BEDFORD, PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1868. VOL. XXI, NO. 10.

Poetry. LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT.

Full racing rills and sang. Full lighly in the perfect weather.

But now the mists of grief, All round the mountain echoes rang.

And that with songs of joy was thrilling; But, in the hollow of my heart,

I heard the chanting waters flow. The ebbing note, the bees low humming-

Then turned the hedge, and did not come. How could I-that my time was coming.

And now I know, I know. I know. I know. I know. I know. I know.

that made everything crack. Boys have springs inside of them under every muscle.

It is often spoken of as a mystery that the infirm and apparently useless members of a family are left to drag out a weary existence.

It is a living miracle. The present physical, moral and social condition of the Jews must be a miracle.
