ADDRESS FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF THE REPUBLICAN SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' COMMITTEE.

COMRADES: - When the rebel armies were overthrown and the rebel leaders forgiven by our magnanimous Chief, the whole world wondered at the generosity which pardoned men guilty of such crime. The least we expected was that the Government, for which we had fought and for which so many had given up their lives, was secured against the possibility of another conspiracy. But warned by history and taught by our own experience among the misguided people of the South, we maintained our organizations, and now, in the forefront of another peril, congratulate ourselves upon the wisdom of that decision. So throughly have our military brothers reunited themselves that only a few who wore the Union blue can be induced to join the ranks of the rebel De mocracy. Our camps extend East and West; from the Atlantic to the Pacific; and there is not a veteran who does not realize that the public danger may once more call him to the field. The alarming specarmy of the South and the rebel sympa thizers of the North-is the living proof of great impending calamities. The animosity they bore to our beloved Commander-in-chief-now the candidate of the great Republican party-survives the hollow gratitude with which they hailed his iberal terms of peace, and now, remembering only that he struck them in the field, and coldly forgetting how he forgave their great offence, they are toiling with HOME AND FOREIGN ADVERTISE- superhuman energy to defeat him for the fice a fit successor of its present guilty oc-Their hatred of Grant extends to all our heroic leaders, with one or two exceptions.
