PATTONSVILLE, March 6., 1868. MESSES. EDITORS :- The last session of the South Woodberry District Institute was held A. M.) In the absence of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary, W. B. Miller was appointed Secretary pro tem. All the members were present except Messrs. D. Stayer, B. odeock, M. M. Richey, D. B. Zook and D. Price. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. Next in order was the regular programme of business, which was as follows: Class drill in Grammar by W. B. Miller in Mental Arithmetic, by D. Stayer, in Geography' by G. W. Dively, in Reading, by M. Detrick .- On motion, the Institute adjourned to meet at 1 o'clock, P. M.

Between the stomach and the brain there is a close and wonderful alliance. If the one is dis-ordered the other is gloomy, dejected, incapable of effort, and indifferent to all that makes life agreeable to the bealthy.

Is this a condition that any rational human being is willing to endure, when the means of cer-tain, immediate and permanent relief can be obtained everywhere?

The Dyspeptic has his fate in his own hand. If he chooses to banish forever the disorder that racks his body and disturbs the mind with nameless horrors, he has only to step to the new drug store and procure a supply of HOSTET TER'S STOMACH BITTERS. No phase of Dyspepsia has everyst resisted the alterative, tonic and anti-bilious operation of this potent vegetable specific. It literally regenerates at New Enterprise, on Saturday the 29th day the lethargic stomach; rouses into healthy action f February, 1868. The house was called to the dormant liver; puts to flight the dismal fanorder by the President at the usual hour (9 A. M.) In the absence of the Secretary and Assistant Secretary, W. B. Miller was apwere, a new creature of the desponding and debil itated invalid.

Ladies who suffer from indigestion have only to take a small dose of this pure vegetable correc tive, once or twice a day, to secure intire exemp tiyn from the pains and penalties of a weak sto ach and that perfect functional regularity, which but few of the sex uninterruptedly enjoy.
