MEETING OF THE Co. COMMITTEE. - We had only time last week to publish a meagre account of the proceedings of the meeting of the Committee on Court week, but enough from which our readers will learn that Grant and Stanton are preferred by the Republican party of Bedford County as standard bearers in the next Presidential campaign. On Grant the action of the Committee was unanimous, but there was a division on the Vice-Presidency-Ex Gov. Curtin receiving a few votes on the first ballot. With the exception of Middle Woodberry, every district was represented, and this fact, together with the witnessing of the outpouring of the citizens on Tuesday evening, leads us to believe that tional resolution which was unanimously our friends are fully aroused, and feel the imadopted with great enthusiasm. portance of the coming contest.
