SCHOOL BLANKS.—Articles of Agreement between Directors and Teachers, Checks, Bonds of Collectors, Warrants of Collectors, Bonds of Treasurers, &c., for sale at the Inquirer office.

SCHOOL BLANKS.—Articles of Agreement between Directors and Teachers, Checks, Bonds of Collectors, Warrants of Collectors, Bonds of Treasurers, &c., for sale at the Inquirer office.

SUBSCRIPTIONS for the Atlantic Monthly, Harper's Magazine, Bazar & Weekly, The Galaxy, Godey's Lady's Book, and Peterson's Magazine will be received at the Inquirer office.

THANKSGIVING.—Rev. A. Barrow, of the St. James Episcopal Church, will preach the regular Thanksgiving sermon in the German Reformed Church, in this place, on Thanksgiving Day. Services to commence at 10 o'clock A. M.

SIDING DEATH.—Mrs. Light, an aged lady residing in the eastern part of the town, died very suddenly on Saturday morning last. She had been enjoying apparently good health previously, but was attacked with a hemorrhage and died in a few minutes.

ANY PERSON desiring a Life Scholarship in any one of Bryant, Stratton & Co.'s chain of National Commercial Colleges, can be supplied by applying to this office. These are the finest Commercial Colleges in America. Price $40, from which we will deduct 25 per cent.

WANTED.—Information concerning the death of John Sellers, late private of Co. E, 2nd Penn's Cavalry, who died at Annapolis, Md., in or about 1865, will be received and suitably rewarded at the office of J. W. Ling-felter, Esq., by F. A. Sellers.

RATIONS COMPLETED.—Heirs of deceased prisoners entitled to Commutation of Rations.—The heirs of prisoners who died in any of the Southern prisons are entitled to recover the Commutation for Rations provided by Act of Congress approved March 2, 1867. Widows, children and parents who are entitled to Ration money can procure it by applying to Durbarrow & Lutz.

IT IS a very thing but creditable to the moral character of our community to see the number of young, middle-aged and even old men who invariably crowd our court room whenever there is a disgusting criminal case to be tried. It is not enough that they whose professional duty, and those whom the law compels to attend, are under the necessity of leaving these disgusting and humiliating details for the credit of the community and their own benefit, we hope that they who are only led there by idle curiosity, will cease to frequent the Court House on such occasions.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—Pursuant to a previous call a large number of the Union men of Bedford county met in the Court House, in Bedford, on Tuesday evening last, and were called to order by the Chairman of the County Committee by nominating as President, J. M. BARNHOLLER, of Bloody Run, and as Vice Presidents, Rob't Rabson, Edward Trimbeck, Nathan H. Wright, Jacob Evans, Maj. D. W. Mullin, B.M. Blymyer, and W. H. H. Dasher; and as Secretaries, Lt. Col. Frank Holsinger, Sam'l J. Jordan and Lieut. D. F. Keagy.

J. R. Durbarrow, Esq., was first introduced and made a very neat, able and characteristic speech.

Mr. Bioglet, of Hollidaysburg, was then called on, but declined to speak upon the occasion.

Hon. John Cessna was then called on and proceeded in his usual happy style to address the meeting. The address was one of great eloquence and beauty.

Moses A. Points, Esq., was then called upon and spoke pertinently to the occasion.

Col. Frank Holsinger was then called for and submitted the following resolution, with remarks:

Resolved, That we, the Radical Republican Party of Bedford County, nominate as our first choice for President, ULYSSES S. GRANT, and for Vice President, EDWIN M. STANTON, subject to the decision of the Radical Republican National Convention.

The resolution was unanimously adopted. On motion, the meeting adjourned.

FRANK HOLSINGER,
F. KEAGY,
SAM'L J. JORDAN, Sec'ts.

A VICTIM OF MISPLACED CONFIDENCE.—A short time ago, a person representing himself to be a New Yorker and the owner of some fourteen thousand dollars worth of property called at the house of Mr. Reuben Smith, in Colerain township, and told the painful story of his being in search of a lost uncle, who resided, as he understood, in one of the border counties of Pennsylvania. As he had been travelling for a considerable time, his funds were out,—he was a "stranger in a strange land," and what was he to do? With tearful eyes he told his lamentable tale, and thereby excited Mr. Smith's warmest sympathy. What was to be done? An idea seemed to strike the unfortunate stranger, and although painful in every particular, yet necessity compelled him to make the sacrifice. He had in his possession a box of jewelry which he had intended to present to his Uncle, all of which, (valued at $250 00,) he would leave with Mr. Smith, as security for the loan of $125 00, for eight days. Pitying his forlorn condition, a check for the amount was given him, and, with profuse thanks, he started on his way rejoicing. The eight days expired, and the stranger not returning, Mr. Smith brought the jewelry to town in order to ascertain its value, when it was made known to him that it was a very fine article of black tin and copper, worth in reality about $25 or $30! As far as can be learned the stranger is still in search of his uncle.

THE DIAMOND DICKENS.—The old Curiosity Shop, and reprinted pieces. The beauty, concision and all the other attractions of this exquisite edition add new delights to one of Dickens' best stories. Edwyng's portraits of favorite characters give fresh interest to Little Nell, Mrs. Jarley Dick Swiveller, Quilp, Sampson Brass, The Marchioness, &c., and will tend to increase the number of their admirers. The "reprinted pieces" are some of the choicest papers ever contributed to English periodicals, many of them having already won wide favor in this country. The convenience and clear type of the "Diamond Dickens," we are glad to know, are duly appreciated.—Chicago Journal.

The secret of the great success of "The old Curiosity Shop" is found in the character of Little Nell. All true human feeling moves irresistibly towards children. Towards all children. Their innocence and weakness are stronger bonds upon men than genius, beauty or wealth. Towards all children—but pre-eminently towards a child whose life was so lonely and pathetic as Little Nell's. It could not fail. It touched a sure spot—a chord that never fails to thrill and answer.

This is the sixth or seventh of this issue. The remaining six or seven volumes will be published in rapid succession. The set, consisting of 13 or 14 elegant little volumes, will be a choice library in itself. Besides being very attractive, it is really the cheapest edition of Dickens' Complete Works issued in this country. The illustrated edition is only $1.50 a volume; plain, $1.25. All the booklets have it, or it will be sent postpaid by the Publishers, Ticknor and Fields, Boston.

ARTHUR'S HOME MAGAZINE.—The December issue closes the year with a highly attractive number. This is one of the best, progressive Magazines, and while it gives ample space to matters of fashion and needle work, which department is under the supervision of Mrs. Demorest of New York, it spreads before the reader monthly an ample and varied feast of the choicest literature.

We notice that a new serial story from the pen of Miss Virginia F. Townsend, will be commenced in the January number, and that the author of "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" will begin, in the same number, a new series of "Temperance Tales"—attractions sufficient to give any Magazine the widest popular favor. The terms of the Home Magazine are $2 a year, 3 copies for $5; 4 copies for $6; 8 copies with an extra copy get up of clubs; $12 and 15 copies and one extra copy, $20. Specimen number 15 cts. Address T. S. Arthur, 809 and 811 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

METEORS.—Quite a shower of Meteors fell here on the morning of the 14th inst. Those who were fortunate enough to be up so early as 4 o'clock, say that, notwithstanding the moon was shining brightly at the time, a large number of these "ethereal pyrotechnics" were seen flitting through the sky. To the northward the display was grand, a dark cloud hanging in that direction overshadowed the light of the moon, and made them visible in large numbers. From Detroit, Washington, Albany, and other places, we have accounts of brilliant and copious showers.

WHENEVER I TAKE MY WALKS abroad, how many poor, miserable Dyspeptic people I see who would be healthy, and rosy, and happy, if they took Pflaster Bitters, that paragon of preparations for giving tone to the stomach, and an excellent well of water near the nervous system, and strength to the muscles. It is an admirable regulator of nature's workings, and neglected functional powers in either man or woman. It gently excites and pleasantly soothes. With a bottle thereof, every man may be his own physician.

BALLOON'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—This very popular and exceedingly cheap Magazine presents an attractive table of contents for December. Amethyst Wynne's charming story, "The Derwent Eyes and Hair," is completed; Mrs. Edson's exciting serial, "The lady of Lindenwald," is intensely interesting while "Pam's Romance," by Miss Hale, and "My Darling," a poem, by James Franklin Fitts, are among the choicest of magazine reading. The illustrations are also remarkably good, making this one of the best numbers of BALLOON ever issued.

It is only $1.50 per year, or 15 cents a number. Clubs receive it for $1.25. The proprietors have good cause for calling it "the cheapest magazine in the world." Published by Elliott, Thomas & Talbot, Boston, Mass.

MRS. PARTINGTON INSULTED.—The White Mountains of New Hampshire are evidently a great institution—very high, heavy frosts, beautiful view, four dollar dinners. But the practical eye of a certain renowned Drake saw those smoothed-faced rocks, and thereupon adorned and variegated the bridge path to the Tip-top House with his familiar S. T.—1860—X. PLANTATION BITTERS. This raised the ire of the Mrs. Partingtons composing the Legislature of the Granite State, who got their wise heads together, outlawed Dr. Drake, and made it a penal offence to ply the artistic brush on their beloved hills. Very, the fine arts are at a discount in New Hampshire. Query.—Did Drake pay them for this splendid advertisement? It

MONEY WANTED! MONEY WANTED! BIDDY!—The persons who are indebted to us for subscriptions to the Inquirer, advertising and job work will take notice that we must have money. We have thousands of dollars of outstanding accounts on our books, which would, if prompt payment were made, enable us to settle all our liabilities and to make the improvements which we desire. We appeal to you to settle up, it is the only way in which we can meet our obligations and keep on good terms with those who patronize us. Short settlements and prompt payments make good friends. Do not let us appeal to you in vain. We desire to make some improvements, nameless at present, for which you will give us credit, and we must have money to further our plans. Walk up and settle!

HARPER'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—This popular periodical, for December, contains a Pilgrimage in Sunny lands; The Nurseries on Randall's Island, (illustrated); A Day's Fighting in Queretaro, Darwin and Domestication; Light and Shadow; A Bowl of Broom; Some Scottish Stories; Editor's Easy Chair; Literary Notices; Monthly Record of Current Events; Editor's Drawer, &c. Published by Harper & Brothers, Franklin Square, N. Y. Price, one copy one year, $4.

A NEW GROVER & BAKER $5 Sewing Machine for sale—only half cash and the balance in a reasonable time. Apply to Box 61, Bedford, Pa.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price. 2c.

ALL KINDS OF BLANKS for sale at the Inquirer office. A full supply of Deeds, Leases, Articles of Agreement, &c.

A Card to Sensitive People.—Rational reader, if the aspect of the weather, was uncertain, you would not be foolish enough to venture out without an overcoat or an umbrella. Have the forecast, then, to protect yourself that is dangerous when with something more important than either of these articles. Strengthen your stomach and nervous system, regulate your liver and bowels, tone all your organs, and cheer your animal spirits with that agreeable cordial, tonic and antiseptic, HOPKINETT'S STOMACH BITTERS. So shall you surely escape the diseases which fasten upon the feeble and the debilitated. "Suffer and be strong," says the proverb; "but be strong that you may not suffer" is the wiser maxim,—and of all strengthening preparations this is the safest, the surest, the most genial. As a remedy, as well as an antidote, for dyspepsia, fever and ague, and liver disease, it is no combination of vegetable specifics at present known which even approaches it in efficacy.

ANTICIPATE THE ENEMY.—The elements of innumerable diseases are afloat in this raw, mephitic season. Will you defend yourself against them or not, good reader? That is the question. A bottle or two of the great defensive medicine of the age, HOPKINETT'S BITTERS, will so strengthen and brace up your bodily powers as to enable them to laugh at what is called "scour." The morbid matter which is exhaled in perspiration through your pores in summer, finds no such free egress now. A powerful counteracting agent is therefore needed, and you have it in HOPKINETT'S BITTERS. They neutralize the malarious miasma from which disease originates, and regulate all the secretive organs. Nothing can be more harmless or more healthful—nothing so potent to prevent or cure biliousness, dyspepsia, fever and ague, constipation and general debility, as this wonderful corrective. 1 month.

MARRIED.—On the 20th inst., at the house of the bride's parents, by Rev. B. G. W. Reed, Mr. GEORGE McDANIEL to Miss MARY C. KISER, both of this place.

Again the printers were not forgotten. May a beautiful share of the kind care of Providence be ever around and about our young friends, and as they hereafter journey together, may perfect harmony and love for each other tend to make smooth the rugged paths of this life, and ultimately, when they "near the river," may they be blessed with the consciousness of having lived a life of peaceful union.

On the evening of the 17th inst., at the Lutheran parsonage, by Rev. A. R. Krenner, Mr. JOHN L. DAVIS to Miss RACHEL GROVE, both of East Providence.

On the evening of the 17th inst., by Rev. W. M. Deakins, Mr. DAVID F. MEANS and Miss CARRIE HOWSARE, both of Black Valley, Monroe township.

On the evening of the 14th inst., by the same, Mr. JEREMIAH POOR and Miss HANNAH C. DOLL, both of Friends Cove, this County.

SCHOOL TEACHERS WANTED.—The Board of School Directors of Northampton township, desire to employ Thirteen School Teachers. Thirty dollars will be paid for first class certificates. Apply immediately to the undersigned. By order of the Board, W. BENNET, Pres't.

ISRAEL M. BENNET, Sec'y. nov22

PROSPECTUS OF THE DAILY STATE GUARD.
The undersigned have entered into a co-partnership for the publication of a daily morning newspaper in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, to be known as THE DAILY STATE GUARD, the full number of which will appear on Monday, December 2, 1867.

The STATE GUARD is designed to contribute to the success of Republican principles, as they were enunciated by the illustrious statesman on which ANNAH LINCOLN was twice elected to the Presidency. The united voice of the Republican party of Pennsylvania, the organ at the political centre of the State, which will labor to keep pace with the great journals in other parts of the country in furnishing the people with reliable news, will be faithful advocates of Republican measures, and at the same time treat every honest and patriotic citizen with impartiality and respect. It will be a faithful and unflinching organ for Republican principles untrammelled success at all elections and demand for the Republican masses the purest and wisest representation.

Competent and liberal arrangements have been made for procuring the fullest reports of the proceedings of Congress, the proceedings of the State Legislature. Reports of the proceedings of all public assemblies which are designed to have an influence upon the public mind will be given. Our geographical arrangements for procuring domestic intelligence will be the same as those by which the leading newspapers of the country are furnished, and the importance of the news will be able, every day, to lay before the people of the counties, cities, boroughs and villages in the region immediately surrounding the Capital of the State, important political, legislative and general intelligence eight hours in advance of the means by which they have heretofore been supplied with such reading matter.

It is designed to make the STATE GUARD, so far as enterprise, industry and long years of experience as journalists can enable the undersigned, to present the daily newspaper, representing the difficulties which attend all new enterprises, they have not embarked in its publication without having first fully considered the importance of giving the public on a solid business foundation, that confidence may be fully reposed in their undertaking. It will be a permanent institution, because it has the assistance from its own motive to serve the public interest, and because those concerned in it have the necessary capital to establish and maintain it.

THE WEEKLY STATE GUARD.
It is designed to issue from the office of the STATE GUARD, on Wednesday, the 10th of December, and on Wednesday of each succeeding week, a weekly paper, containing a variety of interesting news and general news.

TERMS OF DAILY: Single copies, 2 cents.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.
Critical Notices of the Press
The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Times.
We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excitements of HARPER'S MAGAZINE. It is a monthly circulating more than 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an exponent of the culture of the American People, and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, and is supplied with good wood cuts, and a combination in itself the rare monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great merit in dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TRENCH'S Guide to Literature, London.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.
