Last Saturday evening was the regular time for the assembling of the Grant and Colfax Campaign Club which has been such a noble success from its inception. Jacon Barshard, Eso, was in the chair, assisted by Alexander King, jr. and John Alsip, Esgs. as Secretaries. The Court House was literally crammed with the exclutant multitade who had flocked thither to listen a second time to that peerless that notices us since we carry our German Silver. We are always willing to pay for a "puff" and had the Gazette put his first sen-tence under the head of "New. Advertiseance. The speech of Mr. Purviance was a lucid, comprehensive and logical resume of the his tory of the two great contending parties that now claim the suffrages of the people.
