially let us remember that He has covered our land with greatly needed and very abundant harvest; that He has caused industry to prosper, not only in our fields, but also in our workshops, in our mines, and in our forests. He has permitted us to multiply ships upon our lakes and rivers, and upon the high sens, and at the same time to extend our iron roads so far into the secluded places of the continent and to guarantee speedy over-land intercourse between the two oceans. He has in clined our hearts to turn away from dometic contentions and commotions, consequent upon a distracting and desolating civil war, and to walk more in the ancient ways of loyalty, conciliation, and brotherly love. He om secular labors on that day, let us rev

While thus rendering the unanimous and heartfelt tribute of national praise and thanksgiving, which as so justly due to Almighty God, let us not fail to implore Him that the same divine protection and care which we have hitherto so undeservedly and yet so constantly enjoyed, may be continued to our country and our people throughout all their generations forever.
