OF CAMERIA COUNTY. IMPEACHMENT.

We expected to be able to announce to our readers, to-day, that the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, had been convicted of "High Crimes and Misdemeanors." or that he had been acquitted. Last week, when the case was closed on the part of the Managers of the House, by Judge Bingham, the Senate determined to take the final vote, on Tuesday last, at twelve o'clock. This was accepted by the country as the conclusion of the great trial, and the settlement of the political excitement which has been manifest throughout the country. But all were doomed to disappointment. Rumor had reached us, time and again, during the trial, that there would be a number of Republican Senators who would vote for acquittal. Then again these reports were as strenuously denied. However it was generally considered that Grimes of Iowa, and Fowler of Tennessee would vote against conviction. Up to las Monday it was generally acknowledged that, in the main, the Republicans would stand firm. During Monday night and Tuesday morning, the opposition to conviction developed their strength and amongst the number was Fessenden of Maine, Trumbull of Illinois, and Henderson of Missouri. This caused a feeling of depression only heretofore felt at the defeat of our armies, in the late struggle, or the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Fessenden was not regarded at any time, as any t reliable. He has been an expectant, and somewhat soured, and he has no doubt allowed his sensitiveness to get the advan-Trumbull and Mr. Henderson should take this strange position no one could divine.

Senate assembled to east the final vote, Mr. Howard of Michigan, was lying dangerously ill in the hands of several physicians who had been in attendance upon him through the night previous. Howard in he would be in his place in the Senate, if it should even cause his death conviction, without the votes of Howard and Wade. This is very likely correct.

There is only one answer; the m dmighty dollar is the true alchemy which does transmute politics, religion, and all the races and virtues into gold. There is no na ion under the sun, civilized or uncivilized that presents such a terrible state of depravi y in this respect as the American nation, and at, too, before we have reached our first centennial anniversary. It is time that both church and State, high and low, were directed to this rapidly growing evil. Heavier penalties must be inflicted for the punishment of it, and heavier rewards for its detection. ## Negro Suffrage in the South.

The late elections have fully indicated the policy of negro suffrage in the rebel States. Neither the white nor black vote was cast all on one side. Taking the representations of the Democratic papers for authority, both were divided—not in the middle nor anywhere near it, perhaps—but some blacks went to the Democrate and probably more white. by perhaps—but some blacks went to the Democrats, and probably more whites went with the radicals—and the division destroyed whatever ground there was for the clamor there previously had been about the whites being arrayed against a free Constitution, whereby five States will shortly resume their proper places in the Union, the election of loyal State officers and a large majority of Republicans to Congress. The loyal whites could not have achieved this alone. It was by renforcing them with the no less loyal lacks that reconstruction has been carried prevared almost to completion, in the intervent of the principles of Freedom and Development of the construction has been brought forward, and, perhas dendent, which has been brought for son dendenting considering how near the day of the nomit time dendenting considerin blacks that reconstruction has been carried forward almost to completion, in the interest of the principles of Freedom and Progress, against which the South rebelled. Herein was the necessity, and the result is the complete vindication of the policy of Congress. The negro armed with the ballot, has done a service of which nobody else was capable. The ballot was given to him as the musket had been—to help put the rebellion down. But for such a necessity, it is to be doubted whether the South would have seen universal suffrage. The Pendleton Scheme—What it is?

What the Pendletonian Greenback scheme really is can be described by none so well as its supporters. We have said it was a scheme for flooding the country with paper issues which would speedily degenir.

Would be in the ascendency in the South. No loyal man would dare to raise his voice there, and all the Southern States would to-day be ruled by men bent on nothing so much as the redemption of the lost cause. All this was foreseen, and the country has abundant reason for expressing its gratitude to Congress for arming the blacks with the dark days of the rebellion. Negro suffrage in the South has worked well.—Pitt.

Comet, from the Sandwich Islands, brings accounts of a terrible volcanic cruption of Mauna Leo. The demonstrations began March 27. On the 28th over one hundred shocks were felt at Helena. During the two weeks following, to April 13, two thousand earthquake shocks occurred. At Warsehena the earth opened in many places, a tidal wave, sixty feet high, going over the tops of the cocoa trees, a quarter of a mile inland, sweeping human beings, horses, and everything moveable before it. THE Attorney General of Califor cides that mining claims must be taxed like other private property, in accordance with the late decision of the State Supreme Court. This will add largely to the revenue of many

The "reaction" has commenced. At the late charter election in Lancaster, the Republican party gained 187 votes on the mayorality and eight councilmen, showing for the first time in many years a majority in one branch and a tie on joint ballot. The following officers, all Republicans were elected: City Treasurer, James F. Ricksecker. City Solicitor, J. W. Johnson Esq., Superintendent of Water Works, Wm. Kirkpatrick; Steeet Commission, George Huffngle; mand, sweeping human beings, horses, and everything moveable before it.

THE Argentine journals state that privite letters received in Buenos Ayres from Rio Janeiro announce the intended abdication of His Majesty Don Pedro II, Emperor of Brazil. They say that the Emperor recently called a conference of the principal personages of the country to arrange definitely the terms of his abdication, to whom he announced the reasons prompting him to take that step, stating at the same time that his resolution was irrevocable. It appears that he is tired of the fatigues of Governoyed.

The new island thrown up is 400 feet high and is now joined to the mainland by a stream of lava a mile wide. A large stream of water has burst from the mountain where the earth eruption occurred. At the base of the volcano about three hundred miles circumference, are desolated. At least $500,000 in property is destroyed. The King of the Sandwich Islands has issued a proclamation for the relief of the sufferers. Many visitors have gone from Honolulu, and others will go from this city to visit the scene.
